Subscription Rates: By Carrier 50 cents per week; By Mail $10.00 per year.

Office: No. 12 Pearl Street.

THE BUSY BEE.

It Gets a Larger and Better Hive and Makes Other Needed Improvements.

The Bee's business in Council Bluffs has grown rapidly and steadily, necessitating various changes for the better. The chief change of late is the removal into larger and better quarters. The old rooms at No. 7 Pearl street have been forsaken, and the Bee can now be found in its new building, No. 12 Pearl street, nearly opposite the old quarries, and in a few days the furnishings and fittings will be finished making a complete newspaper office and job rooms as there are in the city. The establishment has a frontage of twenty feet and a depth of eighty feet, with basement of same size. With new floors, new front, and freshly painted and papered throughout, the Bee's new quarters are all that could be desired.

Three years ago the Bee had a little room on the second floor, in a Broadway block, recently furnished, while a correspondent and two or three carrier boys composed the force. One Council Bluffs advertisement looked lonesome enough in its columns. The Bee has grown greatly since then. The public appreciates evidently a real newspaper, and business men have by actual tests proved to their own satisfaction that the Bee is the best advertising medium in the west, so that while the subscription list is larger than any other paper in this city, the advertising space is in increasing demand among wide-awake Council Bluffs merchants.

The Bee's job department, of which Mr. P. M. Pryor is the proprietor, has also been kept busy and growing. Its facilities have been doubled the past year, and all the material is now and of the latest and best, so that for fine commercial printing no office can excel it. New styles of type and new material are being added monthly in accordance with the policy followed ever since the opening of this office, so that patrons are even a chance to get the very best and the very latest styles, and special attention is given to clean, tasty work, while prices will always be as low as they can be made anywhere on first-class work.

The Bee now gives employment to seventeen persons in Council Bluffs. Its papers are purchased and its advertising space leased by H. W. Tilton, one of the biggest of Mills county's big men, in the city yesterday. S. H. Duggan, of Creston, superintendent of the C. B. & Q., was in the city yesterday, in company with John Allison, also of Creston. Chancellor Ross, of the law school of the Iowa state university, at Iowa City, is in the city, greeting and being greeted heartily by many old friends here, he having resided here for years.

Hon. B. F. Clayton, who has been serving on Uncle Sam's jury, left last evening for Des Moines, on business for the institution for the deaf and dumb, of which he is one of the trustees.

Spring goods for suitings are Norene & Landstrom's, No. 505 Main street. Inspect on invited. Prices and quality equal to any in the city.

Hayes Hot. Capt. Hayes is quite wrathful about his arrest as a vagrant, and he denies the charges made against his character. His case has been continued until Friday afternoon, and he says that he will have witnesses to prove that he is anything but a vagrant. In regard to the woman whom he is said to be so intimate with, he refers to persons who stand well here, and who say that she is a hardworking woman, and as far as they know, from their having her work in their families, she is not a bad woman. He also refers to C. H. Bain, an attorney at Ainsworth, Neb., whom he claims has instructions to collect all rents due from Capt. Hayes' property there, amounting to $50 a month, and turn it over to Mrs. Hayes and the children, and claims that he has given Bain power of attorney to sell the property, valued at $1,000, and after paying off the mortgage of $600 and some small bills, turn the rest over to the family.

Hayes thus claims that he is caring for his family. Under his own statement it seems that he is not acting in all respects as a man should who is married and has a family, but admitting his faults he proposes to show that he is no common "vag."

Paints and art goods at coat at Bushnell's.

Real estate. The following is a list of real estate transfers filed in the recorder's office of Pottawatomie county, Iowa, as furnished by A. J. Stephenson, abstractor, real estate and loan agent, Council Bluffs, Iowa, April 1, 1884: Nathaniel Rockhold to John Van Kirk, s e 1/4, 32, 74, 41--$880.

Mary Wallace to Henry Miller, part lot 25, original plat--$114. Wm. H. Delahoyde, guardian, to Thos. McDonald, lot 3, block 4, Judson's first add to Neola--$85.

Thomas McDonald to Eli Vickery, lot 3, block 4, Judson's first add to Neola--$90. J. S. Davis to George E. McMahon, part w 1/2 n 1/2, 31, 70, 41--$45.

Smashed His Fingers. Brooks Woolsey, who is in the employ of the C. M. & St. Paul, met with a serious accident in the company's yards Tuesday evening. While making a coupling his left hand was caught, and the first three fingers mangled. The first and second fingers were so injured that, if saved, they will doubtless always be stiff-jointed, while the third finger is entirely gone. The unfortunate's man is a brother of Taylor Woolsey, the Broadway restaurant man.

A slight scorch. Yesterday at 1:10 Bruce Howe discovered a fire on Scott street, and turned in the alarm. The blaze proved to be in L. Crookwell's residence, and it was put out by the use of buckets. The fire was caused by a defective flue, and quite a hole was burned in the roof, the damage amounting to about $100, fully covered by insurance.

Stroke, who is J. Y. Fuller's confidential clerk, was yesterday handed a telegram stating that wheat was rapidly advancing, and some marvellous changes were taking place in the markets. He made a rush for the office in hot haste and soon discovered that the telegram was signed "Ohmp," April 1st, and wilted.

A lady, a stranger in the city, who is a wonderfully fast skater, is here now, and Manager Schank is trying to find some one who will enter a contest with her, but thus far has not succeeded, those who are speedy on rollers seeming a little afraid of the "fair unknown."

Now that Council Bluffs begins on its building boom, those who are contemplating making improvements would do well to interview Mandemakers & Van, and get plans, specifications and prices from them. They are experienced men in all kinds of building, and those securing their services can rest assured of getting the very best work for the very least money.

H. E. Seaman yesterday closed up his business here and will, the first of May, move with his family to New York city, where he will engage in the stationary business, handling chiefly office stationery. Mr. Seaman has been engaged in business here for years, and has been one of the foremost citizens, and it is to be regretted that he and his are to leave Council Bluffs.

In the United States Court yesterday the case of Davis vs. the C. & N. W. Ry. came to a close. The jury was out about an hour and returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. Davis is a boy who lost both legs at the Northwestern depot here, the train backing up, while he was playing about the depot. It was claimed that the company was negligent, and on the other hand that the boy was a trespasser.

Dr. S. Moaher, of the Sioux City Chronic Disease Institute, will be at the Scott house in this city, Thursday, April 2d. Will attend to patients and all who are afflicted will do well to give him a call. Consultation free.

PERSONAL. Miss Kennedy, of Omaha, is visiting friends here. W. B. Williams, of Philadelphia, was at the Ogden yesterday.

Edward Fuller, late with J. R. Davidson, yesterday started in with J. Mueller. Shirley Gilliland, of Glenwood, was visible on the streets of Council Bluffs yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. Montgomery is reported improving somewhat. She has had a long and serious illness. J. F. Williams, of Glenwood, one of the biggest of Mills county's big men, was in the city yesterday.

S. H. Duggan, of Creston, superintendent of the C. B. & Q., was in the city yesterday, in company with John Allison, also of Creston. Chancellor Ross, of the law school of the Iowa state university, at Iowa City, is in the city, greeting and being greeted heartily by many old friends here, he having resided here for years.

A "VAIL" OF TEARS.

A Little Town With More Than Its Share of Big Sensations.

The little town of Vail in Crawford county, had last week more than its share of sensational events, as thus related by the correspondent of the Crawford county Bulletin.

Vail had a surfeit of sensations the early part of this week. On Monday evening Mrs. Emma Cook, the wife of Thos. Cook, was found on the floor of an upper room of her residence dead, having gone up stairs only a short time before apparently in good health. The town was full of all kinds of rumors as to the cause--some of them absurd and disgusting enough--but the result of the inquest held on Tuesday seemed to establish beyond a doubt that the death resulted from strychnine poisoning, and although the coroner's jury was non-committed as to whether it was suicide or not, there seems to be little doubt that it was. The deceased was a fine looking woman, the perfection of physical health, of a lively jovial temperament, and devoted to her husband and two children--apparently the last one to give way to despair and suicide.

At the same time--Monday evening--when the town was full of excitement over the death of Mrs. Cook, there came the additional excitement of another attempted suicide. This time it was a young man named McGinnis--a bartender at Moneyhan's saloon. After lying out by the "pound" for some time apparently intoxicated, he got up, and getting on the railing, he prepared to jump, but being forced away he tried to put an end to his life by striking his head against a wall. At last accounts he was getting along all right and it was probably a case of alcoholism.

Died on Monday night after a very short illness, Mrs. A. D. Young, the wife of ex-Mayor Young, of Vail. She deceased, although not in very good health was well enough to walk out on the street on Sunday afternoon, and her sudden death was a shock to the community even after the exciting events that had just occurred.

In the Slough of Despond. For the past week Denton has been as dry as a circus joke. Men have been promenading our streets with their mouths pulled down and tied in a bean-knot under their chins. Prohibitionists who don't drink, but who worry down a gallon or two of whisky per week for their health, are now sand-papering their stomachs to keep up the illusion. There is an aching void caused by the floating ribs and bounded on the north by a liver-pad. The crisis of July Fourth was anticipated and men with comfortable collars could not help saying: "So far as I am concerned it makes no difference how rigidly the law is enforced!" But the avalanche from the supreme court swooped down like a hungry boy on a baked peanut, and the family vinegar jugs now look as sad and lonesome as a duds in a cattle ranch.--Crawford County Bulletin.

IOWA ITEMS. Temperance billiard halls are the latest in Creston. Fred Jones tackled the rollers in Dubuque and went home with a broken leg. More building permits were issued during March in Burlington than any month on record.

Farmers in the vicinity of Emmet are preparing to sow a largely increased acreage of flax this spring. On the morning of the 24th ult. fire destroyed nine buildings in Guthrie Center, among them two hotels.

A company with a capital of $150,000 has been organized to connect Davenport and Rock Island by street railway. The prohibition hawk swooped down on the Barman brewery at Marshalltown and confiscated 250 barrels of beer.

Charles Robinson, a Dubuque carpenter, was instantly killed on the 26th ult. by the caving walls of a foundation excavation. Pochatomie county is endeavoring to plan a comprehensive drainage system for that county. Many thousand acres would be redeemed.

Mrs. J. Christ came into Burlington with her 6-months-old infant, and while engaged in trading at a shoe store the baby died in its mother's arms.

Employees of the Cedar Rapids and Northern railway will buy a pair of artificial arms for Fireman Davidson, who lost both arms under a locomotive at Truesdell several months ago.

Burglars entered the residence of Peter Kuechis, at Creston, on Tuesday night, where they scored a winning of $107 out of a possible $500 that lay within their reach. They were evidently amateurs at the business, and will improve on this information and future experience.

Twenty-eight industrious Italian laborers went out on the Fontanelle extension of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway for work, where they were met by an Irish mob of honest laboring men, who ran the Italian out of town. On returning to Creston, in a penniless condition, they were fed by the authorities and forwarded to Omaha as freight.

TRAINING FOR THE FIGHT. Sullivan Tosca a Newfoundland Dog and Beats His Trainer in a Walking Match. New York Sun.

The loungers who sat dazing around the big hot stove in the bar-room of Reub Sand's Indian Rock hotel this afternoon were startled when they heard the yelp of a big Newfoundland dog that lay sprawling in the road. John L. Sullivan, who had stepped on the porch of the hotel a moment before, was met by the dog, who acted threateningly. Sullivan, with a movement as quick as a flash, caught the animal by the nape of the neck and flung it into the road as easily as he would have flung a kitten. Then the boxer sauntered into the bar-room and dropped easily into a chair near a round table on which lay some newspapers. Sullivan picked up one and began to read, while the loungers stared at the new-comer without knowing who he was.

The bar tender stood like a statue behind the bar and kept his eyes on the stranger, who did not lift his eyes from the paper.

Two minutes later Prof. Nixey, one of Sullivan's trainers, who had started out at 1 o'clock from Reub's park with the boxer, came limping in, and said: "I say, Sullivan, I'm done up."

In five minutes all the stables and everybody about the place had crowded into the room and stood looking at Sullivan.

Sullivan had led the trainer a lively chase of five miles through the park. On the home stretch Sullivan ran about three miles, and jogged into Reub's park with his face purple from the sharp southeast wind. Patsy Sheppard met Sullivan on the porch of Reub's bar room, and, looking worried, asked him:

"What did you do with Nixey?" Sullivan laughed and said: "He's coming along. He's about at the falls of Schuykill now."

Sheppard took Sullivan up stairs to his room. Nixey, walking a little lame, arrived a quarter of an hour later. When he got to Sullivan's sleeping room he complained of being very sore in the joints of his legs.

McCaffrey walks principally up and down Broad street. He raises at daylight and goes to bed promptly at 8 o'clock. Alf Lutz, his trainer, says that he is easy to handle, and that he is in magnificent condition, only a trifle too fat. He walked twenty miles to-day. To-morrow he intends punching football supporters from the rafters of Punched Bowl barn. This afternoon he went out into the barnyard, and catching a plump chicken, verifying its neck in a jiffy, carrying the headless fowl into the bar-room, he told Billy May that he wanted the chicken broiled for his dinner. An hour later he had eaten it all and polished the bones.

Both McCaffrey and Sullivan will march into town to-morrow to take a Turkish bath. Sullivan will begin hammering a suspended foot-ball in the pavilion of Reub's hotel. Tommy Bogus, Sullivan's most intimate friend, arrived from Boston, and will remain with him until after the fight.

Traveling men complain that inaugurating their business through the south for the first two weeks in March.

"MURDER MOST FOUL,"

To Allow Anyone to Die of Diphtheria

DURING the last five years there has not been a death from diphtheria in any case where Dr. Thomas Jefferson's preventive and cure was used. It has been the means of saving thousands of lives. It is preventive in putrid sore throat, in malignant scarlet fever, changing it in 48 hours to the simple form. It is a reliable cure for all inflammatory, Ulcerative, Putrid or Catarrhal conditions, either internal or external. Price, 25c.

CHOLERA! CHOLERA! CHOLERA! Dr. Jeffrey's Cholera Specific will arrest the disease in 20 to 30 minutes. The Doctor used this medicine during the fearful visitation of the cholera in Cincinnati, St. Louis, and all along the Mississippi River and its tributaries, without losing a case, in the years '49, '50, '51 and '52. It is also infallible in Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, etc. Keep it on hand. You can rely upon it. Send for it. Price 25c. Cholera--Comes as a thief in the night!

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA! Dyspeptic, why live in misery and die in despair with cancer of the stomach? Dr. Thomas Jeffrey cures every case of indigestion and constipation in a very short time. Best of references given by citizens of Council Bluffs and Omaha. Dyspepsia is the cause of ninety per cent of all diseased conditions. Price $3 for two weeks treatment. Full printed instructions how to use the medicine sent with them. No doctor required; a good nurse is all that is necessary. Dr. Jeffrey's remedies can only be obtained at his office, No. 23 South 5th Street Council Bluffs, Iowa. Or sent by express on receipt of price.

NEW WHITE GRAPE Copy of a part of a photograph of a NIAGARA vine, planted 1878, as it appeared Fall of 1880 with 63 clusters weighing 26 lbs. on 4 1/2 in. bearing wood

1st.--The Niagara ripens in the favorable seasons at Lockport, Aug. 20th. 2d.--It never drops from the stem if left to hang till frost comes, and improves in flavor the time. 3d.--It is purely native, and therefore hardy. Has stood 35 degrees below zero without injury.

4th.--Bears a good crop the 3d year and often the 2d, and is a regular bearer, and no waste, as bunches are compact. Never fails to ripen its crop as the thick leathery foliage holds even to the base of the canes until frost kills it.

5th.--Vineyards are in bearing in various sections from Georgia to the Northern Lakes and Canada, and from Kansas to the Atlantic coast, there being more than 1,000 acres planted within the last five years, and over 200 acres were planted at Brockton, Chautauque Co., N. Y. last spring, 1883; James Martin alone having 47 acres; the largest vineyard of Niagara, being planted at Highland, Ulster Co., N. Y., by Sam'l Rogers, Esq., which contains 80 acres of this one variety, and he has realized from 20 to 30 cents per pound for his fruit, while Concord grown in the same locality brought from 4 to 6 cents only.

6.--All parties planting vineyards have signed a contract to return all the wood and cutting every year back to the Company up to, and including 1888; so it has been the sole owner of all the stock, and no one but the Company and its authorized agents can sell and deliver genuine Niagara vines. So all persons should examine agent's certificate of authority, and see that it has the corporate seal of the Company attached, and every vine that it has a lead seal attached, bearing the impression of the Company's registered trade mark.

7th.--We now offer for the first time, strong 2 year old vines at retail at $2.00 each without restrictions, to be delivered on and after March 1st, 1885.
