MINOR MENTION.

Go to Bliss' to-day. The public schools reopen Monday. Bernhard-Lietemann concert April 11. The law firm of Mayne & Hunter has dissolved. See the new spring wraps at the Peoples' store. Easter display of millinery and novelties to-day at Bliss'. New lines of novelties in all departments at the Peoples' store. St. Francis academy and St. Joseph's academy open Monday again. Remember the special sale of hosiery at Cocks & Morgan's to-day. The sale of Ratter's tailoring stock is set for 10 o'clock this forenoon. Easter display of pattern bonnets and fine novelties, on Saturday at Bliss'. The park commissioners have now organized and are preparing for business. A. C. Graham, is president, and has the long term of five years; J. J. Brown is secretary, with a four years term, and Thomas O'Brien, treasurer, with the short term of three years. Council Bluffs has the finest natural parks of any city in the west, and by a judicious expenditure of a small amount each year in improvements, it will not be many years before the fame of Council Bluffs parks is wide-spread. Three of its best citizens are in control, and the public can rest satisfied that park matters here are to be wisely handled. At the last school election in Silver Creek township there was a lively row in the school house, in which an old man named Moses Bolton was badly pounded up, and crowded between two seats was stamped upon, his injuries being quite serious. Yesterday Constable Darbyto arrested William Wickersham, Wesley Wickersham and C. K. Wilson, three young men whom Bolton claims were the ones who thus abused him. They were brought before Justice Hendricks yesterday and the case continued until the 8th of April, G. W. Wickersham going on the bonds. In Justice Hendricks' office yesterday the Bex man spied a guitar hanging on the wall, and naturally asked "who owned the band, and where the band wagon was?" The justice laughed, and the Bex man seeing a piece of paper pasted on the back of the instrument read it to his satisfaction as follows: "This musical instrument was left here by W. D. Amy, and is his property. Please do not ask me for further information, as I have been enquired of 311 times." The Bex man with his pencil made it 312, and walked out, his theory that women alone have curiosity being knocked silly. PERSONAL. A. W. Askwith, of Walnut, was in the city yesterday. Eli Clayton, of Walnut, was in the city yesterday. E. B. Gardner is reported as on the sick list—erysipelas. Miss Em. Stiles, of Omaha, is in this city, the guest of Miss Roxie Wesley. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Raymond have returned from their New Orleans trip. Col. S. W. Day, of Ottawa, Kansas, is in the city, visiting old friends, and especially H. H. Field. Miss Lizzie Wietz, millinery trimmer for Mrs. O. A. Rogers, 341 Broadway, is expected to arrive this morning from Chicago. N. M. Hubbard, who has been assisting his father, Judge Hubbard, in some cases here, is quite sick at his home in Cedar Rapids. Col. Tam, the great democratic war trumpeter, was at the Pacific yesterday. He shouts "Congressman Pusey for democratic governor of Iowa." J. H. Mountain, who left this city a couple of weeks ago to go to Kansas City to accept a position on the Niagara Short Line, has returned. He is now back with his first love, the Chicago & Northwestern railway, as western traveling agent, with headquarters in Omaha, but will reside with his family in this city at Mrs. Planters. H. L. Miller, general agent for the George K. Opler Manufacturing company, of St. Louis, has resigned his position and accepted a like one with the Weber Wagon company. He has sold his residence, 1609 Fourth avenue, in this city, to Charles Baughn, and yesterday removed his family to Chicago, Illinois, being the territory which Mr. Miller will hereafter cover, instead of Iowa and Nebraska, as heretofore. Congressman John T. Kane, of Utah, accompanied by his wife and daughter, stopped over here yesterday, on his way home from Washington, and spent the day with his cousin, M. E. Huntington. A telegram received the night before, announcing their coming, had a curious mistake, which shocked Mr. Huntington and family greatly. It was intended to read that "Mrs. Kane, Dean and Kinney would arrive on morning train, etc." Instead of this it read "Mrs. Kane dead, etc.," so that they thought it must be her remains that would arrive. An attempt was made to get the message repeated, so as to see if there was not some mistake, but the correction was not made until after the train had arrived, bringing the visitors all hale and hearty. Dr. S. Mosher, of the Sioux City Chronic Disease Institute, will be at the Scott house in this city, Thursday, April 23. Will attend to patients and all who see afflicted will do well to give him a call. Consultation free. Spring goods for suitings are Norens & Lundstrom's, No. 505 Main street. Inspection invited. Prices and quality equal to any in the city.

Private letters from T. J. Evans, who is now visiting California, are full of praise of the cities he has seen, and of the country too with the exception that a severe drought is causing great trouble, farmers are selling their stock, and are greatly discouraged. Mr. Evans is on the whole having a very enjoyable trip. The annual meeting of the board of trade, for the election of officers is called for next Monday evening. As there is to be an important council meeting on that evening, it will be difficult to get a quorum of the board. As this has occurred several times, and has become evident that quorums cannot be obtained on council meeting nights, it would be well for these two important organizations to have different nights for meeting. Yesterday afternoon there was considerable trouble caused at the transfer by a gang of tramps, five of whom were arrested by Officer O'Brien, who called to his help Sheriff Dan Farrell, of Glenwood, who chanced to be there. The five were put in a hack, the celebrated patrol wagon not being on hand, and they were brought to the police station. One of the five was Bill Lee, who was arrested the other day for trying to play "the ring game" but who was let off. The park commissioners have now organized and are preparing for business. A. C. Graham, is president, and has the long term of five years; J. J. Brown is secretary, with a four years term, and Thomas O'Brien, treasurer, with the short term of three years. Council Bluffs has the finest natural parks of any city in the west, and by a judicious expenditure of a small amount each year in improvements, it will not be many years before the fame of Council Bluffs parks is wide-spread. Three of its best citizens are in control, and the public can rest satisfied that park matters here are to be wisely handled. BOOZING BURGLARS. They Don't Believe in Keeping the Saloons Closed Even at Night. Drinks and Smokes their Chief Plunder. Some time Wednesday night or early Thursday morning Mike Connor's saloon at No. 1007 South Main street was broken open, an entrance being gained by taking the ash out of a rear window. The plunderers helped themselves to a few dollars worth of drinks and cigars, nothing else being missing. Wednesday afternoon two strangers were in the saloon when Mr. Connor was ordering a lot of cigars, and he suspects that they possibly thought that the cigars would be in there that night. The next day one of the same men was in his place and accidentally dropped a large door key, which Mr. Connor has turned over to the police. Yesterday morning it was discovered that Forrest Kinney's saloon at No. 1013 Main street was found to have been burglarized. The front door had been opened, and the most noticeable loss consisted of several fancy bottles worth $10 to $15 and two boxes of cigars. One of the bottles was found yesterday forenoon in the coal yard south of the Wabash freight depot. WALNUT CRACKED. A Wild Time Over the Closing of Saloons. The Presbyterian Preacher Warned to Leave Town. Walnut is reported to have been thrown into a wild state of excitement over the question of closing the saloons, of which there have been about seven running without any license and without any sort of a county permit. Some of the prohibitionists have been circulating petitions to have the saloons closed, and Rev. Mr. Flickinger, the pastor of the Presbyterian church at that place, has been prominent in this work. It is said that a night or two ago some one posted a notice on the front door of his residence warning him to leave town—a warning which he very properly did not propose to follow out. The next night a number of the windows of his house were smashed out by stones thrown by unknown parties. This has increased the excitement and the temperance people have followed up by an indignation meeting, and steps are now being taken to get out injunctions and close up every saloon. If the outrage committed is as bad as reported, it will prejudice many against the saloons, who otherwise might not protest against their running quietly. Any such showing of violence and ruffianism cannot but call forth the indignation of all good citizens. So long as there are law makers and law executors, such demonstrations are a disgrace to any community claiming to be civilized with civilization and such enthusiasm will always result adversely to the cause in whose interests they are made. IS HAYES A VAGRANT? That Was the Question Before Judge Aylesworth Yesterday. The trial of Capt. Hayes on a charge of vagrancy was the drawing card at the superior court yesterday. The facts brought out were about as stated in the Bex the other day. Chief Skinner testified that Hayes was loitering about town doing nothing. City Attorney Holmes testified that Hayes had started a prosecution against Pat Lacy for gambling some months ago, and had threatened to bring other suits against gamblers, because he had lost his bank position money on some games, and wanted to get some of the money back. Hayes offered to settle the matter if Lacy would pay him $50, and finally agreed to leave the city and not come back, Lacy paying him $25. Mr. Holmes also testified that Hayes had tried to get $200 out of a prominent citizen as "chick money," claiming that the citizen had tried to get some female friend of Hayes' as a mistress. John Nicholson testified that Hayes was trying to get some help from the relief fund of the G. A. R. and Officer Wheeler testified to the affair given in detail in the Bex the other day, in which Hayes and a woman and himself were concerned. Hayes claiming that the officer had visited the woman. The case is a tangled one, and will not be concluded until to-day, the case being adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock. A Grand Musical Treat. A few enterprising citizens have at a great expense secured for an entertainment at the opera house on the evening of April 11th, the celebrated Bernhard Listemann concert company, of Boston. The sale of tickets has already opened at Foster's drug store, and those who expect to improve the opportunity to hear some of the grandest music ever given here, should secure their seats at once. Listemann as a violinist has a national reputation. Edward Handl is known as a brilliant flute soloist and the other members of the company are all artists of high order. "My Trip to Alaska." The above is the title of the lecture to be delivered by Rev. Dr. Frable in Masonic hall next Tuesday evening. The Creston Gazette says of it: The lecture given by Rev. A. L. Frable, of Des Moines, was all that could be expected. It was brilliant in thought, sparkling in style and withal very instructive. The doctor showed that he had travelled with open eye and discerning judgment; it was a long journey, he, with others took in his trip to Alaska—more than eight thousand miles. Illinois Juncting Tour. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 2.—A committee to visit the state institutions left this evening with their friends. The whole party consisted of 150 persons and were supplied with sleeping cars and other conveniences pertaining to comfort at the expense of the state. The party will return on Monday. At the democratic caucus this evening the McCrary men carried and he will get the nomination for mayor.

The firm of Cocke & Morgan have come to Council Bluffs to stay; and every person who has visited this house since its establishment, in May, 1884, have been convinced that this house has felt a long felt want, and the people of the Missouri have given us their substantial support until it has become one of the first on the slope. We have been compelled to remove to larger quarters on account of the increased trade, and after having been removed eight months, we have just completed extensive improvements which give us twenty-seven feet more of shelf room. ALL OF THIS REMEMBER, has taken place since May, 1884. Now the question is, WHY DO WE SUCCEED, when everybody has been complaining of hard times? The answer is simply because COCKE & MORGAN GIVE GOOD GOODS FOR LITTLE MONEY, and DO NOT ASK EXTRAVAGANT PRICES. We always give our customers Value Received, as the above quoted prices prove. Visitors as well as purchasers are alike welcome at the
