They called it "Buckeye."

Next Monday evening the people of Council Bluffs and vicinity will have the rare pleasure of hearing Joseph Cook, whose reputation as an orator and thinker is world wide. The sale of seats commenced yesterdwy, and those who want the choice of seats should not delay, as they will be reserved rapidly. No one can afford to miss this opportunity of hearing so distinguished a man.

A high board fence is to be built around the lot on which the new government building is being put up. The fence is to extend out twenty feet into the street, so as to protect all passers-by from injury by any slip of the derricks, or by falling material. The fence will probably be kept up for two years, as the building will hard'y be completed before the end of that time.
