WALES' WELCOME. THE HEIR APPARENT IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, April S.—The Prince and Princess of Wales and their eldest son, Prince Albert Victor, slept on board the royal yacht Osborne at Holyhead last night. They left Holyhead at 6:15 this morning, arriving at Kingston at 11:30. The Osborne was escorted across the channel by the Enchantress, a yacht belonging to the navy. Large numbers of people assembled to greet the royal visitors. Kingston was crowded with people and the town was profusely decorated with bunting and flags. Numbers of excursion steamers thronged [then bay decked out with gay colored bunting, and six vessels of the DUBLIN, April S .- The Prince and Princess gay colored bunting, and six vessels of the channel squadron were in waiting arrayed with flags of all nations and brilliant with vari-colored streamers. The Osborne was sighted when still ten miles out, and as she drew nearer was greeted with salves of artillery from the men-of-war. When the artillery from the men-of-war. When the Osborne touched the pier; and the royal party disembarked the throng raised a long and enthusiastic cheer. Dublin presents a lively appearance, but there are many indications that there is no great enthusiasm. Outside the route of the procession; the decoration of the city is far from being general. Earl Spencer, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, received the prince and party and the town commission delivered an address of welcome. The princess at the same time was made the recipient of numerous bouquets. The crowd numbering thousands kept up continuous cheering during the reception and cheered long and loud as the guests proceeded to Dublin. They arrived in Dublin at 2 o'cleck, and were accorded a splendid reception. In answer to an address of welcome presented by the citizens' committee the prince said he was swer to an address of welcome presented by the citizens' committee the prince said he was delighted to renew his acquaintance with Dublin. In the passage through the streets of the city the party were everywhere greeted with enthusiasm. The houses on both sides of the avenues through which they proceeded were adorned with beautiful decorations and the windows and roofs crowded with spectators eager to catch a glimpse of the future king and queen Along theroute of the royal procession on the way to Dublin castle many persons crowded in past the escort of the lancers. The prince of Wales took all these irregularities good naturedly and reassured the displaced spectators by shaking hands cerdially with all withtors by shaking hands cordially with all with in his reach. Earl Spencer, the Irish oudly cheered a drove through the streets of Dublin in the procession. Lord Mayor John O'Connor, who is a strong nationalist, but who drove in the official state with the royal es cort, was loudly hissed by the nationalists. Not a sign of welcome was visible on the city hall of Dublin, and this fact stands out so conspicuously as to force comment.

A GENUINE AND HEARTY IRISH WELCOME TO THE PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES.

DUBLIN, April 8 .- A grand stand had been erected at the railway station When the train bearing the royal party arrived from Kingstown, an immense crowd had collected and they were greeted with tremendous cheering. They were escorted to the grand stand where a large representative gathering had assembled. Here when the enthusiasm of the crowd had been quieted, was read. This address dwelt specifically upon the beneficent influence which the in-fluence of the prince and princess would exer-cise upon the welfare of the island. When the procession was about to start from the station several bands joined their forces in rendering the air of God bless the prince of Wales. For a time considerable excitement Wales. For a time considerable excitement is was occasioned by some trouble to the royal carriage. As the horses drawing the carriage emerged from the depot, they were frightened by the sight of the crowd and the glare of uniforms. The animals shed and pranced around for a few moments and it was feared they would break away and overturn the vehicles, but the driver in a short time had the animals under control. This episods delayed the procession control. This episode delayed the procession a short time, when it again moved off in per-fect order. College Green, where the first stop was made, was literally packed with one solid mass of carriages. solid mass of carriages and people afoot. The advent of the royal party was hailed with tremendous cheering. One feature of the procession was the presence of a force of marching students. they numbered an even thousand, and wer jauntily dressed, bore walking sticks as arms and carried two Union Jacks for banners, and made the streets resound with the cheer and lusty

The Princess of Walss captured the populace at sight. The refined beauty of her face and the elegance of her figure were inost artistically set off in a special costume of green which had been made for the occasion. The dress was composed of a close-fitting green velvet bodice with a silk skirt, to match and princess' bonnet trimmed with Ibeads and dark green feathers. This tribute to the Irish colors, so deftiy and beautifully made, was instantly recognized by the people and was instantly recognized by the people and her royal highness was everywhere greeted with applause. After luncheon at Dublin castle, which was over abour 3.30 in the aftercastle, which was over about 3.30 in the afternoon, the prince and party proceeded to the

CETTING SOLID WITH THE AMEER.

RAWAL PINDI, April 8.—The grand dinner in honor of the ameer to-day was a great success, and presented a brilliant and impressive scene. The viceroy sat upon a dais, the ameer on the right hand, Duke of Connaught on the left. After valuable presents had been offered the ameer he acknowledged in brief his obligations to the queen and viceroy, and stated that he would render every service in the power of his army and people, as the British had promised help to the Afghans. The Afghans would in the firmest manner stand side by side with the British apainst any common enemy. The Viceroy then presented the Ameer with a magnificent sword. The Ameer, in accepting it, said he hoped to strike therewith any enemy of Great Britain. The Ameer was well satisfied with the ceremonies. RAWAL PINDI, April 8.-The grand dinner

TROOPS FOURING INTO THE SEAT OF WAR. WINNIPEG, April 8 .- The Nineteenth rifler and the Winnipeg field battery camped twen ty-eight miles from Fort Que Appelle last night with a battery three miles behind them. Their forces joined them this morning but were obliged to await supplies before moving further toward Touchwood. "B" battery remained at Que Appelle station, it having been decided to send it and the Queen's Own on to Swift Current to go down the river. A special train with the royal grenadiers of Toronto on board reached the city at 7 o'clock this a. m., having made the journey from Port Arthur in 21 hours. Col. Grassett was in command of the battalion which numbers 365 men. Besides these the rear guard of the Queen's Own of twenty-one and the Ottawa Foot guards, sharpshooters numbering fifty two men were with the grenadiers. All went out by special train at 4 o'clock.

IT IS NOW REPORTED that the sharpshooters and greeadiers will also likely go to Swift Current with B battery, and the Queen's Own will form a division and advance north by the Sasketchewan river. A junction will be effected by the two civisions at Clark's Crossing, and the question of a further advance will be settled at that time.

It is expected one division will go to Prince Albert and the other to Battleford. A and B batteries remaining at that point until next fall in order to fully restore peace. MUCH PRADULENT VOTING-BOTH SIDES CLAIM THE ELECTION. CHICAGO, April 8. - Very few changes have been made upon estimates upon yesterday's election returns. The democratic papers claim Harrison's election by from 350 to 400, while the republican papers assert that the official count will show that Smith carried the posed of citizens, declare that they have evidence in hand of fraud at various of the polldence in hand of fraud at various of the polling places, and a number of prosecutions will follow, although no arrests have been made up to this evening. It is declared that in the third precinct of the fourth ward, the returns give Harrison 132, Smith 65, while those who kept tally declare that the figures should be reversed. It is also claimed that the returns from the seventh precinct of the tenth ward indicate that they were tampered with. In the tenth precinct of the thirteenth ward voters are willing to swear that the numbers of their ballots were greater than the numbers of their ballots were greater than the numbers returned as having been voted.

The committee desired to place a watch over the ballots but they were refused admittance to the rooms where the ballots are locked up. They state that they will appeal to the courts for an order authorizing that men be placed to watch the ballots. The published statement is made that William J. Gallagher, convicted of ballot box stuffing, vouched for a man at the polls yesterday who had no right to vote, and was personating another man. A conference of the citizens are will be added to the courts for an order authorizing that men be placed to watch the ballots. The published statement is made that William J. IN-LAW DEAD, WOUNDS HIS WIFE AND SUICIDES.

Special Telegram to THE BEE. CHICAGO, April 8 -"She is dead!" "She dead!" "Her son-in-law shot her through the heart and then killed himself!" Were the exclamations that arose from a multitude of excited throats in the vast crowd that surged and swayed around the tront door of a small wooden shanty at 176 South Desplaines street to-day. In a little back room of the shanty, the front of which is occupied as a small contracted children of Mrs. Mulligan stood about wringing their hands, and enlisted the sympathy and pity of the bystanders. This terrible tragedy was enacted at 10:30 o'clock today. Edward Lambert called at the house of his mother-in-law to see his wife, Theresa, from whom he has lived apart for several weeks. Not finding either her or her mother in the little cake shop in front, he passed through to the kitchen in the rear. There he found the persons he sought. There was great emotion in his face when he entered and his eyes were moist with tears. He advanced toward his wife and extended his right hand as if in greeting.

"GOOD BYE THERESA." He said then he wheeled suddenly in his tracks and faced his mother in-law. She was alarmed by the terrible look in his face, but before she had time to flee Lambert flashed a revolver from his pocket and, taking deadly aim, fired. A young daughter of Mrs. Mulligan rushed to her side screaming, and threw her arms about her. Her mother, however, did not speak. She jumped convulsively from the ground, gasped heavily, and fell to the floor, dead, in her little daughter's arms, with the cruel bullet in her heart. But the did not stop there; it was only just begun.

He turned upon his wife. He began firing at her as she retreated into the little bed room adjoining. His terrible excitement now rendered his aim unsteady and between 1 and 2 o'clock. Gallagher walked uncertain, and the first and second shots on to the polling window with a man who gave his name as James McCarthy, and vouched for him. The name was found register that the first and second shots maked her. The third entered the fleshy part of her arm inflicting a slight wound. She gave his name as James McCarthy, and vouched for him. The name was found registered, and accordingly the vote was put in the box. The two left immediately. Then it the bed chamber. Lambert must have was discovered the man was not James McCarthy and hopelessly to the floor inside of the bed chamber. Mrs. Lambert came out of the swoon a little before the dying body of her husband was carried out on a stretcher. With blood streaming from her wounded arm she held his head between her hands and kiesed his face, or which the deep of death was beginning to number of the precincts. Atthdayits of republican voters were thrown out and rejected by the democratic judges, and all along the line discrimination against republicans and in favor of democrats was not avoidable. The Tennessee Legislative Complication.

NASHVILLE, April 8 .- There is no material change in the legislative complication. The republican absentees from the senate are still in a state of siege in a room in the Maxwell house, the doors of which are guarded by the officers of the senate, in waiting to arrest any of the be eiged party who venture out, and to prevent others from communicating with them. This morning Stanley H. Bell, a prominent local republican, was arrested; by order of the senate, for attempting to com municate the decision of Judge Reed to the bsentees from the senate.

A Maniac's Deed.

NASHVILLE, April 8 .- Early this morning K. Eldredge, a patient in the Insane asy um, from Overton county, suddenly seized a floor mop and struck Everett B. Buchanan, the attendant of the ward in which Eldredge coomed, crushing in his skull and fatally inoring him. The infuriated lunatio next attacked Thomas C. Layton, a feeble spileptic patient, aged 28 years, crushing his skull. He then attacked another patient, when an attendant from an adjoining ward rushed in and secured him. Both Buchanan and Layton died within a few minutes. Elderdge is only 20 years of age.

NEW YORK, April 8 .- The son of President Barrios left this city for Washington last might. He said he did not believe his father to be dead. He had received no trustworthy information to that effect. If it were true the American minister at Guatemala would have informed the government at Washington. He says: "I believe the telegram from a friend to a gentleman in this city, re questing him to inform me of my father's death, is a forgery, because it is dated from Salvador, while I know positively that the gentleman whose name is signed to it was in Guatemala next day.'

THE ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE. FULL ATTENDANCE EXPECTED TO MORROW AND ANOTHER TEST VOTE TO BE TAKEN.

Special Telegram to THE BER. SPRINGFIELD, April 8.-It is now confidently anticipated that there will be a full attendance to-morrow and another test vote for United States senator. Another effort is to be made to solidify all the republican votes for General Logan. There are all sorts of reports and rumors affoat as regards the schemes and plots on both sides in the senatorial contest, and one report is to the effect that General John C. Black has had a secret conference at Washington with several democratic members of the house, at which some kind of a bargain has been made by which an alleged slippery republican is to be bribed by an official appointment for himself or a friend. The republicans now here scout the iden as altogether too absurd.

ANTI-CHINESE.

SAN DRANCISCO CORONER CAUSES A SERIOUS BREACH OF THE PEACE. SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.-A procession

which attracted but little attention at the time is nowknown to be productive of serious, and probably in some cases fatal results. The city coroner on Sunday last organized on a sand lot an anti-Chinese procession, and headed by two bands of music paraded the city. Before starting he harrangued the crowd on Chinese evils. The result was, every Chinaman who happened to cross the route of processionists was chased by them and ill processionists was chased by them and ill treated if caught. It was supposed at the time that the Chinamen were more scared than hurt, Col. Bee, Chinese consul, states to-day, however, that the investigation shows that twenty of them were badly injured. Many of them cut about the head, one was fatally injured. The original intention of the control o the coroner was to parade his band through Chinatown. Had he done so there would have been a big butchering of the Chinese.
