There was not that local interest taken in the dedication of the monument that might have been if the inauguration had not been so near; but I think the event was as great and interesting as the circumstances and the cold weather would permit. But you have had full telegraphic accounts of the day and I will not go into detail. Tickets to the capitol were worth their weight in gold and yet, of course, could not be purchased by that filthy lucre monument! Heaven only knows what some people may not do. Well we went to the capitol at 11 a.m. armed with a press ticket which said admit Mr. and another ticket, pink in color, which had a fine head of Washington in one corner, and after a desperate struggle with several fierce, but gracious women, like policemen, we managed to get inside the rotunds and then had to run the gauntlet of several other policemen heavily mounted and at last we reached the corridors leading to the galleries and made a grand rush for the visitors gallery and was confronted with, "You can't come in here-only pink tickets taken at this door. You must go to the reporters' gallery." But my pink ticketed com-panion was admitted and the way I went toward the reporters gallery—unless you the fireworks. PD. MAURER,

1213 Farnam St. A FINE LINE OP

The remarkable growth of Omehe during the last few years is a matter of great astonishment to those who pay an occasional visit to this growing city. The development of the Stort Yards—the necessity of the Belt Line Road—the finely paved streets—the hundreds of new residences and costly business blocks, with the population of our city more than doubled in the last five years. All this is a great surprise to visitors and is the admiration of our citizens. This rapid growth, the business activity, and the many substantial improvements made a lively demand for Omaha real cetate, and every investor has made a handsome profit.

Since the Wall Street pante with the subsequent cry of hard times, there has been less demand from speculaors, but a fair demand from investors seeking homes. This latter class are taking advantage of low prices in building material and are securing their homes at much less cost than will be possible a year hence. Speculators, too can buy real esta's cheaper now and ought to take advant e of present prices for future pro ts.

The next few years promises greates divelopments in Omaha than the past iv) years, which have been as good as we could reasonably deaire. Now man-ufacturing establishments and large job-bing houses are added almost weekly, and all add to the prosperity of Omaha.

There are many in Omaha and through-but the State, who have their money in the banks drawing a nominal rate of in-terest, which, if judiclously invested in maha real estate, would bring them much greater returns. We have many pargains which we are confident will bring the purchaser large profits in the near future.

We have for sale the finest residence property in the north and vestern parts of the city.

North we have fine lots at reasonable prices on Sherman avenue, 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th streets.

West on Farnam. Davenport, Cuming, and all the leading streets in that direction.

The grading of Farnam, California and Davenport streets has made accessible some of the finest and cheapest residence property in the city, and with the building of the street car line out Farnam, the pro perty in the western part of the city will increase in value We also have the agency for the Syndicate and Stock Yards property in the south part of the city. The developments made in this section by the Stock Yards Company and the railroads will certainly double the price in a short time.
