The Westbrook brothers, who have the reputation of being even more skillful bicyclists than the Wilmots, are at the roller-skating rink for a New Year's matinee and an evening performance. They should draw a crowd.

Eva Parson, the woman whom the contractor, T. Dawson, is said to have so badly beaten with a beer glass, is reported to be delirious, and her condition quite alarming. If such is the case it seems that the bonds of $200 are very small.

The case of Dr. Cross is now set for Friday, and four deputy sheriffs are out summoning the jury, the county being divided into four parts, each deputy taking one. The deputies thus at work are Beswick, Heisler, Harding and Long, of Avoca.

George Rudio, who represents Lautz Bros of Buffalo, is spending the holidays with his family here. Mr. Rudio has recently purchased some fine lands in Kansas, and in conjunction with C. E. empty keg, so that they wanted this keg to send back to the brewer. Justice Schurz found them guilty of larceny and fined them each $3 and costs.

A goodly number of taxpayers and busness men have joined in the temporary organization of what promises to be permanent citizens' association, such as has done effective service in Chicago and other cities. It is the intention to have an organization which will encourage manufacturing and other interests here, and work for the upbuilding of the city. At the same time the association will keep close track of officials and encourage them in well-doing, and censure them if ill-doing. The association will hold its meetings with closed doors.

The presentation of such a play as that given at the opera house Monday evening does not add any to the reputation of the place, and is such a damage not only larceny. His case was at once presented to the morals of the city, but to the legitimate announcement, that it is about a certain amount of money to be paid out each year for amusements, and amount which worthy entertainments should have. It is said that Council Bluffs does not get the best sort of entertainments, and so long as such shows are They pleaded guilty and were sentenced allowed to take away the dollars.
