

THE DAILY BEE

THE CITY SCHOOLS.

Thursday Morning Dec. 11. LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Union Pacific freight department is being worked out. A seventy-five pound "cat" was pulled out of the river Tuesday. Peter Thomsen and Carrie Nelson have taken out a matrimonial permit. The exchanges at the Omaha clearing house yesterday footed up $414,864.78. The signal service office is to be put in first-class shape, as it should have been years ago. A "Christmas market" is to be held at the Child's Home next Tuesday. This is something new in the way of a fair. There were five cases in Judge Bencke's court the result of Tuesday night's haul by the police and two prisoners were out on bail. In the U. S. court yesterday William Hughes, of St. Joe, was fined $100 and costs for sending obscene literature through the mails. The socialists society of this vicinity was addressed on Sunday afternoon by M. Gretchen, a Philadelphia orator and one of two local speakers. The meeting was held at Kessler hall. In the case of Neidig vs. the Germania and Hanover insurance Cos., in the U. S. court, judgment was rendered yesterday on a special finding in favor of the plaintiff, for $6,864.50. Max Meyers petition to the city council for permission to pave the street crossings in front of his block with sheet asphaltum at his own expense, shows how the granite pavement is regarded by pedestrians. Henry Emery, Lowell, Mass., and Charles Rollins and lady, Boston, heavy capitalists, representing a syndicate which will invest in Nebraska lands left for Pierce and Knox counties yesterday. Thursday evening, November 11, at 8 o'clock p. m. there will be a meeting of Engine Company No. 1, in their hall. All members are expected to attend as important business is to be considered. D. W. Lane, secretary. The new night school is to be opened to night in the basement of the Izard school, corner Nineteenth and Izard. The school will commence operations with brilliant prospects. It is to be in charge of Mr. H. P. St. John. Fred Thomas, the boy returned from Falls City, a few days since by Deputy Sheriff Crowell was arraigned for examination in Justice Wright's court Tuesday and bound over in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury. He confessed to the sheriff that he had robbed Chinn & New's cigar store. The following are the subjects for the next sermons by Rev. Dr. Harfield: for Friday evening, "Jewish Hierarchy," and for Saturday morning, "Dedication, or, the Amosian Dynasty." Friday evening is the beginning of the eight-day feast of dedication, in commemoration of the achievements of the Maccabees, 178-161 B. C. E. A pleasant surprise party was given to Miss Nellie Spigel by a number of her intimate friends at her residence. The rooms were cleared and a band in attendance furnished music until the "wee small hours." An elegant collation was served at midnight. The occasion was one of unalloyed pleasure, and everybody was delighted. George L. Curtis, for many years connected with the press of this city, died at Dallas, Texas, Nov. 26th of a severe and lingering sickness. The deceased had a wide acquaintance among the printers and journalists of the country, and the high esteem in which he was universally held is a fitting tribute to his sterling worth than any eulogy that could be pronounced or written. Should this announcement come under the notice of any of his relatives they can obtain further information regarding Mr. Curtis' death by addressing Wm. A. Kelly, foreman Republican, Omaha, or H. L. Wood, Dallas, Texas. The latest Kansas-Nebraska railroad company incorporated, is for the construction of the Wyandotte, Nebraska & Northwestern line. It is to cross the state line at the northern boundary of Marshall county, and have its northern terminus at Beatrice. The Marysville News says: The road will pass through the counties of Leavenworth, Jefferson, Jackson, Nemaha and Marshall. This railroad has been under contemplation for more than a year, but those interested have successfully kept their secret until ready to make a move. The Omaha club has engaged for the entire season, Max Meyer's music hall, which is better adapted for their purpose,--meetings, rehearsals, etc., than any other in the city. They last night accepted a proposition from Prof. Nevitt, leader of the Fourth Infantry band, one of the finest in the service, to give one or two numbers at the band's forthcoming concert to be given in Boyd's opera house soon, probably before the holidays close. The male choruses will be accompanied by a full orchestra and the score will be arranged by Prof. Nevitt. This is something new and will doubtless be quite attractive. J. W. Travis, who has been lying ill in his cell at the jail for the past five days from self-inflicted wounds, was Tuesday afternoon called for by Gen. O'Brien, who took him away in a carriage to some place unknown. The Council Bluffs authorities had failed to call for him within the time fixed by law, and there was no authority for holding the prisoner any longer. Travis was considerably surprised when he was told that he was at liberty, but got up with alacrity, holding his hands on his stomach to keep it from falling out, and dressed and departed with his friends. This was about 1:30 p. m., and half an hour later the deputy sheriff of Post-watone county, Ia., came for his man. It was now his turn to be surprised but it was too late to kick. He therefore went back home whistling "Empty is the Cradle, Travis Gone."

The Hartman School Addition to be Completed This Week. The Insurance Upon the Buildings Erected--The Attendance, Etc., of the Schools. The addition to the Hartman school building on Seventeenth street near Williams will be completed by Saturday next and will be occupied next week by the school district. This addition, connected with the old building by a well lighted hall, is 67x27 feet on the ground and is two stories high with basement. The last mentioned apartment will be used as a storage room for fuel, and as a place for the heating furnaces. The two upper stories of two rooms each will be used for recitation and study purposes. The upper rooms are 26x32 and 26x28 feet and well lighted. The walls and ceiling are of plastering with hard finish. All the rooms are encircled with blackboards of Potter material, the first in use in the city, and their sides are wainscoted to a height of four feet above the floor. The rooms below are twenty-six by twenty-seven and are finished the same as those above. The hall sides are wainscoted to a height of six feet from the floor and the whole inside woodwork is grained in imitation of oak. Both the old and new buildings will be heated by hot air furnaces. The seating capacity of the addition will be about 200. The structure will be ready for acceptance next Saturday, at which time it will be inspected by the committee on buildings and property. It is thought by certain members of the board that these additional school rooms will be filled with pupils so soon as they are opened. The school of one room at Thirteenth and Pacific, and the one of two at Fourteenth and Williams will be discontinued and their attendants sent to the new one to be opened next week. This addition is complete in every respect and has long been needed in that part of the city. The contractor and builder was Mr. Arthur Johnson, of this city. Its cost inclusive of the heating system was $8,500. OTHER SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS. The contract to bring the Hartman school lot to the established grade was yesterday let by the board at 10 cents per square yard. The frame school building in the rear of this lot will be lowered three feet and brick basement rooms for the occupancy of janitors built under it. The retaining walls of the Izard and Dodge street schools have both been completed at a cost of nearly $1,500. The contractor on the High school retaining wall will have his work completed by December 20. The committee on buildings and building and property, to which was delegated the duty of effecting the insurance on the school buildings of this school district, completed its work yesterday. Policies amounting in all to $100,000 in about thirty different companies, were taken out, the rate of insurance being two per cent for three years. Insurance to the amount of $98,000 on the remaining buildings at the rate of 1.8 per cent annum was also effected. THE ATTENDANCE OF THE SCHOOLS. The average number of attendants upon the fourteen day schools last week was 4,633; the average attendance 4,539 and the per cent of attendance 96; number of teachers 110. The attendance at the Dodge street night school last week was 38 and at the Pacific street school 41. The Izard night school opened last night with a fair attendance. Miss M. M. M. began this week the work of teaching elocution to the coming graduating class. HELD TO BAIL. McClelland Required to Give Bonds in the Sum of $1,000 Burns Released. The examination which was to be resumed yesterday morning at 10 did not begin until 11:30 owing to the absence of District Attorney Godwin. It was nevertheless at that time taken up without his being present. Lottie Combs, whom it was determined by the defendant's counsel Tuesday evening not to cross-examine, was called to the stand and was asked several questions by Attorney Burns, paving the way to an impeachment of her testimony. She was asked whether or not she did not say she would swear that McClelland entered Duke's store in order to send him over the road, and did she not say she hid up a scheme to send McClelland to the penitentiary. To both of these questions she answered "no." Several other like questions of no importance were also put to the witness answering the same to them. T. H. Carter, workman in Simpson's carriage shop, immediately in the rear of Duke's store, was the next witness called. Witness was near Connelly's store the night of the burglary and saw three men there, could not recognize them distinctly. Could only tell how they were dressed. Heard one of them say something about "slogging somebody." They were there about five minutes. One of them was a very tall man, the second medium sized and the third very small. One of them wore light breeches, the others were dressed in drab clothes. R. C. Poland next took the stand. Lottie Combs went to Sioux City after her baggage to the depot, and on going into her room found a pair of scissors there which were shown to Duke and afterward returned to witness. This concluded the testimony for the state. After a brief consultation between the defendant's attorneys, they determined to rest their case without the introduction of evidence in behalf of their clients. The court then ordered that McClelland enter a recognizance in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance at the next term of court. Judge Bencke also formally discharged Frank Burns. Army Orders. In compliance with the instructions of the secretary of war, contained in communication from the adjutant general's office of the 4th inst., Sergeant Raymond Wignand, light battery D, Fifth artillery, will report to the board of officers ordered to convene at Fort Omaha, Neb., by paragraph 3, special orders No. 81, current series from those headquarters, for examination and report upon his qualifications as post quartermaster sergeant, U. S. A. The commanding officer Fort Laramie, Wyo., will send Sergeant Horatio L. Buckley, company F, and Private Lawrence Vinzer, company H, 7th Infantry, to report to the board of officers ordered to convene at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., in paragraph 4, Special Orders No. 81, current series from those headquarters, for examination and report upon their qualifications as post quartermaster sergeants, U. S. A. In compliance with instructions from the secretary of war, contained in communication of the 4th instant from the adjutant general's office, a board of officers to consist of: Lieutenant-Colonel Henry L. Chipman, 7th Infantry; Captain Thaddeus S. Kirland, 7th Infantry; and 2d Lieutenant Lewis D. Greene, 7th Infantry, is appointed to meet at Fort Fred Steele, Wyo., on Saturday, the 20th day of December, 1884, or as soon thereafter as practicable, to examine into and report upon the qualifications of Corporal Charles Bernard, company E, and private Thomas O'Brien, company G, 7th Infantry, and such other enlisted men as shall be ordered before it, for appointment as post quartermaster sergeants, U. S. A. The board will be guided by the examinations by the rules set forth in general orders No. 89, current series, adjutant general's office, and will arrange the candidates examined in the order of merit determined by their examinations. The report of the board will be forwarded to these headquarters with as little delay as possible. Gifted with Foresight. The Romantic Life and Propagative Vision of the Late Capt. Gieske. His Early Settlement at St. Mary's and Removal to Omaha, Whose Future He Predicted. It is not, perhaps, generally known that the late Capt. Gieske, who so unceremoniously took his own life last week in this city, was quite a character and a man of some distinction and prominence by reason of his movements in this and other counties of Nebraska. The captain came to America through the direction of Madame Desvies, of a very wealthy French family that went to Hanover, or Holstein, during the Napoleonic war. He located, after arriving here, at old St. Mary's, which derived its name from Madeline (Marie) Desvies, whose name was Marie, of a Huguenot or Protestant family. At that time St. Mary's and Bellevue, just below this city, were supposed to be the "future great" Omaha and Council Bluffs--and Capt. Gieske was one of the founders of the place and believed in St. Mary's future greatness. The ravages and changeable notions of the Missouri have long since washed the site of the historic and Biblical town away, and then he realized its early dissolution and downfall, and with a keen foresight of what would meet his ideas and expectations of a great town, removed to this city, and at the time predicted that Omaha would be the principal city and commercial point on the slope. He came here in 1857, and continued to reside here, watching the city's wonderful advancement and rapid growth, until, in an evil hour, and with no other reasonable excuse but the combination of pride and poverty, he hurried his own soul to eternity, and died, as he had lived, an intelligent, generous-hearted man. Having come to Omaha to stay, and my stock being new and of the latest designs, we are meeting all prices of our competitors, offering the most elegant display of Fine Jewelry, Diamonds, Watches and Silverware in the artistic designs of the largest manufacturers. Inspection invited. Raymond, the Jeweler, 16th & Douglas Sts. m&c Referred to City Marshal. To the Editor BEE. OMAHA, December 10. DEAR SIR:--I desire to call the attention of the police to the work of some lazy loafers in lettering on the clay walls of our city such mottoes as "Bread or blood," "Death to Capitalists," and "Workingmen be ready for the Revolution!" I even noticed a red flag struck in the wall over one of the mottoes in front of the new court house this morning. Cannot the work of these miscreants be stopped? I think it should be.
