THE DAILY BEE

Friday Morning, March 6.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

-The political pot is getting ready to boil in the First ward.

-The Musical Union Orchestra will give a grand concert at the opera house next Sunday. -The weather yesterday was wet and aloppy. Pedestrian travel, has accordingly

-No breakage of water mains in the vicinity of the depots. The pipes and mains are all safe and in order thereabouts,

-Sadie McBride, the notorious, was arrested last night for making a disturbance. She suffered the threes of a severe spileptic fit

-The second hand store of Eindman & Co. on South Tenth strest, was burglarized Wednesday night, about fifteen dollars worth of goods being taken.

-The Rock Island train was three honra late last night, the U. P. west-bound two and a half hours late, and the B. & M., Denver, forty-five minutes late.

-County Clerk Leavitt, and his assistants are busied in making up the lists of taxable property in the city, for the assessors who go to work on the first of April.

-On account of the meeting of the city Veteran club is postponed till this (Friday) evening, at the city hall building. -"Baby" Barnes has returned from hi-trip through the state, giving exhibitions of his chosen art. He was welcomed at the depot by a vast throng of his admirers. -Jos ph Gross, of the firm of Gross Bros., Madison, Neb., insolvent, is in the city, try to effect a settlement of the suits which are now pending in the United States court. -Leave of absence for one month, to take effect at the expiration of the present session of the board of inquiry has been granted Colonel H. A. Morrow, of the Twenty-first Infantry. William Mack commenced suit in Judge Weiss' court yesterday against O. Laster, charging him with wilfully and maliciously property. -Among the wayfarers who sojeurned in Omaha, Wednesday, was Peter McGeech, the noted lard man of Milwaukee. He disclaimed any business intention of his trip but was simply passing west.

-The Ruth Rebekah Degree lodge are pleased to announce that they will give another of their entertaining concerts and hope to eclipse all former efforts. Tickets, admit ting gentleman and lady, 25 cents.

-Leon Fry, a Franchman, now supposed to be homesteading in the state near Atkinson, is wanted to claim $20,000 in France, at least so Judge Beneke has been informed by etter. Fry was formerly in the employ of Union Pacific at this point.

-A call at the offices of the justices of the First ward disclores the fact that little law business is required there. No criminal cases pending and the civil cases are of minor importance. Justices Stenberg and Brande are enjoying their case with dignity.

-The westbound passenger train this morn ing was a heavy one. It is noticeable that travel west, particularly towards Washington and Oregon, is increasing daily. At the freight offices all is bustle and work, while through trains are very heavy.

atus is now utilized at the Paxton hotel. It police fund, was, under suspension of the atus is now utilized at the Paxton hotel. It rules, agreed to, is not an Eolian harp, nor yet is it a hand. Redfield offered an ordinance creating organ, but it moderates and smooths down he harsher notes of the snorer. Ask the management if this is not true.

senator from Colorado, writes a friend here finally passed by a vote of 8 to 1 (Behm that the supply of "Records of the Rebelion," published by government authority. has been exhausted, and that an effort would be made to secure an appropriation for another publication of this important work.

-In the police court yesterday afternoon Mary Ryan swore out a complaint against her husband, who had savagely assaulted her. Ryan has several times before been arraigned on a similar charge. Christine Pgherro filed a complaint against her son-in-law, charging him with assault and battery.

-Mr. A. D. Jones, the pioneer citizen, was tendered a very pleasant surprise party Wednesday evening, at his residence on South to tender him their congratulations and re-

-A semi-riot was reported to have taken place at the slaughter house Wednesday. Suhonor of the inauguration hoisted a flaming down by Manager Meday. A small riot the Sixth ward lying west of said line. spread among the workmen, who protested Agreed to. for the flag, which was finally re-hoisted.

-The Lincoln correspondent of the BEE was in error in stating that Jaxes Davis, one of the detectives imp'icated in the attempted robbery of the state treasury, was he of lower Tenth street fame. Mr. Davis, ness of Omaha. Agreed to. who is now engaged in keeping a second-hand store in this city, has just returned from Montana, where he has been for the past aix weeks. During this time, of course, he has not been in Lincoln, and on these grounds the gentleman points triumphantly to a clear

-Oh! master, spare the mule! A wagon loaded with lumber enough to tax two stout animals upon an ordinary road, was stuck near the foot of the hill opposite the police court room yesterday. To it was hitched a single mule, a faithful, willing, docile mule. teenth streat sometimes became fright-Straining and struggling in the mud, its every effort to draw the load was fruitless, and yet, strange enough, it did not seem to occur to the driver that he was requiring too named the "crank" of the council.

ened at owls, and thereupen Mr. Reddaughter, Cheyenne; Ed. H. Neil, Boston; C, Boulter, wife and sister, Cheyenne; B. E. Fenner, Fort Calhoun; W. H. Hayden, Hastings and G. S. Long. much of the willing animal. A little consideration for those we command is a jewel in the crown of courage.

-Long after the mid hour of last night, when the good people of this city were sleeping, a young man walked a little ahead of a BEE reporter along Farnam street. As he stepped into the bright light of the electric jet on Tenth street he halted. The blazing jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north
jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north jet was swaying to and fro in the cold north wind, causing n any tha fows to dance and pla's consent. The member was evidently waitz about him. He might have been 'half seas over," for he had not full command of To his objection it was replied that streets tengue. The reporter does not know about this, however. It is certain that he stood unsteady for a moment, evidently endeavoring to unravel the mystery of the gheatlike figures that codged and dipped about him. In a wice thick with smotion, or something In a voice thick with emotion, or something not be presented except and until such (hic) several people; if I'm some other fellow, the several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy of sympathy he lodged her in jail. The several people is unworthy to several people is stronger, he muttered, "If I'm myself, I'm districts, as to metes and bounds, were let her off because she has a small child, but

CITY SOLONS.

The Extra Session of the City Conn cil Last Night

A Street Car Ordinance-Dividing the Fourth and Sixth Wards-Other Business.

President Murphy tooked business-like

The chair announced the regular bust Co., of New York, presented showing the bad condition of of an ornate, even elegant, but substan-twenty-five others. Referred. A number of petitions and communications of somewhat similar import were referred in a body to appropriate com-

Under the call for resolutions Furay offerred one that the street commissioner be directed to raise two buried crosswalks between Saunders and Cuming council last evening the meeting of the Union streets and repair the same. Referred

> An account amounting to $187.50 for removing garbage up to February 19 1885, was allowed John Peterson. Several small bills for sewerage work were allowed. The report of the chairman of the board | will be completed. public works was read and placed on of street cars and repealing city ordinance been placed in position and the offices between them and the policy of the Land No. 816 was presented. It required that street cars on all tracks and courses be ran every ten minutes from 6 a. m to 8 p, m, and every twenty minutes from mental brass description with glass pan-8 p. m. to midnight; and makes the elling—a thoroughly substantial affair. failure to so warm cars, and the failure to cutting down trees at Florence on the Mack comply with the contract made by the person or company running them a mit-demeanor, punishable by a fine not less. The progress of finishing up the work than $10 and not more than $100; and has not been fast of Inte on acnance occurs is made a separate offense. It also repeals ordinance 816.

On motion the ordinance was read rules suspended and it placed on pas-

Upon suggestion that so frequent running as every ten minutes would prevent the company from extending their lines into the suburban districts, the ordinance was to amended as to read every "fifteen" minutes, from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m. and as amended passed.

Hazcall presented a bond of the Cmaha C. Ames, Max Meyer and C. F. Goodman are sureties, conditioned to fulfill the requirements of ordinance No. 31 as o erecting a building to be used by the chamber of commerce, on lot No. 140, and moved the approval of the bond, the delivery of the deed and payment of the purchase money. Adopted.

On motion the bill of R. H. Walker for extending the sewerage across Farnam street, near Thirtieth street, was ordered pald. An ordinance authorizing the transfer of $3000 from a special to a general fund, -A novel, double-purpose serving appar- and $5000 from the sewerage fund to the a number of new paving districts in the city of Omaha. The new districts number twelve, and are described at length. -Hon, Thos, M. Bowen, United States It excited considerable discussion and > voting "no"), A judgment, certified by the city attorney, in favor of Victor Wolf for $75 and costs was ordered paid. Bechel offered an ordinance dividing the Fourth ward into two more voting districts. District No. 1, comprises that part of the Fourth ward lying north of Douglas and east of Jefferton streets, and Baroman, 1712 California street. that portion lying north of Dodge and west of Jefferson streets. District No. 2. comprises all that part of the Fourth ward lying south of Douglas and east of Jefferson's streets, and south of Dodge and west of Jefferson streets. Agreed An ordinance to divide the Sixth ward Sixteenth street, by the members of Rebekah into two or more voting districts was Degree Lodge, I. O. O. F. About thirty presented. Under its provision district friends availed themselves of the opportunity No. 1 comprises all of the Sixth ward lying cast of a line drawn from a point where the west line of Jefferson street crosses the south boundary of the Sixth ward, thence north along a to the point where line perintendent Crounse, of the buildings, in west line of Saunders street crosses the north boundary line of the Sixth ward. Cleveland flag, which was promptly ordered D strict No. 2 comprises that portion of > submission to the voters of the city at the our city. spring election of 1885, the proposition to vote $100,000 in city bonds payable within twenty years from the date thereof, to be used in funding the floating indebted

Au crimance to establish the grade of to day. streats in several additions to the city of Omsha was agreed to.

A CRANKY COUNCILMAN. During the sitting of the council last evening while the ordinance regulating the running of street cars was under d scussion, Mr. Harcall became faceticus and reminded the council that Thirteenth street had the advantage of Eighteenth aireet, because while the people on Thirteenth street were frequently frightened at Bohemians, even horses on Eigh ened at owls, and thereupen Mr. Red-

WORTH NOTICING. During the consideration of the ordi nance creating additional paving districts, a member opposed its passage, preferring that it be laid over until the wishes of mine who are property holders living therein, entitled to petition for such dis-This clear statement mollified the opposing element and the ordinance was agreed to without dissent.

THE NEW COURT HOUSE.

Other Building Work.

The Gas Fixtures Being Placed-

The new gas fixtures for the court house have reached here from New York, when he called the adjourned meeting of and are now being placed in position. when he called the adjourned meeting of the clty council to order last night, and the clty council to order last night, and The work is being deneunder the personal showed nine members present al supervision of Mr. Biggs, representing execution and clearheadedness. the contracting firm of Mitchell, Vance & Petition was signed by Mr. White and dinary There are three pendants, one the middle, flanked by two smaller ones, twelve lights. The center chandeller is of golden burnished brass, with successive series of ornamented stucco fringes, the g'obe surmounting the gas jet, being beautifully jewelled with red, blue and yellow colored crystals, which add a soft of mellow parti colored effect to the effalgence ary lamps on the judge's desk, of three to committee on sidewalks and bridges. lights each. The large chandeller is the try all the time. How did I leave Den-Furay offered resolution as to side. exact pattern of the 750-light pendant nis?" Well, Kearney, poor fellow, has walks. Referred to board of public hotel of New York. In each of the has completely lost caste among the Irlshdifferent rooms, district clerk's, witness, men of this country, and has not a vestige grand jury, judge's chamber, etc., the of influence remaining. He is now runchandelters are of different description, the degree of ornsteness, for the main San Francisco." part, being governed by the size of the le.

cherry polished desks in the rooms of the what do you think of the dynamite An ordinance regulating the running county clerk and county treasurer have outrages? Is there any defined relation bagin to assume quite a business like ap- League?" pearance. The screening on the counter of the treasurer's spartment is of crnselling-a thoroughly substantial affair.

The building will not be ready for occupancy, say those in charge, the isolated acts of enthusiastic but dan-until about the first of April or May. gerous individuals, who are working for each day on which a violation of the ordi- court of the difficulty of procuring that England herself must be charged a sufficiency of workmen during the recent ntensely cold weather.

A LOST BOY.

A Child Who Has Been Missing Three Days.

Mr. and Mrs. James McMichael, on Cuming and Idaho streets, have lost their little seven-year-old boy, who for him in every direction, but to no avail. The probabilities are that he has been taken away from town, or that he has met with some unknown fate. When last seen he had on a gray suit, with hat to match, and red stockings. Any in-formation regarding him should be left at polica headquarters.

PERSONAL.

George W. Gray, of Cleveland, is in the city. P. L. Rumsey of the Cozzens, went eas last night. Detactive J. J. Neligh left last night for

B. W. Towner, a noted cattleman o aramie is stopping at the Canfield. A. C. Campbell, a lawyer of Cheyenne and formerly of Omaha, is in the city. Rev. J. A. Hultman and wife returned home Wednesday night from a two week's Chicago trip. Miss Lens Schindele, of Council Bluffs formerly of Chicago, is visiting her friend Mrs.

Messrs, Canary and wife, Liversey and wife, and R. G. Pray, the noted roller skaters, are stopping at the Paxton. Rev. I. A. Bradrick and daughter Bella, returned last evening from a six weeks stay at the Colfax, Iowa, springs with health greatly benefitted. John Ingram, Sioux City, D. Anderson, R. R. Sutherland, Columbus, Mrs. J. Koch, Mrs. Frey, Chicago, S. R. Henderson, Sloux

City, are at the Canfield. Mrs. Lorsh, of Nebraska City, and her two charming daughters, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Kellogg, came to Omaha Wednesday, and attended the theatre in the evening. Mr. H. H. Haeger, representing H. B Glover & Co., Dubuque, Iows, was in Omaha

Miss Hattie Boyden who has been visiting in this city, was tendered a farewell party at the residence of Mr. J. W. Davidson last night, and leaves for her home in Washington

Mrs. J. H. Burroughs passed a few days in Springfield last week. Flattering reports come of the success of the Omaha W. C. T. U., of which she has charge,-Springfield Republican. M. M. Walde, Columbus; H. W. McBride. Blair; J. F. Nylander, Kearney; R. R. Smith, Pierce; Henry Fry, York and F. Hoy, of Silver Creek, are among the Nebraska guests at the Cozzens.

At the Paxton: Thos. Allen, Nebraska City: N. C. Sears, North Bend; John Sparks and daughter, Cheyenne; Ed. H. Neil, Boston; C. Boulter, wife and sister, Cheyenne; B. E.

Starbook and S. L. Green, McCook; J. W. amid rounds of applause, well laden, be Goes and wife, David City; Mrs. O. Mally It said, with floral tributes.

Creighton; John Henry, York; J. R. Wilson and wife, Lincoln; G. B. Miller, C. Moore, G. A. Hagan, Springfield; B. C. Yeoman, Wesping Water and Henry Jeffrey, of Grand Island, Neb.

- "Kansas City Liz" was arrested by Offi cer Metza last night on a charge of non-pay ment of a fine. The officer was implored t

AN IRISH PATRIOT.

Mr. Thomas Brennan-The Man and His Ideas.

Wednesday morning, Mr. Thomas Brennan, the great Irish patriot, arrived in Omaha, preparatory to delivering an address to-night before the Emmett monument association. Mr. Brennan has achieved an historic position in the city. The congestulations of the BEE are struggles of Ireland to free herself, no extended in fullest measure. ably as secretary of the Irish Land

A reporter sought Mr. Brenman at his room at the Millard yesterday, and made his acquaintance. He is a man of easy ness in order, whereupon a petition was The lighting apparatus throughout is carriage and affable bearing and probably not over 28 or 30 years of age. In fact North Twentieth street and providing that tial description. In the district court he is rather a disappointment to age. North Twentieth street and providing that that description.

sidewalks be placed for a distance of two room especially the chandellers or three blocks north of Nicholas street.

sre something more than or English [government, grim-visaged, one stern, even morose order of being. But large one of eighteen jets to be placed in | no, Mr. Brenman is a tall, sli n youth, almost beardless, (but for a light sandy mustache) with a highly intellectual forehead and cast of features, quite ready to talk of matters pertaining to his work.

"I have just come from San Francisco," sald he in response to the reportorial feeler, "where I have been engaged for some time part. I find the people of the west very favorible to the Irish cause, of the chandeller. In addition to these the Irishmen concerted and enthusiastic. three chandeliers there are to be station- In fact, I think our cause is becoming more and more firmly rooted in this counning an intelligence office, I believe, in

"Mr. Prennan, as a man who has com. In about two weeks the work studied the problem of Ireland's emancipation, and who is acquainted Down stairs on the first floor, the with all phases of her condition,

> "None whatever. The Land League has no more connection with these outthese explosions are to be regarded as the country's independence in a way that cannot be approved, and yet I believe the blame for the condition of affairs. It is England that has ground down the Irish dependency and has brought the country to the point where it is to-day. These ontrages are simply the result of all these years of cruelty and oppression, the natural reaction of the treatment which nas been accorded an oppressed pec

"I believe that the ultimate result towards which all Irishmen must work is the entire independence of the country. poard of trade in $5,000, on which Geo. strayed away from home Tuesday morn- To be sure, the Irish people might be ing. All possible tearch has been made contented for a time with for him in every direction, but to no such measures of relief as as can be secured by parliamentary legislation -to have a parliament of their own and to sustain some such a relation toward England as that of Canada. But it is uncertain that any such concessions will be made by the British government. So far as I can now see the inevitable result of all this will be the ultimate freedom of Ireland, which I think, can only be accomplished by physical force-by open warfare."

THE EMMETT ANNIVERSARY

The Entertainment at the Opera House Last Night-Brennan Speaks.

Last evening, the one hundred and eventh anniversary of the birth of Robert Emmet, was celebrated by the Emmet Monument association at the opera ouse. The spacious building was filled by the men and women whose hearts still tribute to the memory of Robert Emmet, and including, incidentally, a short review of the past and present of the mother country, and her hopes and struggles of the future. The gentleman was reeted with hearty applause at the con-lusion of his speech The "Star Spangled Banner" was then rendered in an artistic manner by the Omaha Gles Club. "Brighter cays for Old Ireland" were feratoid in song by Miss I. Lorine G.bson. The lady is posfor a few days, receiving greetings of his many power and range, and almost perfectly at the physical on to the voters of the city at the our city.

An ordinance was introduced for the physical on to the voters of the city at the our city. sessor of a rich soprano volca of rare ing the beauties of "Kate Kearney, of Killarney. The oration of the evening was pro nounced by Thomas Brennan. This gentleman is known over two continents as a warm Irish patriot, whose warmth indeed has oft times uncomfortably affec-ted the British lion. He it was, who with Michael Davitt, originated the land league, and for a time was the secretary of the league, except so long as he was incarcarated in prison 'on auspicion.'

Mr. Brennan is an easy, sgreeable and favorable speaker and from the first moment to the last cha'ned the attention of his audience. He briefly sulogized the life and patriotic career of Emmet and told of the influence which his actions had exerted for everlasting good, upon the future of his country. The past and present relations of Ireland with England were elequently dwelt upon by the speaker in such a manner as to elicit he sympathetic attention of h's audience. P. Egen, Lincoln: Bernard Dolan, Lincoln; Mr. Brennan spoke for about three-M. Grace, Albin Stolle, North Platte; I. J. quarters of an hour and then retired

> The ramaining portion of the order of exercises was musical, "Dermat Astore," a vocal solo by Miss Fannie Alno'd, was beautifully rendered, as was also the solo "Kerry Dancers," by Miss Chamberlain. "O'Donnell Aboo" was sung by Mr. Jay Northup, the well-known tenor; Kathleen Mayourneen by Mr. Walter B. Wil-

The exercises found a fitting finale in the beautiful national anthem, "God Save Ireland," rendered by the Glee

Robertson- Vau Bouren,

Mr. Chas. K. Robertson was married Wednesday a teracon to Miss Caroline K. VanBeuren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Beuren, at the residence of the bride California and Dutton streets. The ceremony took place very quietly, without any attempt at estentation, in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties and a few invited guests. The usual honeymoon trip will be dispensed with, and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will settled down to married life among their Mr, Robertson is a book-keeper for Weldmen & Co., commission merchants, while Miss Van Beuren has been an accomplished member of society in this

The conference committee of the Methodist Episcopal oburch, will locate a classical seminary at Kearney if the citizens give a bonus of forty acres of land and $10,000 in cash.

his powder never varies. A marvel of purety the powning hand wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum of physchric powders. Sold only in caus. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 105 Wall St; N.Y.

CAHN BROS., Agents for Omahe.

Omaha Medical & Surgical Institute

13th St., Cor Capital Ave. iseases of Females, of the Nervous System, I vate Diseases of the Urinary and Sexual Organs, and Diseases of the Head, Throat and Lungs, and Diseases of the Head, Throat and Lungs, Specialities

EYE AND FAR,
Diseases treated by an experienced specialist, also diseases of the Heart, Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Bladder, Neuralris, Rheumatism, Piles, Cancer, etc.
CATARRII, BRONCHITIS,
And all other diseases of the 7 broat and Lungstreat ed by Medicated Vapors. (Send for Inhaler or circular on Inhalation.)
All diseases of the Blood, Urinary and Sexual Or gans. Private Diseases and Piles Cured or no Pay.

throb for the present and future of the Emerald Iele, and the display of Iccal patriotism was as prefuse as commendable.

The exercises of the evening opened with a potpouri of Irlsh airs by the A. O. H. band.

The chairman's address was delivered by Hon. Patrick Egan, and was a warm tribute to the memory of Robert Emmet, Mis Years Hospital and Private Practice.)

Consultation and examination free.

Call or write for circulars on chronic diseases and deformities, Diseases of Females, Private Diseases of the Urinary and Soxual organs, Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility or Exhausticn, etc., etc., and our new restorative treatment.

All letters and consultations Confidential.

Medicines sent and Private Practice.)

Call or write for circulars on chronic diseases and deformities, Diseases of Females, Private Diseases of the Urinary and Soxual organs, Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility or Exhausticn, etc., etc., and our new restorative treatment.

All letters and consultations Confidential.

Address all setters to One personal Interview press, securely packed from observation, if full description of case is given. One personal Interview press, securely packed from observation, if full description of case is given. One personal Interview press, securely packed from observation, if full description of case is given. One personal Interview press, securely packed from observation, if full description of case is given. One personal Interview press, securely packed from observation, if full description of case is given.

Omaha Medical & Surgical Institute

COWING & CO. 🍞 WROUGHT IRON PIPE, Malleable and Cast Iron
FITTINGS, Lead Pipe and Sheet Lead,

WORTHINGTON STEAM PUMPS, WINDMILL AND DRIVE WELL PUMPS. Plumbers' Gas and Steam Fitters' IRON & BRASS GOODS, ENGINEERS' SUPPLIES, 14th & Dodge Sts., OMAHA, NEB,

DREXEL & MAUL (SUCCESSORS TO JOHN G. JACOBS) UNDERTAKERS

At the old stand 1417 Parnam St. Crders by telegraph solicited and prompti attended to. Telephone No 225.

Proposals for Subsistence Stores. OFFICE PURCHASING AND DEPOT. COMMISSARY OF BUSISTENCE, Omaha, Nob., February 21st, 1885. Proposale in duplicate, in scaled envelopes, addressed to the undersigned marked "proposals Marchalst, 1855," ard subject to the usual conditions will be received at this office until 12 m. room. Central Standard time. March 31st, 1856, at which time and plays the control of they will be opened in presence of bidders, for fur-olabling and delivery at the Subsistence Storehous; in this city, or on railroad cars at or near place of manufacture of the following articles viz:

in this city, or on railroad cars at or near place of manufacture of the following articles viz:

14,455 pork, light mes.

15,600 lbs bacon, new cured, short clear sides.

16,600 lbs bacon, new cured, short clear sides.

16atroctions to bidders' giving details concorning bacon will be furnished on application, and should be attached to pronosal.

313 (9) pounds flour, high ground, to be made from good sound wheat.

The bids wi's state the price in new strong single cotton sacks, and in double sacks. The outside sack to contain 100 pounds net of flour.

50,000 peunds beaus, medium or navy hand picked in barrels, full headlined or in double sacks, inside option, outside buriage, corners ted, cach sack to contain 100 pounds net of flour.

50,000 pounds beaus, medium or navy hand picked in barrels, full headlined or in double sacks, inside option, outside buriage, corners ted, bids for small lots will also be considered.

46 barrels vinegar, 35 grains strength, standard sample may be seen at this office.

20,000 pounds stap, laundry pound bars, in cases holding 60 pounds; cases stap, pad, samples of flour, beans vinegar and seap to be seen with proposals for sea, pad, samples of flour, beans vinegar and seap to be seen with proposals or as soon there after as practicable.

Preposals for the park bacon beans, vinegar and soap will also be received and opened at the same time by Major W. H. Sell C. S. Cheyenne depot wyening, for delivery at Cheyenne depot or on H. B. cars at or near place of manufacture.

The right is reserved is reject any or all prop sals.

Colorade, for de ivery at the state of the proposal or near piece of manufacture.

The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals on be obtained an application.

Blank proposals can be obtained an application.

JOHN P. HAWKINS,

Major & C. S.

THE CHEAPEST PLACE IN OMAHA TO RUY

DEWEY & STONES'

to Select From:

NO STAIRS TO CLIMB.

ELEGANT PASSENGER ELEVATOR

MAXMEYER & BRO Are now offering PIANOS ORGANS

FACTORY PRICES.

The greatest bargains ever seen in Omaha 200 ORGANS!! 100 PIANOS!

FOR CASH OR ON INSTALLMENTS Also great reductions in Diamonds, Jewelrv. Clocks and Silverware.

MAX MEYER & CO.

The only importers of Havana Cigars, and Meerschaum Goods in Omaha. Wholesale dealers in Guns. Ammunition. Sporting Goods, Notions and Smokers' Articles.

THE A. L. STRANG COMPANY,

Double and Single Acting Power and Hand

Engine Trimmings, Mining Machinery, Belting, Hose, Brass and Iron Fittings at wholesale or retail. HALLADAY WIND-MILLS, CHURCH AND SCHOOL BELLS.

Corner 10th and Farnam St., Omaha Neb.

MISFITS.

Having quite a number of

Chronic and Surgical Diseases Misfits and Uncalled for Suits

From our Merchant Tailoring department, we offer them to all purchasers at about one-half of their actual value. These are no Ready Made Goods, advertised as Custom Made, but Real Merchant-Tailor work. CIVE US A CALL.

NEWMAN & CO RELIABLE ONE PRICE

Clothiers and Merchant Tailors, 1216 Farnam Street.

Himebaugh & Taylor

In Ithe State!

CONTRACTORS' & BUILDERS, ESTIMATES

Buy your Fine Bronzed Hardware at Home for less than Eastern Cities Can Deliver it.

ONE HUNDRED VARIETIES

Send for Our 250 Page Catalogue, only one issued in Nebraask

BUFFALO U.S. STANDARD SCALES Counter, Hay, Stock and Railroad Track.

ADOPTED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT Orders for the Indian Department given for Buffalo Scales ex

REPAIR SHOP.

AT 1405 ICT GLAS STREET

CMAHA, NEBRASE