

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Friday Morning Nov. 28.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - 20 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

New goods at Bliss'. H. R. Stewart, artist, at Chapman's. See J. Reiter's new stock of cloths. Some thief snatched a brown overcoat from Bray's livery stable yesterday. Stewart, the artist, makes life-size portraits for $25, every picture a gem of art. Ed Hamilton was arrested yesterday for being drunk and insulting a lady on Broadway. An article in yesterday's Bee was credited to the Nonpareil by mistake instead of the Herald. Judge Aylesworth tried the matrimonial knot between D. M. Graves and Maria M. Smith, of Plattsburgh. Master James Mulqueen now wears the medal for good behavior and scholarship at St. Joseph's academy. The new school building on Pierce street is being put in readiness for occupancy and will be all finished by New Year.

'Dreams or fun in photograph gallery' was the attraction at the opera house yesterday at the matinee and last evening. Lawrence Woodruff was too drunk to carry his valise yesterday, and valise and man were landed in the cooler by deputy marshal Bates.

Yesterday at the Rovers house George W. Coziah and Emma E. Maat, both of Glenwood, were joined in marriage by Mayor Vaughan.

The sermon delivered by Rev. Dr. McCrory at Union services yesterday is omitted on account of our crowded space. It will appear to-morrow.

Connor Brothers have commenced suit against J. H. Hamilton and Mary O'Brien for $300 for a tombstone which they claim has never been paid for.

Mary F. Hart has commenced suit against the Rock Island railway for $450 damages to her house, caused by the dynamite explosion in September, 1881.

The children of the Home of the Friendless had a beautiful Thanksgiving dinner, and were given practical assurance that there are in the world friends of the homeless.

Mr. D. C. Tacker and Clara E. Miller were yesterday happily married. The young folks are both well known here, and the congratulations and kindly wishes are many.

The settes in Bayliss park are of little legitimate use as cold weather comes on. They are being used at night, however, for illegitimate purposes, and for the protection of the benches and for public decency they had better be stored away.

Mr. Benjamin Rogers, formerly of this city, died of congestion of the lungs at Columbia, Dakota, last Saturday. He was a brother of Jacob Rogers, of this city, who accompanied the remains to Brownville, Neb., where they will be at rest.

The police force has now established new headquarters, having taken possession of the room in the new city building, until now occupied by the city engineer. This leaves the city jail proper in the hands of the marshal and his deputies. The new police headquarters have been nicely fitted up.

Officer Dann yesterday found in a vacant lot near the Northwestern depot a valise which had been ransacked apparently by thieves. The side of the valise had been cut and the contents scattered about. A bundle of letters indicated that the valise was the property of E. J. Thatcher, of Mapleton, Iowa.

Work on the new postoffice and court house is being pushed as rapidly as possible. Mr. O. J. King, the superintendent, says they will take advantage of every fine day, as they did yesterday, and keep all the hands they can possibly use. The first car of cut stone arrived yesterday afternoon over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad from Joliet, Ill., from the quarry of Mr. Rice, the contractor.

The fool mayor of Council Bluffs has felt called upon to issue a Thanksgiving proclamation, in which he says: "Let us thank our Supreme Ruler that our government will in the future be in the hands of honest men." Somebody should put the lilliputian official on ice, or his usurped responsibility will yet be the death of him - Malvern Leader.

Wm. Cunningham, an employe of the packing house was before Squire Barnes Thursday last, charged with an assault on Wm. Padgett, one of his fellow workmen, with intent to do him great bodily injury. The assault consisted in Cunningham's throwing a bucket of boiling water over Padgett's head and shoulders, with what may yet prove serious results. The evidence showed that no provocation was offered by Padgett, but that the assault was made from pure cussedness. Cunningham had been regarded as a vicious person by his acquaintances here. He was bound over to the grand jury and is resting in the county jail - Malvern Leader.

A great attraction is announced for the roller skating rink to-morrow night. Prof. W. D. Wilcox, of Boston, and J. R. Pacifico, of London, who claim the championship of the world as double riders on the bicycle, are to be here then and give an exhibition. They perform seeming impossibilities on a bicycle. They will ride standing head or feet in saddle, or on each other's head and shoulders. They climb all over the bicycle while it stands still, or ride double on one wheel, with the trailing wheel in the air. Prof. Wilcox also rides bicycle, or single wheel, the saddle, backbone and rear wheel being removed. Those who saw their wonders last season, when they were here, will surely be anxious to see them again, and those who missed that occasion should not let this one pass.

Jno. J. Adams did not find much to be thankful for yesterday. He got up out of humor, and before 9 o'clock found himself locked up in the cooler, for having thumped his wife, just as if a man could not once a year discipline his wife and remind her that he was still a lord of creation. Mrs. Adams spent her Thanksgiving in trying to reduce the swelling of her face, where he had hit her.

A fellow giving his name as M. H. Campbell was arrested yesterday for being drunk. On his person was found a pass-key and a set of garnet jewelry, also a pawn ticket for a ring which he had pawned in Omaha the day before. There were some other indications and some further information learned about him that caused the police to look upon him with suspicion, and he will be investigated further before being released.

Orders by telephone for flour, feed, wood, coal, and hay, will be promptly filled by Cook & Cooper, 700 Broadway.

Telephone to No. 113 for dry hard stove wood and kindling. Big supply. Prices low. PLATT OVERTON.

THANKSGIVING CARNIVAL. The Young Methodists Give a Successful Entertainment Last Evening.

The entertainment called the "National Carnival," given in Masonic hall last evening by the M. L. S. C., proved a very enjoyable and successful affair. This society was recently organized by the young folks of the Broadway Methodist church, the purpose being to afford social enjoyment and improvement, and also to secure money for the church. The interpretation of the mystic letters of the society's title is "Musical, Literary and Social Club," which gives a very fair idea of the class of entertainments to be given this season, of which the one last evening was the opening.

The programme consisted of music, tableaux, living pictures, fortune telling, broom drill, scenes from Shakespeare, scenes from Tom Sawyer, Mark Antony's oration on the death of Cesar, a fair, an art display, supper, etc., so that there was enough variety and enough quantity of entertainments to make it a happy Thanksgiving night for all who attended. In the musical line there was a chorus by the club, an orchestra accompaniment, a quartette by the church choir, and among the most pleasing numbers a solo by Miss Calderwood, of Omaha. The broom drill by sixteen young ladies under command of Col. Talley was excellent, and the other features of the programme were well carried out. An excellent supper was provided, and one of the novel features was the weighing of the young ladies who received a certificate from F. H. Orcutt, the weighmaster, their young gentlemen paying for their suppers according to the number of pounds of the fair ones. The M. L. S. C. may well congratulate themselves on the success of their opening entertainment, and they have won by it such public favor that it will be easy to secure a large attendance to any future entertainment arranged by them.

Window shades at cost to close them out. P. C. Miller 13 Pearl street.

United States Marshal's sale of fine jewelry, watches, diamonds, etc., on Friday at 10 o'clock a. m., at Bowman, Rohrer & Co.'s. Dealers and others, who desire to buy fine jewelry, should attend.

GALVIN'S GRIEVANCE. The City Weighmaster Threatening to Sue the City for Damages.

As is generally known William Galvin, the city weighmaster, has not been having much of the city weighing to do. He was elected to the office by a good round majority, and has an office with scales at the city building, but has not been getting the business naturally coming to such an office. One of the reasons for this is said to be that the city council licenses other scales at a small fee, and gives others the right to weigh and give certificates. The Main street scales have been having the bulk of the business under such a license, the scales being owned by private parties. The ordinance provides that the city weighmaster shall report to the council and turn into the treasury 10 per cent. of his receipts, but he has made no such report yet, and it is said that he does not propose to do so, as he feels that the city owed him much more than the 10 per cent. for damages. Since elected to office last spring he has only taken in $300 or $350, so that the city's share will be about $50. But the city, by its licensing other scales, thus cutting down the receipts of the office to which the people elected him, he claims has damaged him greatly, and from what legal advice he has already taken he is planning to sue the city for at least $2,000 damages.

Closing Out. To close the business I offer my stock of miscellaneous books, picture, fancy goods, notions, fire screens, easels, willow and cane high chairs and children's rockers, at prices never known before in the west. H. E. Seaman, paper, books and stationery, 504 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

St. John Bros. have bought, cleaned and refurnished the Rovers House, 549 Broadway, opposite the opera house. Council Bluffs, where you will find clean rooms, clean beds and well filled tables. Terms $1.50 per day.

MERRILY MARRIED.

Mitchell-Casady.

There was a happy wedding last evening, by which Mr. Julian C. Mitchell and Miss Flora H. Casady became mated for life. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, No. 544 Mynster street, in the presence of about seventy-five guests, Rev. Mr. Mackey, of St. Paul's church, officiating. Mr. John Rugh, the chief clerk of the C., B. & Q. at Pacific Junction, served as groomsmen and Miss Mattie Grover as bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock, and after opportunity had been given for the expression of congratulations and well wishes, these present were served with a tempting repast, and a happy social season followed. Mr. Mitchell is the agent of the Wabash railway in this city, and in business as well as social circles is highly esteemed, and the young lady whom he has so happily won, has a wide circle of friends and worthily so. The newly wedded ones will for the present make their home at No. 544 Mynster street, and if a thirteenth of the many well-wishes of friends are realized, theirs will indeed be a happy and sunshiny voyage through life together.

POPPING PIGEONS.

The Scores Made by the Lads With Guns Yesterday.

At the driving park yesterday there was a little sport indulged in by some of the young men who handle the gun. The first shoot resulted as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes Harbin (1111111111-9), Stubbs (111110011-8), Flocking (111100111-8), Bowsan (011111001-7), Baldwin (010110111-7), Pusey (110101010-6), Reikman (000010101-4), Woodbury (011100001-4).

No ties were shot off, but there was some other shooting indulged in, the following being the score of five birds:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes Baldwin (1011-4), Flocking (11011-4), Harbin (11101-4), Stubbs (11010-3), Reikman (11010-3), Pusey (01001-2), Bowman (01010-2), Woodbury (00010-1).

The Des Moines rapids canal at Keokuk was closed the 23d, for the season. This will close navigation on the upper river. The boats are now nearly all in winter quarters.

Order hard wood of P. Overton.
