

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Wednesday Morning Dec. 3. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier 25 cents per week By Mail $10.00 per year OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

THREE DAYS OF GRACE. The Court House and Jail Must Then Be Vacated. Yesterday the city marshal was serving upon the county officials notice to vacate the court house in accordance with the following ordinance passed by the city council:

MINOR MENTION.

Slaughtering prices at Bliss. H. R. Stewart, artist, at Chapman's. See J. Reiter's new stock of cloths. Dr. C. C. Hazen, Dentist, 100 Main st. The Knights and Ladies of Honor meet this evening. Ladies' stationery at cut prices at Seaman's closing out sale. The portraits made by Stewart, the artist, are the finest ever produced here. Blank books and all office stationery at low prices at Seaman's closing out sale. J. F. McDowell, evangelist, is now holding a series of revival meetings in Saints' chapel on Pierce street. Permit to wed was yesterday granted Col. D. Sade, of Dakota, and Miss Catherine L. Brock, of Hancock. Jerry Myers who has lately sold out his saloon, has been complained of for not settling his last quarters' license. The fire committee of the council yesterday purchased of E. B. Preston & Co., of Chicago, 500 feet of hose, and a new hose cart. The Presbyterian sociable announced for Friday evening of this week has been postponed until Tuesday evening, December 9th. Still Bates was run in again Monday night for being drunk. It seems about time that still quit such foolishness and get down to business. A convention in commemoration of the centennial of Methodism is being held at the Broadway Methodist church and closes this evening. The Pacific hotel company has succeeded Markel, Swobe & Co., at the Union Pacific hotel at the transfer. There has been no change in the clerks yet. The entertainment given by the Y. M. C. A. rooms last evening was fully up to the high standard. These weekly entertainments are growing in popularity. In the Parks mill robbery case Swigart and Buckminster have been held in the sum of $1,000 to await the action of the grand jury, while Brown's case has been taken under advisement, and Dona hoo discharged. Davy Mottaz, who serves as private watchman at Bobbington's lumber yard, detected a sneak stealing a sack of feed from a grocery store near there Monday night. The thief got away, but the feed was captured by Davy. Herman Frederick, who is in jail awaiting trial for burking A. Louie's restaurant last summer, now claims that one John Grubb, who worked in a hotel here, was implicated in the affair. Grubb is in Lincoln, and the marshal there has been telegraphed to arrest him. The Svendsen Concert company which gives an entertainment at the Congregational church Friday evening, is very highly spoken of. Johannes Svendsen is a wonderful violinist, and his wife an excellent pianist and organist. A fine elocutionist accompanies them. The tickets are only fifty cents. The old grandmother lately pitched into the roller skating rink, claiming it is an immoral amusement. Now she complains that the rink is so popular that the crowds go there instead of to the theatre. The admission shows that not only the old lady's opinion has no weight with the community, but it is also evident that her policy is dictated wholly by the amount of advertising or patronage she gets. Poor old body. Sympathy should be felt for her in her second childhood. Steps should be taken to place the little girl, Lizzie Ball, in some reformatory school. The sensation lately caused here by her wild hack drive with the Davey boys, has proved a badly mixed affair. Her mother, and the man Smith with whom these children were living, do not seem the proper persons to care for a young girl properly, and the atmosphere surrounding her seems unsavory and immoral. The little girl, though only thirteen, shows the brimness of one who has been years in crime, and her seeming unconcern in telling the story of her getting drunk, and driving about town with these men, indicates the need of a strong hand. It seems strange that such a showing of family life cannot be reached by the law, but it is claimed that their home being in Omaha, the authorities of that city should attend to it. One thing is certain. Such a case should be attended to somewhere.

THE EARLY BIRD.

He Catches His Room-Mate's Roll and His Own. Yesterday morning T. J. McCormick, a boarder at the Main street hotel, found himself the victim of robbery. He has been boarding at that place for some time, occupying a room by himself, but the night before, the house being crowded, a stranger was put in the room with him. Awakening yesterday morning he found the stranger gone and also $33, which was in a pocketbook in McCormick's valise. Not another thing was taken, not even the pocketbook. The police have thus far been unable to find the thief. Closing out our entire stock at greatly reduced prices for 30 days. Call early. De Vol & Wright.

Do it resolved by the Board of Health of the city of Council Bluffs, That the auditor of said county and his deputy or deputies, the sheriff and his deputy or deputies, the clerk and his deputy or deputies, and the treasurer and his deputy, be and they are hereby ordered, directed and required to vacate and abandon the county court house in said city, and within three days from and after the service of this resolution by the city marshal and that said sheriff and said jailer be and they are required to vacate and remove the prisoners from the jail and said court house within the time above mentioned, because said court house and offices and any room therein including said jail, is absolutely dangerous, unsafe and hazardous, and the lives of all persons in said building are jeopardized by remaining therein and because the same is a public nuisance, and the city marshal be and he is hereby ordered and directed to serve this writ of said board of health upon said county officers at once and report his doing thereon to the board of health. The fact has become apparent that the court house is no longer safe, and the action of the council clears the board of health of all responsibility in case of any calamity. The serving of the notice caused a consultation, which resulted in a call for a meeting of the board of health, county officials and county board, to be held last evening. The county board meets next Monday and some thought it would be advisable to defer further action until that time. The feeling in favor of a new court house is growing in the east end of the county, where there has been so much opposition to such a move. The stern facts present themselves that the present building is unsafe, and that the expense of keeping the prisoners elsewhere, and leasing suitable rooms for the county offices and courts will entail a great expense. Aside from the necessity, it is equally apparent that this county, increasing as it is in wealth and population, free from debt, and one of the leading counties in the state, shall in justice to itself have a commodious and substantial court house and jail, one that will not only meet the present requirements, but will be ample for years to come. This county cannot afford to put up a cheap, stinky sort of a building. There should be some county pride shown, as well as meeting the actual necessities. It being evident that the county must build, it should build in a manner worthy of such a county, and in keeping with the needs.

THE CITY SCALES.

The squabble over the matter of city scales has been long kept up, and has been sadly mixed. The city weighmaster, with his office at the city building, has not had enough business to warrant him in staying in his office at all, or at least it would seem so from the fact that he is seldom there. The Main street scales, owned and run by private parties, who paid the city $50 a year license, have been having the run of business, and the hay market has naturally centered on Main street. Protests have been made that this was a nuisance. Orders having been issued against teams standing there, a hay and wood market place has been designated next to the city building, where the official scales are. The marshals have tried to carry out the various orders. A temporary injunction has been gained restraining the city from interfering with the Main street scales until a hearing can be had in court. The city weighmaster has been threatening to sue the city for $2,000 damages because the council licensed scales to take away his fees, he being elected by the people, and this licensing of other scales virtually abolishing the office. Now the council has come to his help and repealed the ordinance licensing other scales, and thus he is left in sole control of the weighing of the city. Whether this will be fought in the courts is a question not yet settled. A large number of property owners on Main street have petitioned the council to let the scales remain on Main street. It looks now as if by the time the squabble is ended the weighmaster's term of office will be expired. Orders by telephone for flour, feed, wood, coal, and hay, will be promptly filled by Cook & Cooper, 700 Broadway.

Madame Tussaud's Wax-Works. For many years attracted the attention of thousands of visitors to London. All through these wax-works were famous all over the world, they were not pleasant to look at. The faces of the persons represented had an unhealthy and bilious look, just like those hosts of people we see along the streets every day. Why do people look this way? Those who take Brown's Iron Bitters have no such appearance. Brown's Iron Bitters renews the blood, reforms the disordered liver, corrects the action of the heart, and produces general health, and restores the skin to vigorous action.
