FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, January 8.—Money—Market ong and easy at 1@1½ per cent, offered at 1 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper—4½@6c.

Sterling Exchange, Bankers' bills—Steady at 4 80½; demand, 4 84½.

Governments—Easier for 4s.

Railway Bonds—Generally firm.

Stocks—Buoyant throughout the day. Such slight reactions as occurred were invariably followed by purchases for both long and short account. The principal reason for the sudden change in the temper of speculation was the non-confirmation of rumors current yesterday concerning the alleged embarrassment of leading firms and capitalists. Buying was increased by advices regarding the resumption of work by many iron mills and steel works, by statements that the Pennsylvania Railway company would act in conjunction with the coal combination, and by the further advance in grain.
