

THE DAILY BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS. Tuesday Morning, March 3.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier - 30 cents per week By Mail - $1.00 per year OFFICE: 9 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. MINOR MENTION.

Election day passed off quietly. Few spring goods at Cooke & Morgan's 347 Broadway.

The city council meets at 2 o'clock this afternoon. See the 10c ladies' hose at Cooke & Morgan's, 347 Broadway.

Judge Looftbourrow opened court at Glenwood yesterday. Just received at W. W. Chapman's a new line of studies.

Two extra policemen were put on duty at each polling place yesterday. Shootings at unheard-of prices at Cooke & Morgan's.

The little mayor was very sore yesterday. It wasn't going to suit him at all. The ferry cars of the dummy train now start up for the season.

Now that the city election is over there should be a centering of all energies on the court house election. Special sale of hosiery. Full regular made 20c at Cooke & Morgan's.

The school election takes place next Monday and the court house election next Tuesday. They are coming thick. John Kramer has bought out the Colorado house saloon, and gave an opening Saturday evening.

Fancy striped Ingrain men's half hose, full regular made, 25c at Cooke & Morgan's. At Red Oak Information has been filed against seven saloons and liquors seized. Naturally the town is all excitement.

Dress goods in endless variety at Cooke & Morgan's, 347 Broadway. The sag in the pavement on Main street, corner of Willow avenue, certainly demands the attention of the city authorities.

Beautiful assortment of awnings at Cooke & Morgan's, 347 Broadway. The threats to shut up the saloons if the mayor couldn't have such a license elected as was wanted, was a bad break on Vaughan's part.

This evening, at the residence of J. W. Squire, there will be a reception tendered the new pastor of the Congregational church, Rev. G. W. Crofts. Fancy plain gingham in endless variety at Cooke & Morgan's.

The funeral services of little Irene Kinsey, a notice of whose death appears in another column, will be held at the Orphan's Home this afternoon at 2 o'clock. All are invited.

George Smithson has bought out the business of J. C. Raymond, and is now putting on the gravel roofing. Mr. Smithson will doubtless continue to do this kind of work in a manner entirely satisfactory to patrons.

It is to be hoped that yesterday will be the last of mixing up politics with the police and fire department, and making those two branches of the city government mere machines for wily wire-pullers. Let the reform date to-day.

The people of the M. E. church will give a social entertainment at their parlors on next Thursday night. There will be music, both instrumental and vocal. They would be pleased to see all friends with their friends present.

Chas. Barghausen has returned from Sioux City where he has been with E. Rosecrans organizing a new grove of Druids. It is to be named after Mr. Rosecrans, who will remain a week or so longer, helping the new organization along.

C. D. B. Mills will lecture at the residence of M. E. Smith, corner of Eighth street and First avenue, this evening, for the benefit of the ladies' "Every Thursday Reading Club." The subject will be "Emerson," of which the Utica Observer says: "Every way worthy of the theme, for it was scholarly, epigrammatic, and philosophic, and showed plainly that Mr. Mills is well qualified to estimate the Sage of Concord."

William Carley, of Minden, relates a wonderful cure made by Dr. Jeffrey, of this city. He had a boy afflicted with St. Vitus dance, so badly that he could not dress or feed himself, and after trying many treatments he got Dr. Jeffrey to treat him by laying on of hands. He says the boy is now well and hearty, and seems permanently cured. The doctor claims that such healing power is not miraculously, but that it is doubtless possessed by many, if they will but use it and develop it, and that it is a natural process. Mr. Carley says he doesn't care what it is called, so long as it cured the boy.

Beckman & Co., 525 Main street, will wash and oil your harness cheap now. The Y. M. C. A. Both ladies and gentlemen are invited to attend the literary and social gathering at the Y. M. C. A., this evening, at 8 o'clock.

PROGRAMME. Singing. Talk. Organ Solo. Reading. Recitations. Duet, violin and flute. Spontaneous. Pledge.

SAD SISTERS.

Funeral of Sister Mary Catherine and Serious Illness of Sister Mary Nicholas.

The sisters connected with St. Francis' academy are in deep sorrow now, on account of the death of Sister Mary Catherine, whose funeral occurred yesterday. The funeral was a peculiarly sad and tender one. The remains were taken from the academy to the church, six sisters with lighted candles leading the way, and six others following the remains, and carrying floral tributes. At the church solemn high mass was said, Rev. Father McMonomy serving as celebrant, Rev. Father Haley as deacon, and Rev. Father McAlles as sub-deacon. There was a very large congregation. Rev. Father Haley delivered a beautiful address, and his tribute to the merits and work of the departed sister was very beautiful. The sobbing of the children who had learned to so dearly love her, could not be restrained, and indicated how strong had been her hold upon their hearts. The pall bearers were Ed Wickham, E. A. Becker, Ed McKim, George Hughes, John Connor and Steven McAtee.

Another cloud hangs heavy over the circle, and seems all hearts. Sister Mary Nicholas is lying at death's door. She has been here for twelve years and has been the sister superior of the institution until recently. She has been ill for about a month, and there seems little hope of her living many hours. Her brother, General Lambert, of Pueblo, Colorado, has been telegraphed to come, and was expected to arrive last evening. On account of the sad event the Catholic schools were closed yesterday.

A fine organ, half price, at Beards' wall paper store, next to postoffice.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.

Oliver & Graham's Store Raided and a Big Haul Made.

Sunday night burglars raided the gun store of Oliver & Graham, on Main street, taking advantage of the absence of the old gentleman named Breckenridge, who sleeps in the store, and who was absent at church. The fellows cut a pane of glass out of a rear window, and thus got in. They helped themselves to about twenty of the best revolvers in the cases and three or four shotguns, the value of the stolen goods being fully $350. Among the revolvers stolen were Colt's, Smith & Wesson, American and British "bull-dogs." The old man on returning to the store discovered that the place had been broken open, and the police were at once notified but no clue has yet been gained to the thieves or the property. On two or three occasions before burglars have visited the place, and they always chose Sunday night, while the watchman is away. They must know the habits of the place pretty well, but after this new protection will be taken, and the fellows will not have so good a show.

Before you buy a harness call on Beckman & Co., 525 Main street.

DEAD SURE, NOW

The Appropriation for the Government Building Passes the Senate.

The news that the bill appropriating $100,000 to the government building here had passed the house, was the occasion of great rejoicing here, and yet there was a little feeling of uncertainty, in spite of the strong probability, about its passing the senate. Yesterday all uncertainty was done away with by the receipt of the following telegram from Congressman Pusey:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—The appropriation for our public building has just passed the senate. W. H. M. PUSEY.

This was good enough, and Mr. Pusey is entitled to great credit for the untiring efforts and the ultimate success which has crowned them. Now with a new court house and jail, with paving, sewerage, water works and other improvements Council Bluffs may well feel that she is on the high road to a big boom.

Dr. S. Mosher, of the Sioux City Chronic Disease Institute, will be at the Scott house in this city, Thursday, March 4th. Will attend to patients and all who are afflicted will do well to give him a call. Consultation free.

First Death at the Home. Death for the first time entered the Orphan's home yesterday, and in a manner most remarkable. Little Irene Kinsey, two and a half years old, a child taken from the eastern part of the state, has seemingly been in the best of health. Yesterday all day she was playing about and gave no sign of the fact that death was so soon to claim her for a higher sphere. She ate her supper as usual and engaged heartily in childish play for some time after. Then she laid down on the floor, saying she was sleepy. The nurse called her and said: "What do you want Irene?" "I want to go to bed," said she. The nurse took her up, and while undressing her, she straightened back and was gone.

Two physicians besides the home physicians were at once called. They all agreed in pronouncing the disease pulmonary epilepsy and said that the moment she was taken she was beyond human aid. It is a remarkable fact that the house has never had a death, and that the one now of such a nature that no human care could have guarded against it.

The funeral services will be conducted at the home, 714 Avenue D, Tuesday, the 3d, at 2 o'clock p. m. All are invited.

Real Estate Transfers. The following is a list of real estate transfers filed yesterday in the recorder's office of Pottawatomie county, Iowa, as furnished by A. J. Stephenson, abstractor, real estate and loan agent, Council Bluffs, Iowa, March 2, 1885.

S. E. Crouse to Mattie E. Crouse, lot 1, block 1, Oakland. $325. Aggie D. Newton to Austin Howard, lot 2, block 11, Hillside add. $400.

Samuel B. McNay to John B. McNay, s. e. 1/4 26, 74, 42. $200. Israel Duncan to Alexander Duncan, s. e. 1/4 26, 77, 43. $2,000.

Rudolph Toller to Patrick D. Howell, lot 22, block 21, Howard's add. $350. William Plomer to K. C. St. J. & C.

B. R. Co., part sec 1 & 2, 74, 43. $250. H. H. Spelman to K. C. St. J. & C. B. R. Co., part sec 1 & 2, 74, 43. $250. Total sales, $6,775.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Helen Meyer, of Philadelphia, left last evening over the Wabash for Terre Haute. Thomas Bowman started for Washington yesterday over the Wabash with the postoffice in his eye.

H. VanBrunt and wife, H. Metcalf and wife, and J. D. Edmondson left yesterday over the Wabash for New Orleans. Among those who started for Washington over the Wabash yesterday were John Plummer, J. C. Lange, Mr. Fullock, Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. Wyman and Mr. Perkins.

E. H. Woodman, who is one of the favorites in Cooke & Morgan's, reports that the new girl baby at his home is "just too sweet for anything," and a happier father is seldom seen.

A. T. Whittlesey, formerly editor of the Globe, and late of South Bend, is in the city, visiting his son, the present local of the Globe. Mr. Whittlesey is looking well, and is happy in the thought of being given some fat place by the present administration, Vice-President Hendricks being an old, tried and true friend.

HER HINT WAS TAKEN.

Why a Sweet Girl Wanted to Get to the Land of Orange Blossoms. Chicago Herald. "George," said a country young lady to her beau as they smuggled into a seat, "It's nice to ride on the cars, ain't it?" "Yes, Sarah."

"George, if you were going to travel a long way on the cars, where would you rather go?" "To Chicago, or California. Where would you rather go?" "To Florida, by all means."

Nearly Nine Feet of Snow. Oregon has had a phenomenal experience this winter in the matter of snow, says the San Francisco Chronicle. In Wasco county the last twenty days of the old year was marked by an almost continuous snowstorm, which made a total of 406 inches, and which when it had settled down still gave the enormous depth of sixty inches. Railroad and even mail communication was completely blocked, the only means of transportation being by carriers on snow shoes. The people in the town whined away the tedious of the blockade with social intercourse, but the advent of the train and mail carrier was hailed with joy.

An Unsatisfactory Policy. "Mr Gladstone, I understand your policy is not satisfactory."

"Well sir, what is that to you?" "I called to see if I couldn't write up a new one for you."

"You? Write a policy for me? Who are you, sir?" "Me! I'm agent for the New York Life insurance company, sir, capital six—"

"Thank you."
