expedite many a fall. Not a single transfer in real estate re ported yesterday.

The Maennerchor society has a ball in Beno's hall this evening.

The Daly's appear at the opera house this afternoon and evening.

The M. L. S. C. is talking of getting Bob Burdette to lecture here.

The grand jury adjourned at noon yes terday until to-morrow morning. The morning trains were late again yesterday from one to five hours. Remember the printers' dance in Bloom & Nixon's hall this evening. There is to be a corn festival at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening. THE BEE wishes its many Council Bluffs friends and patrons a Merry Christpeated here in January with new features. Justice Schurz has married at his of-

of Avoca. James Mitchell, of Washington township, and Mary Callaghan, of York, were married yesterday. The Congregational Sunday school has its Christmas festival at the church at 6 o'clock this evening. Rather a cool walk for the prisoners of the county jail way up to court in the Masonic temple this weather. E. M. Leaman, the commission merchant, is about to remove his place of business to No. 14 Pearl street. The east bound passenger trains yesterday did not get away till noon, on account of the lateness of the U. P.

The postoffice to-day will be open as on Sundays, with the addition of being open from 7 to 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Globe family is doing well. Another one of the force, Cy Howlett, is gladdened by the arrival of a little mail. Illinois.

The trial of Watson, for robbing his room-mate at the St. Joe house of $31, was begun yesterday afternoon in the district court.

H. S. Gallagher, a well known farmer of this county, is suffering from bruises caused by being thrown from his wagon while in this city.

Dr. and Mrs. Hart have received the and news of the sudden death of their son, F. H. Hart, at Beloit, Kas., and have gone there.

The new brick residences of Mesers. Sullivan and Fitzgerald, on Tenth avenue near Fourth street, are nearly ready for secupancy.

P. Eagan, who was arrested for being so disorderly as to throw a stone through Wabash for Akron, O., on a brief business the window of the K. C. house, has succeeded in settling the case.

The mercury went down to twenty-four degrees below yesterday morning, and day. did not get much above twelve degrees below all day. Rather a cold deal.

A number of the retail stores will be open this morning till 12 o'clock for the accommodation of those who have failed to purchase their Christmas presents.

No old jokes or worn-out puns are allowed in the merry "Vacation" to bs given by the Dalys' at the opera house this afternoon and evening. Fresh

Among the holiday art displays in Omaha appears an oil painting, a Madonua, by Miss S. D. Rehse, of this city, for which $50 is being asked by the dealer missionaries of Peregoy & Moore, is in from having it for sale.

Four frescoers have arrived here from Des Moines and are stopping at the Ravere house. They will commence at once on the interior decorations of the new Presbyterian church. The sale of household furniture, etc., which was advertised for yesterday did not take place on account of the extreme co'd weather. It has been postponed until Saturday at ten o'clock.

At the Catholic church to day there will be messes at 6, 6: 30, 8, 9, 9:30 and 10; 30, a. m. The first and last will be high masses. No vespers. Benediction of the Holy Sacrament after the last

The Omaha papers are poking fun at Council Bluffs' chief of police because he dare not set foot in that city lest he should be served with a notice of suit in the false im; rison rent case of Patton. Tom ought to show his pluck and go.

The Expost ion Iowan is the name of a neat, newsy sheet, published by the City Republican at Now Orleans during the exposition. It is full of matter Republican in particular.

especially enteresting to Iowans, and is u stroke of interprise which does credit to

THE BEE disclosed the fact the other day that the prosecution claimed to have discovered some new evidence against Dr. Cross, including one eye witness to the shooting of Dr. McKune. Six other witnesses have been found and notice of the fact will be served on the defendant in a day or two. Some of the testlmony is decidedly sensational. The city authorities should arrange to have two jailers at the city cage, so that there would always be one on hand. There is not an hour, day or night, but that something is liable to occur, making it very convenient, or in fact necessary, for a jaller to be on hand, and, of course, one man cannot be on duty day and night, Sundays and all. Permits to marry were yesterday granted to Ed E, Burke and Rhoda F, Holder both of Minden, Charles F. Pratt and The Grand Army had its relief ball Maggie A. Caldwell, of Crescent, Commodore P. Masters, of Belle Creek, Nebraska, and Dora Wagner, of Crescent City, Isaac Wooley and May B. Hender son, of this city, Andrew J. Kiernan and Tae iron aprons at the street crossings

Rosa Cherrett, of Nebraska City. J. C. Mitchell, the Wabash ticket agent, corner of Brodway and Main street, is selling round-trip tickets to New Orleans for $27.25. At this price, even hard times needn't keep people from going to the world's exposition there. These tickets are good for fortyfive days, and passengers are allowed to be six days going and six days returning, if they desire to stop anywhere on the way.

Work on the government building was suspended yesterday. Although the workmen started in at the usual hour they concluded 17 degrees below zero too much for them. They have only lost two days so far this season and Superintendent King yesterday said 8 or 10 degrees below zero would not be apt to interfere with them much, and that the work of laying the stone would be pushed along The "Great Republic" is to be re- as rapidly as possible.

The Christmas entertainment of the Woman Christian association for children of the poor is to be on Saturday afterfice Jacob Straub and Mrs. Mary Kampf, noon at 3 o'clock, in the chapel of the Baptist church. Any one knowing of such children, in homes too poor for Railway Time Table. Santa Claus' visit, especially those not in any Sunday school, is requested to extend an invitation to them and their mothers to be present. The exercises will consist of songs, story reading and Christmas talk, beside the distribution of gifts and clothing.
