

THE DAILY BEE COUNCIL BLUFFS. Thursday Morning, April 16, 1885.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier 50 cents per week; By Mail $1.00 per week.

OFFICE: No. 12 Pearl Street. MINOR MENTION.

The city council meets to-night. J. W. and E. L. Squire want to buy a nice cabinet desk.

The Council Bluffs board of the land league is preparing for a ball on the 23d. Lower's table began going up yesterday, and when raised to grade will be greatly improved.

The new building of Mr. Morgan, on Main street, is about ready to receive the roof.

The Episcopal ladies will hold their "Carnival of Nations" the latter part of May.

Mr. Burnham is building a nice little cottage at the head of Oakland avenue, next to his own residence.

False alarms of fire continue to give exercise to the teams, and a small allowance to the minute men.

Gus Williams opened at the opera house last evening, giving a very enjoyable entertainment.

Peter Anderson, aged 7 years, a son of Christian Anderson, of Hazel Dell township, died Tuesday of croup. The funeral will be held to-day.

The new Pierce street school house is already so crowded that one of the rooms of the old building is to be opened, and Miss Swan will take charge of that.

At 6 o'clock last evening Justice Schurz performed the ceremony at his office making M. F. Bohren and Mary Dowling happy as husband and wife. They are both residents of this city.

A Mills county man whose wife recently eloped with a handsomer fellow, was yesterday seen here in company with his wife again, the pair seeming as happy as if on their original honeymoon trip. They have made peace in some mysterious way.

Just as the Herald man was entering Morgan, Keller & Co's one of the large plates of glass in the front was mysteriously broken. The Herald man denied that he had hit it in any way, and the affair was a mystery until it was ascertained that in entering his check accidentally touched the glass.

George Smith, the water works watchman, at the Glen avenue reservoir, was arrested yesterday on the charge of shooting within the city limits. The real cause of complaint seems to be that he has been shooting at dogs, which attempted to drink out of the reservoir, there being no fence, or other contrivance to keep them out, and so he uses a shot gun. The case was continued until a week from Saturday.

Lloyd Forgrave and Joe Anderson were yesterday in the police court on a charge of fighting. The young men had some little difference about money matters, and one hearing that the other one was threatening to whip him, he hunted the belligerent up to give him a chance. As the judge remarked to them, they had more muscle than judgment, and he therefore gave them a judgment, it being that they shall each pay $5 and costs.

There was a happy wedding at four o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of F. H. Hill, No. 823 Third avenue, the bride being his sister, Miss Fannie E. Hill, of Duluth, and the fortunate groom being Col. James L. Dyer, of Wichita, Kansas. Rev. A. K. Bates, pastor of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony in the presence of quite a company of friends. Miss Knapp, of Keosauqua, Iowa, and Mr. F. E. Howland, of this city, served as bridesmaid and groomsmen. Col. Dyer, who thus wins so worthy a wife, is in the government employ.

Facts worth remembering when you buy Wall Paper: 1st.—That Beards, next door to postoffice, has the largest stock to select from. 2d.—That his prices are as low as the lowest. 3d.—That he is a practical interior decorator and employs none but skillful workmen.

PERSONAL. F. F. Freeman, of Chicago, put up at the Ogden yesterday.

O. W. Tostevin, of the Northwestern road, is at the Ogden.

B. F. Clayton, of Macedonia, was in the city yesterday.

F. B. Gault, of the Wabash, is spending a few days in Nebraska.

Mayor P. P. Kelley, of Glenwood, was in the city yesterday.

J. T. Spangler and Peter Kall, prominent from Walnut, were here yesterday.

John H. Robb, of the Gus Williams combination, is at the Ogden.

Rev. Mr. Crofts is attending the Congregational convention at Red Oak.

Robbt Davidson, of Des Moines, who has been visiting here, returned home yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff Collier Hendrie, of Mills county, was visible on the streets yesterday.

Gus Williams, "The old original" in his line of acting, registered at the Ogden yesterday from his native town, New York city.

W. W. Chapman has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to attend to business again, although still quite weak.

Mr. S. S. Stevens, the general agent of the Rock Island, expects to return from California the latter part of this month.

M. C. and A. L. Kaag, who have been traveling for Mueller, the music man, are expected to arrive home to-day.

Mr. Zeltzer, of Sioux City, was in the city yesterday, on route for Davenport to attend the convention of brewers, to be held there.

Mr. Bell, the assistant superintendent of the government building here, left last evening, with his wife, over the Wabash for Springfield, Ill.

A GHAUSTLY FIND. A Badly Decayed Coffin and Contents Found on Madison Street.

There was a report current yesterday to the effect that a coffin and a body had been found on Madison street, and the details of find were, as is usual in such cases, exaggerated as the report spread along the streets. The Bee man in company with M. B. Brown, the telegraph manager, proceeded to investigate, and found the plain facts to be that George Trainman, living at No. 106 South First street, in digging a vault in the rear of his lot, had discovered the grave. The coffin appeared to have been made of black walnut, but there is no plate or other mark of identification discovered. The old graveyard used to be near there, but the cemetery grounds, as say old settlers, did not reach over that far, so that the mystery of a man being buried there is not easily explained. A number of persons visited the spot yesterday and various conjectures were advanced, but no very satisfactory explanation could be given.

NIGHT WALKING. A Smart Young Man and a Gay Young Woman Get Pulled by the Police.

Between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning Officer Kirk noticed a couple trying to get into a saloon, evidently to get a drink, and the place being closed, they tried the alley door. They went into the hallway of one of the business blocks and after remaining a few minutes started off down Pearl street. Kirk met officer O'Brien and the two kept track of the mysterious acting man and woman. Finally they tackled them and were informed by the man that he was taking his wife home. A short time afterwards Officer O'Brien saw a light suddenly appear in one of the rooms of the saloon, and after watching a little the light went out, and a couple came out. The officer recognized the lady as the one whom he had met and interviewed a half hour before, but the man was a different one. They started up Main street and the officer again interviewed them. They answered that their business was none of his, and bid him to be gone, and he himself to some saloon and get drunk, like any other policeman. This angered the officer, and after following them to Broadway, he again met Officer Kirk and they placed the couple under arrest on the charge of disturbing the peace. The young man gave his name as H. B. Hunt, and that he was employed at Stewart Bros., and that the girl was a lady friend of his, who being about to leave town had come down to his room at 2 o'clock in the morning to see him before she left. He had simply got up and seen her home, and believed he had the right to walk along the streets without being disturbed by the officers. He told the judge very perky that even if the girl was not of first-class reputation there was nothing wrong about that, and advanced the theory boldly that the world could not get along without such, and he believed that all men were alike in indulging such evil companions. The judge, in deciding the case, held that his conduct was not such as would convict him of disturbing the peace, but gave him a heavy "settling down" for his cheeky advocacy of lawlessness. The judge instructed the police to arrest him if they saw him going to the house where the woman lives, and warned him that in such an event, he would be taught that he could get along without any such female companions for a while at least. He also told the young man that he had much faith in the respectability of the firm that employed him, and of the owners of the building where he roomed, that the judge believed they would, on learning the peculiar views and practices indulged by the young man, set him out on the streets.

HOP, SKIP AND JUMP. Villisca, the Hackman, Hurries Away to Nebraska.

Pat Villisca, the hackman who was arrested on the charge of robbing a German near the transfer, stoutly denied that he knew anything about the matter, but it appeared yesterday that he had doubts about being able to convince others that he was innocent. At an early hour in the morning he skipped out for Omaha, leaving his bossman, Wm. Martine, to stand in the breach, and be liable for the amount of bond, $250. The night before, Villisca called at the Bee office and begged the paper to "go light on him," claiming that the German admitted that he was mistaken, and had withdrawn the charge; and further, that the German had been given the amount of his alleged loss, and had agreed to leave the city. The German was on hand, however, yesterday morning to prosecute the case, and Villisca was the missing one. The officers are after him and propose to bring him back if he is found.

SAVED ONE DAY. A Habeas Corpus Case Growing Out of a Disturbance of a Prayer Meeting.

Judge Aylsworth is having a run of habeas corpus cases. Yesterday another was brought before him, it being from Glenwood, Mills county. It appears that Samuel Orton was complained of before a justice there for disturbing a prayer meeting on the 24th of March last. A jury trial was had and Orton was fined $25, and in default of payment was committed to jail for eight days. The chief point raised in the habeas corpus case yesterday, was, that the justice had no jurisdiction, because he received a sealed verdict, and allowed the jury to dispose without returning the verdict in open court. Judge Aylsworth decided that the justice thus erred and so ordered Orton set at liberty. This decision only saves Orton one day of the sentence, he having already spent seven of the eight days in jail.

Lost a Chance to Cut Rates. The president of a western railroad was lately visited on by a couple of directors with very solemn countenances, and after the usual salutations had been exchanged one of them said: "Mr. President, have you the interests of this road at heart?" "Yes, sir—yes, sir—of course I have," was the reply. "If so, why didn't you cut rates last week?" "Blank and Blank, $1, and thereby have our road advertised all over the country?" "Why, sir, last week we were so snowed under that we didn't move a train between the points named!" "Of course, I know all about it, and it was a golden opportunity that may never come again. When you are stuck in the snow is the very time to cut rates. We get the advertisement and the public receives no benefit. Let this be a moral lesson to you, sir—a great moral lesson!"

IOWA IN PIECES. Burlington will experiment with cedar blocks for paving.

The Warden of the Fort Madison state prison reports 308 inmates of that institution on March 31. Bloomfield has raised a coal prospecting fund of $900, and operations will begin immediately.

The two breweries and all the saloons in the river town of Lansing have closed up, and propose to abide the law while seeking its repeal.

A woman in Boone who was supported by charity during the past winter, is showing her gratitude by a public-spirited effort to aid in the improvement of the town by building herself a fine residence.

Blackleg has broken out among the cattle in Jones county. J. A. Crawford, a substantial stock grower in Cass township has recently lost twenty head of young stock by the disease.

On Friday last United States officers discovered and seized an illicit still, being operated in the house of a farmer near Burlington named John Stauffer, who is an old-timer in the manufacture of moonshine.

Mrs. Lena Struck, an elderly lady, who formerly resided near Denison, Crawford county, leaped from a Davenport ferry into the Missouri river and was drowned. The suicide left a note in her room stating that she had driven her car to the act.

Dr. R. M. DeWitt, of Des Moines, while on a midnight lay Friday to a patient, was assaulted by thugs, who soon discovered they had made a mistake. The doctor lost his hat and wore out a lantern, but braved one of the gang under the eye by which he was identified by the police and plucky doctor a short time after.

State Mine Inspector Wilson is having serious trouble with the coal mining operators in different parts of the state. He reports an utter disregard of the mining laws of the state by the companies and a contempt for the injunctions sent out by him against several boomers companies last winter. The inspector has made application to have the offenders brought up for contempt of court.

A little six-year-old girl at Fort Madison explained the cause of her childish tears and grief by pointing to the river and saying, "Oh! my mama has gone into the river to drown!" Hastening down to the bank the gentleman discovered the unhappy mother with her babe in her arms, wading out into the angry river. Brought back she said she had found the struggle for existence too great, and hoped to drown herself and babe, leaving the helpless little one on the bank to God and charity. The poor woman had been abandoned by her husband, a man named Johns, and left to support five helpless children.

There has been four presidents in the Panama country in the past three months.

The mongrels imported into Jamaica to eat up the myriads of rats abounding there, have accomplished their task. The important question now is how to dispose of the mongrels, which the blacks have a superstitious fear about killing.

In the Tuilleries garden is a chestnut which is said to always open its leaves on the 30th of March to commemorate the return of Bonaparte from Elba. This year, however, it was beaten by two other trees in the garden by nearly a week.

A Toronto lady commenced laughing at some amusing incident the other morning and kept on doing so until she attempted to stop, when she found she could not. A physician was called in, and for a time he considered the case quite serious.

Through several administrations the same plate has been used for the printing of vice presidential cards. No name except "The Vice President" is used by the man occupying that position, so when a new person comes into the office he simply orders new cards from the old plate.

NEW WHITE GRAPE NIAGARA! Copy of a part of a photograph of a NIAGARA vine, planted 1873, as it appeared Fall of 1880 with 63 clusters weighing 26 lbs. on 48 in. bearing wood

Let.—The Niagara ripens in favorable seasons at Lockport, Aug. 20th. 2d.—It never drops from the stem if left to hang till frost comes, and improves in flavor the time. 3d.—It is purely native, and therefore hardy. Has stood 35 degrees below zero without injury. 4th.—Bears a good crop the 3d year and often the 2d, and is a regular bearer, and no waste, as bunches are compact. Never fails to ripen its crop as the thick leathery foliage holds over to the base of the cane until frost kills it. 5th.—Vineyards are in bearing in various sections from Georgia to the Northern Lakes and Canada, and from Kansas to the Atlantic coast, there being more than 1,000 acres planted within the last five years and over 200 acres were planted at Brockton, Chautauque Co., N. Y., last spring, (1884); John & Martin alone having 47 acres; the largest vineyard in N. Y. being planted at Highland, Ulster Co., N. Y., by Sam'l Rogers, Esq., which contains 80 acres of this one variety, and he has realized from 20 to 30 cents per pound for his fruit, while 50 cents grown in the same locality brought from 4 to 6 cents only. 6.—All parties planting vineyards have signed a contract to return all the wood and cutting every year back to the Company up to, and including 1885; so it has been the sole owner of all the stock, and no one but the Company and its authorized agents can sell and deliver genuine Niagara vines. So all persons should examine agent's certificate of authority, and see that it has the corporate seal of the Company attached, and every vine that it has a lead seal attached, bearing the impression of the Company's registered trade mark. 7th.—We now offer for the first time, strong 2 year old vines at retail at $2.00 each without restrictions, to be delivered on and after March 1st, 1885.

WELLS COOK, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Having accepted appointment as special agent for the NIAGARA WHITE GRAPE CO. for Iowa and Neb. has an now prepared to promptly deliver "NIAGARA" vines under the Registered Trade Mark Seal of the Company.
