HEALTH. SEND your address to Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass. I have written a book on the treatment of Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Migraine, Headache, Stomach and Bowel Disorders, Dropsy, etc.

A GOD SEND! I have had rheumatism for forty years, and I have been relieved with a few bottles of S. S. S. I consider it a God-send to the afflicted.

WILD HORSES! Parties Organized for the Purpose of Killing Stallions. One of the Novelties of Western Ranch Life.

Laramie Booming. Up in Northwestern Wyoming and in Northwestern Nebraska many bands of wild horses still roam as fearless and as fleet as in the days when the country was an unbroken wilderness.

Year by year horses are lost from the hands in the Territory. Some of them are found, but when they escape they are lost beyond reclaim.

It has been observed, however, that few if any colts are to be seen among the bands during the autumn and winter, and one naturally wonders what becomes of the natural and regular increase of the horses.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT. How He Looks and What He Says—Interview with the Soon-to-be Ex-Governor—His Private Secretary.

I stopped in Albany a few hours in order that I might pay my respects to the president-elect and see for myself what manner of man this memorable campaign of 1884 has crowned with the greatest of civil honors, writes Edmund Haden, editor of the Washington Capital.

A Remarkable Trotting Season. New York Herald. The racing season of 1884 came to a brilliant close with the wonderful performance of Maud S at Lexington, Ky., last Tuesday.

He had never visited the capital. He replied that there was no truth in that statement, as he had been in Washington two or three times on business, although never of course, since he became governor of New York.

POLITICAL GOSSIP. Randall's Friends Want Him to Enter Cleveland's Cabinet. Washington Special.

Some of Mr. Randall's friends earnest that he should go into the cabinet and state that he can be made secretary of the interior of Cleveland's cabinet.

The Deacon and the Dude. Kinderhook Rough Notes. "I really believe we had better go down to Nantucket to-day. It's posky hot," said Deacon Bodkin one day during the "hotted time."

Oil City Derrick. "Well, Mr. Johnson," said a Titusville derrick to another who had but recently moved to Meadville, "what kind of people have you got there?"
