Some paper somewhere in the east end of the county started the rumor that the Bloomer school building in this city was racking and crumbling whereupon a No. 8, 76 young man named Nugent, who is learn ing the newspap; business here, wrote up a seurational article, which some one got hold of and thus lent wings to the rumor. It is very casy to alarm people, and some whose nerves were not very atrong began to tremble. The young man probably never thought of how says the work will take about a month much damage such a rumor might do. and how it would hurt the interests of the ci y, and cause alarm without any cause. Those who know him say he is not at all malleiously inc'ined, but that he fell into this trap by his belief that al that is needed of a newspaper man is to be able to fill space in some way. In order to check any ill affect which his foolish talk about the Bloomer building might cause, a number of builders and practical men yesterday afternoon visited the Bloomer school building, and inspected it carefully, inviting the newspaper men to go along and make notes. In the party was Chris Straub, J. P. other Council Bluffs news will be found Weaver. Henry Fauble and Fred Herman, all well known mechanics and

He looked sort of abashed, and wanted the isnitor, Hugh Goss, to point them out, but the latter got out of it by saying that he did not have time. Then he wanted to know where Prof. McNaughton was but the gentleman was at the high school building. Finally, he found one crack, along he ceiling, but one which far from vort-

Rev. Dr. John P. Newman. The Saratoga Eagle says that "the acession of Dr. John P. Newman-the former pastor of Gen. Grant, and one of the greatest pulpit grators in the Methodist church to the ranks of spiritualism occasions public surprise. The conversion is not a sadden one, however, as Dr. Newman has been for years an intelligent investigator into the phenomena and a student of the philosophy of modern spiritualism, and it is said that his wife is not only a strong believer, but is herself a medium. Dr. Newman is a regular Saratoga summer guest, and a great favorite here, and he will without doubt be warmly welcomed before the Saratoga society of spiritualists.
