

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning Nov. 27.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier... By Mail...

MINOR MENTION.

New goods at Bliss'. H. R. Stewart, artist, at Chapman's. See J. Reiter's new stock of cloths.

Justice Schurz on Tuesday evening, at his office, married Elbert Gladwin to Rebecca Barber, both of this city.

The Rev. Dr. McCrary, of the Broadway M. E. church, or the religious editor of the BEE mangled Bobbie Burns' 'Tam O'Shanter' in the Sabbath discourse on the subject, 'Is Life Worth Living?'

United States Marshal's sale of fine jewelry, watches, diamonds, etc., on Friday at 10 o'clock a. m., at Bowman, Rohrer & Co., Dealers and others, who desire to buy fine jewelry, should attend.

Conductor John Carey is running Fred Bliss' train on the Rock Island during the latter's illness.

George E. Kellogg, clerk at the Pacific, left last evening to eat Thanksgiving turkey with his parents at home in Dunlap.

John Templeton, the ex-chief of the fire department, will eat turkey to-day at the table of his sister, Mrs. Gregg, in Nebraska City.

Burt Sargent, who is connected with J. M. Phillips' store, has special reasons to give thanks. It is a sweet little maiden, who arrived Tuesday.

Harry S. Kimball at Keeline & Felt's will hereafter handle heavy hardware during the day and a ten pound girl at night. He decided on this change Tuesday evening.

sis of the heart, November 22. The other of the twins, George, died early in September. The double sorrow thus coming to Mr. Mackenzie and his wife in their new home awakens much sympathy on the part of their many friends here.

A young man aged twenty-two years, and giving his name as EdMcMann, was before Judge Aylosworth yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. It appeared from answers received to the judge's questions that the young man had worked all summer and had earned about $125 above expenses, but had fritted his money away and found himself out of money, out of work and without friends, while cold weather was coming on.

George Edgar, whose whereabouts have been a matter of conjecture, returned yesterday safe and sound, and says he has been to Schuyler on some detective business. He served notices on THE BEE and Nonpareil yesterday for each to kill a fatted calf, as the prodigal son had returned.

Orders by telephone for flour, feed, wood, coal, and hay, will be promptly filled by Cook & Cooper, 700 Broadway.

Telephone to No. 113 for dry hard stove wood and kindling. Big supply. Prices low. PLATT OVERTON.

'A Little Ore.' The Rev. Dr. McCrary, of the Broadway M. E. church, or the religious editor of the BEE mangled Bobbie Burns' 'Tam O'Shanter' in the Sabbath discourse on the subject, 'Is Life Worth Living?'

Take Robert Burns who sang the heart of Scotland in those strains the world will never let die. He was a man devoted to earthly pleasures, and at last he says they are

'Or, like the snow falls in the river, A moment white, then melts forever, Or, like the rainbow's lovely form, Evanescent amid the storm.'

Burns was a practical fellow and would probably have objected to such a materialization of the sunbeams.—Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

But it has been mangled just about as badly by the above critic. Burns referred to the evanescent nature of pleasure as follows:

'Or, like the snow falls in the river, A moment white, then melts forever, Or, like the rainbow's lovely form, Evanescent amid the storm.'

Not lost, while we believe gone is as fully appropriate a substitute for melas, as the word lost.

In justice to Dr. McCrary the reporter freely admits that he failed to hear right, and not being very familiar with the quotation, reported it as above, contrary to the manner in which it was quoted.

United States Marshal's sale of fine jewelry, watches, diamonds, etc., on Friday at 10 o'clock a. m., at Bowman, Rohrer & Co., Dealers and others, who desire to buy fine jewelry, should attend.

Conductor John Carey is running Fred Bliss' train on the Rock Island during the latter's illness.

G. W. Burpee, of Bushnell, Ill., representing a Burlington grain house, was at the Ogden yesterday.

L. F. Whithead is receiving a visit from his father, who came from Chicago to spend Thanksgiving.

A DESTITUTE WOMAN.

Those Who are Ready to Give Thanks Should be Ready to Give Substantials Also.

The attention of THE BEE was called yesterday to a woman named Mrs. Hibler, who lives at No. 507 on upper Broadway. From what could be learned from the neighbors and from herself, it appears that she is a widow with one child, aged about two years. She has managed by hard work to support herself and child in a scanty way, but lately was taken sick and helpless. She has been actually suffering for food and fuel, and an appeal to the county finally resulted in her being given a stove, but during the cold weather of late she has been without fuel, and her only means of keeping her little child warm was to keep it in bed.

The neighbors have had their attention called to the case, and some of them have been trying to get some relief for the woman from the county, and have been themselves sending in food and fuel. The county physician is now attending her, but there are many necessities, not to speak of luxuries, which she should have. Some of the neighbors feel that the county should make better provisions for such cases, but while official action is always slow and very economical in such cases, the woman and her child should not be allowed to suffer in such a land of plenty, and the generous-hearted citizens should supply her wants before they content themselves in sitting down to well-spread boards, and returning thanks.

Window shades at cost to close them out. P. C. Miller 13 Pearl street.

SUES THE CITY.

Charles Sanders Wants $5,000 on Account of a Broken Leg.

A suit has been commenced in the district court, in which judgment is asked against the city for $5,000, the claim being that while sewerage work was being done on Eighth street, holes and piles of dirt were left unprotected, there not being even a red lantern at night. Charles Sanders, a boy of fourteen, while returning from work with a team about 10 o'clock at night, was thrown from the wagon on account of the condition of the street, and one of his legs was broken. For this $5,000 damages are demanded.

Order hard wood of P. Overton.
