

THE DAILY BEE COUNCIL BLUFFS

Friday Morning, April 24. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By carrier... $10.00 per year

MINOR MENTION.

Thes. Radliff is at home again. Three drunks were ground through the police court yesterday.

The Council Bluffs branch of the land league gave a ball at Beno's hall last night.

Either the tramps are great liars or about nine out of ten of them come from Kansas City. Perhaps both.

The ladies of the Harmony Mission society are to give another of their socials at the residence of J. R. Sell this evening.

The water service was extended along Ross street yesterday, by running galvanized pipe a distance of about 500 feet.

Collins, the artist, is placing some excellent specimens of his work in prominent show windows, attracting much attention.

An old army friend of Gen. Gibbon laughs at the ignorance of the Globe in claiming that he is a democrat. He says he is and always has been a staunch republican.

Al. Smith's little child got hold of the kerosene can, and got a pretty good sized drink, before discovered, but remedies promptly given saved it from any very serious harm.

Henry Barbeau, for a number of years employed at the transfer, will open the hotel on Main street corner of Ninth avenue. The house after being renovated is to be named the "American House."

The valuable stallion, owned by Mr. Hazard, and which was injured as stated in yesterday's Bee, has been found to be so badly hurt as to render it necessary to shoot him. The loss will be $1,800.

Raymond & Campbell commenced yesterday driving piles for the foundation of the new jail. The work is to be crowded right along, and a few months will see the building ready for occupancy.

Among the tramps brought forward yesterday was one young man who claimed to have been a change pitcher for an eastern base ball club, but the club going to pieces, he had gone to work pitching bulbs for a Kansas City boarding house.

The local depot of the Milwaukee & St. Paul has been repainted and fixed up in a neat manner. If the other railway companies would give Council Bluffs better depots, the improvement would be much appreciated. At present the local depots are a shame to a city of this size.

Yesterday morning about 7:15 o'clock a Lawrence Holst was driving down Main street in a top buggy with a spirited team belonging to Mace Wise, the front axle parted from the buggy, dumped the occupants out, injuring him only slightly. He held on to the reins, and was dragged about twenty feet.

The judicial contest by which Judge Aylesworth seeks to oust Judge Looft-bourrow from the bench of the district court, was to have come up for hearing in Des Moines yesterday, but Judge Looft-bourrow having been too busy with his judicial duties to get his evidence together, a continuance was had by agreement.

The Odd Fellows are making great preparations for the celebration of the anniversary of the order next Tuesday. There will be a parade in the afternoon of that day, and the dedication of their new hall in opera house block, and a grand ball in the evening. A goodly number of prominent from out of the city are expected to be present and a very interesting programme is being arranged.

The Mortimer & Weaver dramatic company gave another of their entertainments at the opera house last evening, and drew a good sized audience. Last night they gave "Falsely Accused," a strong play, which they rendered well. The cheap prices for a very fair show seems to strike the people just about right. The same company will occupy the opera house for the rest of the week. J. W. Burton is showing himself as more than an ordinary comedian, and in the Irish he is very fine.

Arrangements are being made by which the skating rink is to be changed into a museum and theatre. A dozen carpenters are now at work making the needed changes, and improvements. Besides a dime museum, there are to be numerous entertainments, and some attractions have already been secured. The place is to be opened next Monday evening, and the Georgia minstrel are to occupy it for a week. The next week there will be a dramatic company, and the following week there is to be a comic opera company. This venture may prove successful, but it depends largely on how the place is managed.

The meeting of the state pharmaceutical society, which opens here on the 12th of May, promises to be an event of interest not only to those of the profession but to the public generally. A large number of visitors from all parts of the country will be here, and besides interesting proceedings there will be an exhibit which will be of such size and variety as to make the occasion somewhat of a fair or exposition. The Mynter block, which has been secured for the use of the society, affords rare accommodations, and the first floor will be devoted entirely to the exhibits, while the meetings will be held on the second floor, giving ample room for large audiences. From the number of exhibits already secured it is evident that this meeting will be the most successful yet held by the society.

One young man was brought before the superior court yesterday on the serious charge of breaking the seal of a loaded freight car, and entering it. The young man gave his name as Bender, and explained that he had been working in a hotel at Logan, his widowed mother living there also. He wanted to go to Omaha, where his uncle has a bakery and to save paying fare, he got into a car which was loaded with grindstones, naturally not having any intention of pocketing any of them, and none were found on his person. He was locked into the car, and when the train reached here he found a policeman waiting to gobble him. He claimed that he had $20 coming to him at the hotel, but that instead of drawing it he left it for his mother. The judge let him go and he hurried off to see his Omaha uncle.

The suit of Dr. Bellinger against Mr. Knemeyer, the proprietor of the Coy house, has been decided against the doctor. In this suit the doctor claimed $150 for attendance when Mr. Knemeyer had the small-pox. The patient claimed that he never employed the doctor, but that the doctor visited a county patient in the same room. The case was a badly mixed one, and the doctor could not prove any direct contract, and hardly enough facts to warrant the holding of an implied contract. The patient brought in evidence to show that the doctor did not make as many visits to the house as he had charged for in his bill, and that he was out of the place on the last few days on which visits were charged. He also brought in evidence to show that he did not take any medicine from the doctor, except a little herb tea, which the doctor had advised his wife to steep for him, and the other man, confined in the same room. The small-pox cases promise to be before they are all settled.

What they Think of Cook. The securing of Joseph Cook for a lecture here May 11th is the new enterprise of the young men who gave Council Bluffs a treat in the Bernhardt-Listemann concert. As must be known, Joseph Cook stands in the front rank of the world's orators. Here are two of the many opinions expressed by great men, concerning him:

From President James McCoah, Princeton College, in the Catholic Presbyterian for September, 1873:

I regard Joseph Cook as a heaven-ordained man. He has as much power of eloquence as Parker, and vastly more acquaintance with philosophy than the mystic Emerson. He lightens and thunders, throwing vivid light on a topic by an expression or comparison, or striking a symptomatic error as by a bolt from heaven.

From Rev. R. Payne Smith, Dean of Canterbury: The lectures are remarkably eloquent, vigorous and powerful.

Bothering Fero. Detective Fero, who has a keen lookout for the interests of the Milwaukee & St. Paul company, yesterday was complained of for assaulting a man giving his name as Barney Tate, a stranger in the city, who is said to have been causing a good deal of trouble around the yards, and whose appearance was that of a tramp. Fero drove him out of the company's yards, and in an energetic manner, whereupon the fellow went before Justice Frainey, who, of course, issued a warrant. The case was continued for a week, by which time the fellow will probably be far from here, and the case will be dismissed. Tate was arrested yesterday afternoon as a tramp, but allowed to go again, it being understood that he would leave the city for the city's good. It is said that some of the employees of another railway, to bother Fero, put the fellow up to having Fero arrested.

Facts worth remembering when you buy Wall Paper: 1st.—That Beard, next door to postoffice, has the largest stock to select from. 2d.—That his prices are as low as the lowest. 3d.—That he is a practical interior decorator and employs none but skillful workmen.

FOR THE LADIES. A Free Ride to Omaha and Return for All the Ladies.

Grand Excursion to Smith's Mammoth Store, Omaha, on Saturday, April 25th.

There is a grand treat in store for the ladies of Council Bluffs and vicinity. To-morrow, Smith, the great Omaha dry goods man, will run a special train from the Broadway depot, in Council Bluffs, to Omaha and return and will carry all the ladies who desire to go FREE OF CHARGE. You are not asked to buy goods unless you want to, but can go free just the same. The train will leave the Broadway depot at 10:30 to-morrow morning and will leave Omaha on the return trip at 4 o'clock p. m.

On that day Smith will make a great special sale of Silks, dress goods, Spring wraps, kid gloves, Parasols and Fans. Finer goods and lower prices than ever before offered.

Do not fail to take advantage of this great excursion for it will cost you nothing for car fare whether you buy or not.

Artists' Materials at G. R. Beard's Wall Paper Store. Send for price list.

Merrily Married. Yesterday afternoon there was a quiet little wedding at the residence of J. R. Rue, near the institution for the deaf and dumb, the bride being his daughter, Miss Hattie E. Rue, and the fortunate young man being F. J. Day, of the well-known firm of Odell & Day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Bates, of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of a small company, the invitations being only to the relatives and a few intimate friends. The newly wedded ones left on the evening train for the east. They may be assumed that the congratulations and well wishes are as honest and hearty as they are numerous.

Real Estate. The following is a list of real estate transfers filed in the recorder's office of Pottawatomie county, Iowa, as furnished by A. J. Stephenson, abstractor, real estate and loan agent, Council Bluffs, Iowa, April 23, 1885:

Ashbel S. Avery to C. L. Roberts, lots 7 and 8, block 12, Neola, $3,500. Mary Griffith to J. R. Hurford et al, lot 12, block 43, Bayliss & Palmer's add., $600.

O. L. Stone to Frank D. Tanner, part block 21, Neola, $675. Andrew Schwensen to B. H. Urbahn, part w 1/2 n 1/2 22, 77, 41, $35. Total sales, $4,810.

IOWA ITEMS. The Lake City steam mill, valued at $13,700, was burned on the 18th; insured for about one-half that amount.

The president of the Iowa Dairyman's association told a Sioux City man that Iowa creameries paid out an average of over $2,000,000 a month for cream.

Madame Tremaine, a confidence operator, who has been working different cities under various aliases, made a $400 to $500 clean-up in Des Moines a few days ago, then skipping for parts unknown.

Capt. L. B. Goffey died in Des Moines on Friday, at the age of 70. He was a regular army officer, served through the Mexican war, and enlisted at Galena in the late war, and was a warm personal friend of Gen. Grant.

Wesley W. Garner, of Columbus City, Louisa county, has held a commission as notary public from every Iowa governor since December 23, 1848, to the present date; his first commission was signed by Gov. Ansel Briggs.

Judge Hayes says he will require a cost bond of $1,000 to be furnished by any party not an officer of the law who applies to him for an injunction against any saloonkeeper.

The dead body of a man was found Sunday evening some two miles from Cedar Rapids, under a barbed wire fence near the line of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern railroad. His head and body was covered with cuts and bruises and his shirt burned off down to his hips. His coat, hat and shoes were found in an abandoned house near by, the shoes being covered with blood.

A Practical Man. Arkansas Traveller. As a fat old man who should have known better, dragged himself up three long flights of stairs and entered the editorial room.

"Whew! Coming up the stairs makes me blow," he said. "Yes," the editor replied, "What can I do for you?"

The old fellow laughed as he took a small piece of paper from a tin spectacle case. "Here's something that I jotted down," he said. "You needn't put my name and last name on it."

The editor took up the scrap of paper and read the following: "If a war should occur between England and Russia it will be a Wall street affair; between the Bull and the Bear."

"Wall street will have nothing to do with it," said the editor. "Oh, don't you see! It is a pun that I made up myself."

"No, I don't see. It appears to read all right, though if there were really anything of it the telegraph would have—"

"Hand it here!" The old fellow snatched his contribution and logged himself down stairs.

PILES! PILES! PILES! A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST! NO ONE NEED SUFFER. A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian Remedy) called Dr. Williams' Indian File Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic case of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electrocautery do more harm than good. Williams' Indian File Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a powerful, gentle laxative, and is prepared only for the relief of the private parts, and for no other use.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinbury, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Indian File Ointment: "I have used scores of File Ointment, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. For sale by all druggists and mailed on receipt of price. 50c and $1. Sold at retail by Kuhn & Co., Wholesale Agent, C. F. Goodman."
