MINOR MENTION.

H. R. Stewart, artist, at Chapman's. See J. Rieter's new fall stock of cloths. Scott street bridge is approaching completion. The city council is to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Attend the closing out sale at H. Friedman's, 341 Broadway. The Genial Four have a dance in Masonic hall on the 20th. "The Planter's Wife" is to-night's attraction at the opera house. Four horses were stolen from different parties near Avoca last week. Grand closing out sale has begun at H. Friedman's, 341 Broadway. The Y. M. C. A. will hold a social at their rooms to-morrow evening. Neola's democracy is to roast an ox and have a big jollification to-morrow. W. B. Cuddy, of Avoca, has won over $1100 by the election of Cleveland. G. B. Murphy and Peter Barford were run in yesterday for being drunk. The Spiritualists had a happy social Saturday night, the opening one of the season. Democrats and republicans concede that J. J. Auwerda & Co., handle the finest millinery goods. Judge Aylesworth's majority is now figured down to only two. Not a unanimous thing by any means. Excellent finish, life-like expression, true to nature, are the characteristics of Stewart, the artist's work. Tom Dolan is to appear this morning to explain to Judge Aylesworth how a man can drink in a prohibiting state. James Nolan is lying in the city calaboose on a charge of being drunk, and also charged with picking a man's pocket of $3. There will be no more work done on St. Paul church until spring. In the meantime the subscriptions will be received if possible. Mrs. J. O. Bennett has returned from from Salina, Kas., where she has been for some time with her mother, who has been dangerously ill, but is now better. Jamea Portersfield laid down a case of wine in 1876, declaring it should not be opened until a democratic president was elected. He can now begin to draw the corks. There were no services at the Congregational church yesterday, and as no notice was handed in to THE BEE, scores of would-be worshippers went there only to find the doors locked. Mrs. Jennie Brown, of Macedonia, was a divorcee from Miller J. Brown on the grounds that he is too fond of one Lillie Tull. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been married seven years. The sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed at Broadway Methodist church yesterday, it being quarterly meeting day. The presiding elder, Rev. W. T. Smith, presided. Permits to wed have been granted A. M. Bates and Miss Tenpie Bird, of Valley township, T. E. Hencock and Laura Beadle, of Omaha; H. S. Covette and Comstock, of Denmark. Rev. George Robey with this week's issue of the Christian Home, assumes editorial management of that paper, and will continue to make it interesting to all interested in the home of the friendless. Next Thursday evening the police force has its annual dance in Masonic hall. The sale of tickets should give the boys of the star a benefit, and encourage them to do their duty more faithfully than ever. Last Friday Eli Clayton was thrown from his buggy and onto the tongue and whiffstrees, and one of the team, a fiery colt, kicked him in the face and on the side of the head, cutting some bad gashes. Friday evening Mr. Landis was driving to the institution for the deaf and dumb, with a horse and buggy belonging to Wise's livery stable, when a runaway team came dashing along and tore off one of the buggy wheels. Weatherly & Bennett have just received for their livery stable a new buggy made by the O'Neill Wagon company of Springfield, N. Y., the first of that manufacture ever seen here. It is a neat little sidebar and square box buggy. The county board is in some doubt about its legal right to make the desired appropriation for the improvement of Indian Creek, and as there is now no fund for that purpose, the matter will be postponed until the next meeting of the board. G. F. Gilman was arrested yesterday on suspicion of being the cause of the disappearance of various articles at the Stone City house. The boarders there have been lately losing various articles of clothing and it is thought that Gilman has to do with it. F. W. Blue, a railway man from Hildale, is in the cooler on a charge of disturbing the peace. It is claimed that he accosted a woman on Pierce street, and she replying very sharply, he insulted her, whereupon Charles McDonald, a colored man took the woman's part, and a row followed. McDonald was also arrested, and put up $20 as security for his appearance in court this morning. Arthur L. Ball, the American champion trick and fancy skater, is to appear at the roller skating rink this evening. Mr. Schenck, the manager of the rink, says Ball is without doubt the champion, not only of America, but of the world. His exhibition will be a peculiarly interesting one, as he is principally a trick skater, and does many marvellous feats. He is on his way to San Francisco under the management of Bonney & Kimble, who have in all thirteen skaters under their management. New curbing is being put in around the new government building, to take the place of that taken away by the city. It is still a query as to who got the benefit of the old curbing, which was first taken by the city to put in front of its own property, and then taken down Main street and put in front of private property. There was thus about $200 worth of Uncle Sam's curbing thus taken. Uncle Sam has made the city put curbing in its place, but who got the benefit of Uncle Sam's curbing? The city, some contractor, or private parties? A 9 year old son of J. W. Morse has been quite ill for several days, requiring care day and night, but is now somewhat better. The cause of the little fellow's sufferings, which have been intense, was the rough usage of some other boys at school. It seems that one boy particularly, named Willie Allen, had on several occasions teased and kicked the young Morse boy, and although the teachers had been notified, there seemed no effective stop to the abuse, which was repented a few days. The Morse boy had his right arm badly hurt and received a kick in the groin so that he has since been confined to his bed. It is understood that the Allen boy and another lad has since been expelled. The publication of an article in Saturday's Bee concerning one J. A. Ferguson, who seems to be realizing on fraudulent drafts drawn on J. Greenhood & Co., of Chicago, arouses the suspicion that this Ferguson is none other than the J. Alfred Ferguson who was the private secretary of the mayor, and who skipped out of here with some of the mayor's money. He was brought back here and put in jail, but finally released. A Bee man recently met Ferguson in Omaha, and the latter then claimed that he was travelling for a safe and lock house and doing an immense business, he having sold locks and safes to several large banks. Greenhood & Co. warn the public to look out for J. A. Ferguson, and it looks as if it was the same young man who formerly was Vaughan's man Friday. Buy your Thanksgiving hats and bonnets at J. J. Auwerda & Co.'s, 317 Broadway. It will pay you to see our line of stoves before you buy. DE VOL & WRIGHT, 604 Broadway. BEWARE OF BURGLARS. The Gang Still Plundering Private Residences. The police do not seem able thus far to break up the gang of burglars who have been plundering and pilfering here for several weeks. Saturday it was discovered that a number of places were visited by burglars the night before. D. A. Judd's residence, No. 610 Sixth street was one. A necklace belonging to Mrs. Judd, and some articles of lesser value were taken. A box was taken from a room in the house occupied by Mrs. Lefferty. Mr. Judd with his family returned home in the evening while the thieves were still at work, and in trying to get out one of them ran right by Mr. Judd, who grabbed him but not firmly enough, the thief breaking away and getting off. The residence of Mr. John Schoentgen corner of Sixth avenue and Sixth street, was also visited, and a number of articles taken including a revolver. Peter Buck's house No. 606 Sixth street was also ransacked but little of value taken. Order hard wood of P. Overton. Stewart stoves, De Vol & Wright. Real Estate Transfers. The following transfers were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday and reported for the BEE by J. P. McMahon, real estate agent, November 15, 1884: Elizabeth Kinney and husband to Frank F. Farnsworth, 1 21, Davis Park add, Avoca, $675. Adaline Champlin to Jos. A. Champlin, 2 sw, 4 so 4, 16, 77, 41, $1. G. M. Dodge and wife to Charles L. Williams, 1 13 and 15, b 28, Beers' sub div. $1. George F. Wright and wife to Charles L. Williams, 1 1, b 12, Beers' sub div. $1. J. P. Williams and wife to Charles L. Williams, 1 1 and 2, b 21, Beers' sub div. $1. Lucinda Carpenter to city of Council Bluffs, 1 12, b 2, Voorhis' add, $650. August Klipping and wife to Peter Brakop, 1 8, b 8, Underwood, $165. Lewis W. Hazen to Theo. D. Warmfield, 1 14, b 6, Oakland, $1. County Treasurer to A. B. Walker, 1 4, b 9, Turley's add, $358 85. Theo. D. Warmfield to Princess H. Ellis, 1 14, b 6, Oakland, $1. The National Carnival. One of the finest entertainments of the season is promised by the Y. M. C. A. on Thanksgiving evening at Masonic hall. There will be music, the best this community can produce, for all lovers of music, both vocal and instrumental. For those who admire the drama there will be one of the plays of Shakespeare. There will be present the best drill company of ladies in the state, and for the hungry there will be all that one could desire. A complete programme will shortly be presented to the public, and beyond all doubt, the public can depend on a grand treat on the night of the 27th.

MORE PETITIONS NEEDED
 Before the County Board Will Feel Authorized to Order a New Court House Election.

The county board of supervisors during yesterday's session concluded that it was best not to take any action in regard to the court house until a more full expression of citizens of the county could be gained in regard to it. The petition already presented was signed by a large number of the heaviest taxpayers and most prominent business men of this city, but the board desires to hear from the outlying country a little more. It will not be difficult to get all the petitions they need, for the old building is now in such condition that it is evidently only a matter of choice, whether the county will be a new one, or whether some building will be rented for offices, and the present one located at Fort Madison or somewhere else at the county's expense. That something must be done, and at once is evident. The following is the official action of the board:

Whereas, A petition has been presented to us, signed by a number of prominent citizens, requesting that we call a special election for the purpose of submitting the proposition to erect a new court house in this county; and

Whereas, As we fully recognize the necessity of such a building, believing that the increased growth of our county requires a larger and better structure, and recognizing the fact that the board of health of the city of Council Bluffs have declared said building unsafe, and knowing, of our own knowledge, that said building is an unsafe institution and liable to fall in a short time, yet we fully appreciate the fact that this proposition has already been voted upon in one election held in this county and the same defeated; and

Whereas, The signatures to said petition represent but an inconsiderate portion of the voters of this county, and but a few of the several townships thereof; and

Whereas, We have no means of knowing whether there would be any probability of said proposition being carried in case of an election; and

Whereas, In case of such an election should be ordered and such proposition defeated, it would be making an unnecessary and useless expenditure; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the board of supervisors of Pottawattamie county, Iowa, that the consideration of said petition be postponed and deferred until such time as the board shall receive a further and fuller expression of the citizens of this county on said subject.
