

HE DAILY BEE COUNCIL BLUFFS. Tuesday Morning, April 23.

Subscription Rates: By Carriage $10.00 per week; By Mail $10.00 per week.

OFFICE: No. 12 Pearl Street.

MINOR MENTION.

Secure seats for the concert Friday night. The Georgia minstrels are quartered at the Pacific.

Gerberich-Ward concert at Dohany's opera house Friday night.

A special meeting of Bluffs city lodge No. 71 F. & A. M. will be held this evening at which the third degree will be worked.

Violinist and tenor give a concert Friday.

The county clerk is becoming so much of an expert on the type-writer that he is preparing the bar docket with one of Remington's.

Wm. Harchand and Otto Rishon were arrested yesterday for fast driving on Broadway on Sunday. They were fined three and costs.

Attend concert at the opera house Friday, May 1st.

One vagrant, a colored man, who used to work at the Ogden house was before the police court yesterday, but was let off on a promise to go to work.

Bensberg & Cheadle, beer bottlers at Ottumwa, who have been doing a very large trade, necessitating the employment of a large force, have removed to St. Joe, Mo.

An attempt is being made to secure the pardon of C. C. Smith, who was convicted of stealing a watch from Mrs. Davis' store and sentenced two years in the penitentiary.

The Western Union telegraph office will shortly be removed from its present quarters to the offices lately occupied by the Iowa and Nebraska insurance company, 507 Broadway.

There only remains one crossing over Indian creek south of Broadway that is safe, it being near Horne's park. Another heavy rain and the other two bridges will be washed away making them entirely useless.

The Western Iowa college, connected with the Western Iowa society adjourned last Saturday evening until the first Saturday in October. The officers of this society are: President, Fred Keller; secretary, M. C. VanDerren; treasurer, J. Fitzpatrick.

On Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock, as John O'Grady was trying to pull the pin between two freight cars in the "O" yard at Pacific Junction, he tripped his foot and fell, the brake-beam striking him, causing him a serious injury. O'Grady is a married man.

Col. Sapp's thorough blooded greyhound, "Jennie," has produced a litter, which in quality and quantity is a marvel. There are thirteen of the little ones, and they are all doing well, making a happy family, which is exciting the admiration of many callers on her ladyship.

A bookbinder, who has been hanging around town all winter, was yesterday brought before Judge Aylsworth, the little fellow being very destitute and dirty, and inquiry leading to the discovery that he has a sister living at Extra, arrangements were made to send him home.

Married—At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Lewis Wehrhorn, on Sunday evening last, by the Rev. Doerfler, Annie Wehrhorn to Carl Christman. The newly wedded couple were serenaded by the Bavarian band of which Mr. Christman is a member, between 10 and 11 o'clock the same evening.

The Council Bluffs driving park association when it gave its fair in the fall of '84, was backed up by a number of citizens, who pledged themselves in amounts from $25 up, to help pay for any deficit that might arise. There was such a deficit, and the association began calling for these pledges to be redeemed, but a few held back. Yesterday the association began suits against a number of prominent citizens on these claims.

The same "doctor," who was reported as having eloped with a Glenwood woman, and who has been written up several times under the name of McMenomy, is now said to be working Keg creek and Silver creek townships, and to have caught a goodly amount of game. His plan seems to be to get a patient to give him a note, and then to sell the note, and after giving one treatment to tell them to come to Omaha and get the other treatments, if they want them.

The mayor is expected to return from his eastern trip this evening. The prohibitionists will not, therefore, have much longer to wait to see what he is going to do about the saloons. It is not expected that he will shoulder any great responsibility in the matter, as he holds that it is not more his business to enforce the state law than any private citizen, he being called on to run the city and not the state. This was the position he took before he went away, and he has doubtless seen nothing during his absence to change his mind.

There was a little "brush" on Broadway yesterday forenoon between two well-known sporting men. One of them, known as "Shenney Bob," is said to have been keeping the brother of the other pretty well filled up with drink, and steering him against divers games, virtually robbing him of his money. "Bob" had been with this man over to Omaha, where the victim had dropped several hundred dollars, and had then taken him up the Northwestern road. The big brother meeting Bob, whose other name is Lyon, took him to task for thus roping in this man, and started in to thump him as he deserved, but Bob would not wait to be thumped, and dodging the first blow he went flying down the street. There will be no arrests.

Plumbing and water work is our special business. Lewis & Gilbert, Main street plumbers.

PERSONAL.

Frank Nicolini, of Algona, Ia., is at the Pacific.

C. E. Richards, of Red Oak, was at the Ogden yesterday.

Chris. Reisch, late with J. Mueller, left yesterday for Chicago.

Stephen Malloy, late in the employ of Eisen, Rodda & Co., this morning starts in with Smith, of Omaha.

Constable Wesley is now a happy grandfather, his son James being the father of a nice little maiden as has arrived in the city in many a day.

Peter Fuchs, leader of the Bavarian band, Peter Hanson and Schroeder leave today for Las Vegas, N. M., where they have an engagement this summer to play in a band.

From a letter received from Dr. Poulson at San Francisco, it is learned that S. S. Stevens, the general agent of the Rock Island, who has been spending the winter in California, is now lying ill at the Palace hotel with pneumonia, contracted at San Francisco, on Mr. Stevens' arrival there from Los Angeles on his way home. Dr. Poulson was called to attend Mr. Stevens, just as they were about to take the train for Council Bluffs. Mr. Stevens' illness will detain them for some days.

Artists' Materials at G. R. Beard's Wall Paper Store. Send for price list.

Facts worth remembering when you buy Wall Paper: 1st.—That Beard, next door to postoffice, has the largest stock to select from. 2d.—That his prices are as low as the lowest. 3d.—That he is a practical interior decorator and employs none but skillful workmen.

The Trouble of the Triplets.

The disgraceful row in which "the triplets" became involved at the St. Joe house last Saturday night, or Sunday morning, was yesterday the theme of street talk, and the comments were not very flattering to Messrs. Frayne, Patton, and Galvin. Patton was not so anxious yesterday to prosecute the hotel man as on the night of the row, and declared that he would have the case dismissed, but it was evident that this course would only confirm the reports that the triplets were the ones to blame, and that they in their sober moments had repented.

Frayne declared that if Patton declined to prosecute, then he, Frayne, would assume the role of prosecuting attorney and push the case to conviction. The idea of a justice of the peace being with a party who were trying to induce a saloon man to violate the state law, and to violate the ordinance requiring them to close their bars at 11 o'clock, and then after a row had broken out in consequence of the man's refusal to sell drinks, to issue a warrant for his arrest, and to have him brought before himself for trial, and then to have him kept in jail all night, when it was known that he could be had any time to answer to any such charge, and then to threaten to prosecute the case himself if the others of the party refused; all this shows a sad state of the judiciary. The voters who, by their suffrage, put such a man in office, must be ashamed of him, even if he feels no shame for himself. If a great wrong was done to Frayne and his friends, it would be the proper thing for him to seek justice before some other and disinterested tribunal, but to attempt to deal out justice himself under such circumstances is a disgrace. All that is required by the law to hold the chairmanship of a ward caucus when nine out of ten of those present were yelling "Put him out." It is to be hoped that this affair will be sifted thoroughly until all the facts are brought out, and the blame of the disgraceful affair is placed at the door of the guilty party, whoever it may be.

POINTS ON PAVING.

How Wood Paving is Being Laid in Other Cities.

The question of how to pave is just now interesting a goodly number of property owners on streets which will this season doubtless be paved in some manner. One of THE BEE readers calls attention to the following state of affairs as given in Bradstreet's, and the statements will be read with equal interest by other property owners here.

Just at the time when Chicago is abandoning wood for street paving and adopting stone, the great European cities that have been long experimenting with different pavements, are abandoning stone and taking to wood. The difficulty in Chicago seems to be that no pavement has ever been properly laid there, and the probability is the stone pavement now in favor will turn out as much of a failure as the old wood did.

In London, Paris and some other large cities abroad, stone, macadam and asphalt have each in turn been condemned and the preference given to wood pavement. Paris less than two years ago was largely paved with macadam and asphalt, but today the principal thoroughfares are paved with wood, even down to the Champs Elysees, where it would seem the former macadam should have answered the purpose. Miles of wood are also laid in London. The result in both these cities appears to be generally satisfactory. The wood pavement is easily and quickly repaired; it is not so damaging to vehicles; offers less resistance than stone, and, above all, has greatly reduced the distracting rattle. Oxford street and Holborn are like a drawing room now in comparison to London Broadway. The method of laying the wood abroad differs considerably from that generally employed in Chicago. A thick and durable concrete foundation is first constructed, upon which a bed of cement, as hard and smooth as a floor, is laid. Then the wooden blocks are placed with the usual gravel between the rows, and over the whole is poured a mixture of cement which permeates and fills every interstice. The Chicago method was to level the street, fill in with sand, and after laying a layer or two of cheap pine boards, place the blocks on them. The boards decayed and the pavement soon became a mere succession of ruts and holes. Thereupon the Chicagoans condemned the wood, when it was the engineers and contractors, who were growing rich out of the job, who should have been condemned. The Chicago stone pavement is put down in a filthy way, and must soon be condemned also. A good house cannot be built on sand—neither can a good pavement.

The Dime Show.

The dime museum and theatre opened at the skating rink last evening with pretty good prospects of success. The caterpillar is a novelty here, and somewhat of an experiment. The outfit has been refitted for the special purpose for which it is to be used, but there are still some finishing touches to make it complete. There are already a number of real curiosities, well worth seeing, and amply repaying the visitor for the nominal price of admission. The theatre part of the entertainment opens with the Georgia minstrels, who are to appear all of this week. These minstrels have just closed a long and successful engagement in Omaha, where they received many words of praise. Nothing has yet been offered in the way of a new management here, giving so much amusement for the money as is now offered at the dime museum, and each week an entire change is promised. Next week there is to be a dramatic company, then a comic opera company, and so on, good entertainments being engaged for the next four weeks. It is the intention of the managers to have nothing of the variety order about the place, but to keep the place one which ladies and children can patronize. The opening gives assurance that this policy will be carried out. If this first month proves the success that is expected, the place is to be enlarged, and otherwise improved, and made a permanent feature of the city. All that is required is the traction offered to the public in the museum advertisement to be found in another column.

NEW WHITE GRAPE NIAGARA! Copy of a part of a photograph of a NIAGARA vine, planted 1878, as it appeared Fall of 1880 with 63 clusters weighing 26 lbs. on 48 in. bearing wood.

1st.—The Niagara ripens in favorable seasons at Lockport, Aug. 20th. 2d.—It never drops from the stem if left to hang till frost comes, and improves in flavor the time.

3d.—It is purely native, and therefore hardy. Has stood 35 degrees below zero without injury.

4th.—Bears a good crop the 3d year and often the 2d, and is a regular bearer, and no waste, as bunches are compact. Never fails to ripen its crop as the thick leathery foliage holds even to the base of the canes until frost kills it.

5th.—Vineyards are in bearing in various sections from Georgia to the Northern Lakes and Canada, and from Kansas to the Atlantic coast, there being more than 1,000 acres planted within the last five years, and over 200 acres were planted at Brocton, Chautauque Co., N. Y., last spring (1884); James Martin alone having 47 acres; the largest vineyard of Niagara, being planted at Highland, Ulster Co., N. Y., by Sam'l Rogers, Esq., which contains 80 acres of this one variety, and he has realized from 20 to 30 cents per pound for his fruit, while Concord grows in the same locality brought from 4 to 6 cents only.

6.—All parties planting vineyards have signed a contract to return all the wood and cutting every year back to the Company up to, and including 1888; so it has been the sole owner of all the stock, and no one but the Company and its authorized agents can sell and deliver within the Niagara vine. So all persons should examine agent's certificate of authority, and see that it has the corporate seal of the Company attached, and every vine that it has a lead seal attached, bearing the impression of the Company's registered trade mark.

7th.—We now offer for the first time, strong 2 year old vines at retail at $2.00 each with out restrictions, to be delivered on and after March 1st, 1885.

WELLS COOK, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Having accepted appointment as special agent for the NIAGARA WHITE GRAPE CO. for Iowa and Nebraska I am now prepared to promptly deliver "NIAGARA" vines under the Registered Trade Mark Seal Company. 127 EIGHTH STREET.
