The more important of the pending treaties have been withdrawn, and the Hawalian reciprocity treaty and that relating to the internal patent rights system will be held back until the regular session. The "Backbone" resolution will doubtless be discussed to-morrow. It is possible that all public business which the senate has on hand will be disposed of within a few days, and that body will only await the pleasure of the executive and will adjourn as pleasure of the executive, and will adjourn as soon as his important nominations have been received and acted upon. Dorran B. Eaton, president of the civil service commission, in response to an inquiry to-day as t the enforcement of the civil service rules by the new administration, said to an Associated press reporter:

VACANCIES ARE BEING REGULARLY PILLED under the rules. There is not the least sign of examinations, being arrested or the rules being disregarded. When congress at the session just closed made an increased appropriation for carrying on the work of the com-mission in the new policy of the incoming president and it must have expected the work of the commission to go on. That work does go on regularly and I feel sure it will go on. Very many office seekers who have lingered here some time after the 4th of March seem to have reached the same conclusion. and have returned home. Since that date examinations have been held at Cincinnati, Nashville, Memphis, Brooklyn, New York and Washington. Applicants have been notified that examinations will soon be held in the southern and western states. Examinations and ap-pointments go on as heretofore in the custom service and for clerical positions in post-offices.

The Winnebago and Crow Indian Lands.

Special Telegram to The Bee.

Washington, March 15.-Commissioner Price asked Secretrry Lamar to suspend Pres ident Arthur's executive order of February 27th, opaning the Winnebago and Crow Creek reservation in Dakota to settlement pending the report on the status ordered by the senate March 3rd. Price says he is informed that the crowding of prospectors and settlers is has furnished the department with a dispatch he speaks of the complaints to which your to endanger the lives and property of the citigreatly alarming to the Indians, and is liable to endanger the lives and property of the citizans in that vicinity. The impression is that Lamar will be inclined to comply with the commissioners' request. Price has been opposed to opening the reservation from the start and said to a correspondent but a few days ago, he did not want to be held responsible for the decision to open the lands in question for settlement, and that Teller and Land Commissioner McFarland were together responsible for the president's action, taken after the Assistant Attorney-General McCammon had gone over the case thoroughly and decided that the lands should be given to the settlers. Delegate Raymond is edecidedly opposed to suspending the order, and will do all he can to prevent it. He feels confident that it will not be done. Secretary Joslyn's order cannot be affected by any suspension. When the government opens the land to settlement by the executive order and men go on it in the government faith, then the entries hold good in spite of any attempt to take the land back again. Secretary Lamar is not likely to take any action for some days.

SEITLERS MUST LEAVE THE CROW RESERVATION. The president is considering the advisability of revoking the recent order of President Arthur, throwing open to settlers the old Winnebago or Crow Creek Indian reservation in Dakotah, in behalf of the Indians. It has been asserted that the order of President Arthur was illegal, inasmuch as the land included in the reservation was held under the proisions of the treaty of 1868, and that it ould not be set aside by an executive order. If this assertion be substantiated the settlers who have selected and occupied homesteads on the reservation will be liable to ejectment.

CONCERNING THE OKLAHOMA PROCLAMATION In view of the proclamation of the president relating to the Oklahoma country, General James B. Weaver, congressman elect from Iowa, and ex-Congressman Sidney Clarke, of Kansas, repregressman Sidney Clarke, of Kansas, repre-senting the Oklahoma settlers, have sent the following telegram:
Washington, March 14.--W. L. Couch

Arkansas City, Kansas: The president is of the opinion that further negotiations with the Creeks and Seminoles, as contemplated by the recent action of congress, is necessary to authorize the settlement of Oklahoma. His proclamation of yesterday is intended to eject the cattle syndicate on the one hand, and suspend, on the other, the settlement of the country pending negotiations. We have earnestly urged upon the secretary of the interior, in view of the exigencies of the situation, to proceed at once to conclude negotia-tions and to place upon the commission representatives of the settlers. We deem templated action. It must be under-stood that the corrupt conspirscy by which the lauds in the Oklahoma country and avenues of public opinion and the privileges of constant communication with all departments of the government, are persistent in their misrepresentations. They who attack here any of the great wrongs which have fastened themselves upon the government undertake a task of great magnitude, but we shall continue to urge, with confidence, upon President Cleveland's administration a reverse of the had policy of farmer years. resident Cleveland's administration a re-versal of the bad policy of former years. The only safety for the people is a sharply-defined public opinion, rising above all party distinctions and demanding that the public domain shall be held sacred as the heritage for the actual settlers.

St. Louis, Mo., March 15.—Specials from Scialia say that the Brotherhood of Locomo-tive Eugineers held a long secret session there yesterday afternoon, but the precise nature of the proceedings are not known. CAST HER FORTH.

HIS 'DLD LOVE, NEW YORK, March 14.-Mrs. Dr. S. Hudon was arraigned to day charged with swindling the proprietor of the Coleman house out of $25 for board and lodging. She pleaded "not guilty," and declared that she had never "not guilty," and declared that she had never swindled any person. In Boston she said she merely got into debt and did not go into bank-ruptcy, because she did not have the means to do so. She was held to bail for trial. In her room was found a trunk full of letters from Rev. J. B. Dryadale, now pastor of a church in Williamsburg, and formerly pastor of St. Paul's episcopal church, Boston. These letters were full of endearing expressions and thanks for money and presents, and requests to burn the letters. He also talks about consultations with fortune-tellers, and troubles soltations with fortune-tellers, and troubles in the Bosson church. Drysdale denies that she has any claim on him, whereas she claims he was on terms of intimacy with her in Bosne was on terms of intimacy with her in Bos-ton and had cost her between $900 and $1,000. Bishop Clawson and ex-Mayor Little have just returned from Arlzona, where, it is understood, they went quietly to let the brethren there know what was up. When Gordon was sent to Khartoum last year, both he and Zebehr Pasha seemed to have agreed to ignore the past. There was another of Zebehr's sons who escorted Gen. Gordon across the desert from Korosko to Abu Hamed, without this escort it was certain that Gen. Gordon would not leave agreed to ignore the consent of the khedive. Gen. THE QUEEN'S LEVEE.

LONDON, March 15:- The arrival of Gen. Fraham at Suakim has already produced an almost magical effect in the correction of blunders and rectifying the line for detense of Suakim. Graham is 'till lame from the effects of his accident in Cairo, but he insisted on making a personal inspection of the garrison at Suakim, and the optlying campe. The result is by no means satisfactory. He berated the engineer and quartermasters-who had planned the advance posts, and said

openly he was disgusted at their choice of po-sitions. 28MAN DIGNAS TROOPS keep the soldiers in constant worry and excitement, by night attacks. Last night about midnight the enemy began creeping in small parties to the right of the British line. The guards were stationed on the right and had been taught by bitter experience to beware of allowing the Arabs to come into close quarters, the pickets shot in the dark at the advancing enemy, and then fell back upon the earthworks. The troops behind the fortifications delivered a heavy fire upon the unseen foe and the incident was supposed to be ended. In the meantime a far more serious attack was being made upon the left of the British line. The enemy advanced in the same stealthy manner, and presently the ground swarmed with Arabs, many of whom were armed with excellent ritles. They attacked the grenadier guards and were repulsed with considerable loss. They rallied and made an onslaught upon the camp of the Bengal lancers. A spirited skirmish ensued, but the lancers finally succeeded in beating off the Arabs. About half a dozen of the In-dians were killed and several were wounded.

The Arabs lost about 100 men, but managed to carry off most of their dead and wounded. Desultory picket firing continued all night. The Franco-Chinese Difficulty...

Special telegram to the BEE. LONDON, March 15.-The statement that Ferry, the French premier, will ask the chamber for a was credit of 50,000,000 france and 25,000 men for an advance on Pekin is believed to be a feeler. The Parisians are accusing the government of deception in hiding the true lowes of the invading army. The admission that during the past fortnight 1,000 men have been killed and wounded in Tenquin created an enormous sensation. It is now considered certain that the number will at least reach 2 000 instead of 1,000. In these circumstances the ministry have decided that march on Pekin would be far the chapest in the long run.
