THE DIPPERENCES AGAIN GROWING. LONDON, May 8.—The Russian ambassador imparted to Earl Granville to-day the substance of a note from M. De Giers with reference to the basis of Afglian frontier negotiations. It is reported that it is not satisfac tory to the British government. A confer-ence on the frontier question will be held Tuesday. The differences between the two governments as to the terms upon which the question shall be referred to an arbitratic are ecoming greater. The statement of the official messenger" at St. Petersbury that the dispute would be sub nitted to an arbitrator only in case of necessity is semi-officially declared inaccurate. Granville in a discussion with De Staal, holds that Russia's acceptance of arbitration must be absolute.

Reorganizing Pools.

Chicago, Ill., May 8.—Now that the Northwestern railroad has been formally ruled out of the tripartite combination an effort is making to settle the rate differences on western traffic. Vice President Potter of the Burlington road, has submitted a plan for the settlement of the present differences. This provides for the formation of several pools on local business for the roads west of the Missouri river, one on range cattle from Wyoming and Nebraska points to Chicago, one on competitive business in Nebraska between the Union Pacific, the Burlington & Miscouri River, and the Northwestern, one on local bus ness from Union Pacific points coming to Omska and one on Omaha and Council Bluffs business. It was thought that if proper divisions of the business could be agreed upon, the plan might prove feasible. At their meeting to-day the managers of the western trunk lines agreed upon a system of pool substantially as given above, but when the question of mill stuffs in transit was reached they were unable to arrive at a settlement, and adjointned. There is an impression that an adjustment of the differences may be reached to-morrow, and the proposed pools put into effect.

THE LUMBER DISTRICT BURNED. CHICAGO, Ill., May 8. - Shortly after noon to-day a spark from a passing locomotive engine set fire in the heart of the great pine lumber yard district, which lies a'ong both sides of the south branch of Chicago river, and near the southwestern city limits. Bordering up n this district are a wooden built portion of the city, known as Bridgeport, and the union stock yards, with its acres of wooden sheds and pens filled with cattle, great rapidity. The entire fire department was called out and began fighting the flames, for the progress of the flames, while they broke the force of the streams of water and prevented it from penetrating to the blazing pine in the center of the piler.

News of the fire spread rapidly to the business center of the city and created much alarm, lest the fire shoul assume proportions approaching those of the great conflagration of 1871, which came from the same direction. Great brands were carried forward by the wind, setting fire in new piles and several fire steamers and the men manning them had narrow escapes from des Starting upon the west side of the river the Starting upon the west side of the river the flames are up all the lumber between Thirty-fith and Thirty-eighth streets—an area of about 400 by 2,000 reet. It set fire to a canal boat moored at the dock and it floated across the river, which is 180 feet wide at this point, and set fire to the lumber on the east bank, which covered about an equal area, and this, with one or two plaining mills, was consumed. Brands were carried eastward and set fire to several small frame houses, occupied by emseveral small frame houses occupied by em-ployes in the lumber district. The fire department, however, made a stand at this point and succeeded in preventing a spread of the flames into the re-ide district. The fight continued throughout the aft rnoon and it was nearly 7 o'clock before the conflagration was brought under control limit of the immediate district in which it began. Getting Tired of Clevland's Leisure. New YORK, May 3, - The county democracy held a large meeting to-night, and a resolution was adapted commending and heartily endorsing the administration of Grover Cleveland The following resolution was also adopted: Resolved, that in our judgment, the subject to the provisions of existing laws all public offices now vacant should be filled by the appointment of such democrats as may comagain until the spirit of her deceased husband gives her permission. If she keeps her vow she will not have the ghost of a chance to their capacity, integrity, and by the record of their services and of their faithful adherence to the principles of the democratic party.
