pecial Telegram to THE BEE. NEW YORK, December 12.—The biggest break occurred to day, and the real dark eye of the market was Lackawanna, which broke the first half hour from the price of 103 to 99. the first half hour from the price of 103 to 99. There was no end of selling by the big bears on the ground that the coal combination could not keep up the prices. It is simply a question whether the present prices of the 6 per cent stocks are cheap, with Lackawanna 12@20 per cent above, and paying 8 per cent. Grangers to day are lower, especially St. Paul, which is sold by the Chicago contin-gent. The big failure of the bond and mortgage company in Vienna had a bad effect here. It was rumored that a reduction of 10 per cent in the wages of Western Union Tel-egraph operators had been ordered. A reducgraph operators had been ordered. A reduc-tion of 10 per cont in Elevated railway employes wages was also rumored.
