

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning, June 4, 1885. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Mail - - - - - $10.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION.

Friday evening, at the opera house, the high school prize contest takes place.

McClurg's cracker factory is so busy as to compel running nights as well as days.

Three carloads of soldiers passed through here yesterday from Columbus to Sidney and Niobrara.

The Mutual life and accident association has removed from No. 201 Main street to No. 12 North Main street.

The iron for the new county jail has arrived and is being put in place. The jail will probably be done by the 20th of July.

Retter is offering great bargains at his merchant tailoring establishment, No. 310 Broadway. See his goods and get his prices.

Equalization of taxes continued to occupy the attention of the board of supervisors yesterday; also the allowing of a few bills.

Harry Hardin and C. Mynster are to have a shooting contest at the driving park sometime this week, the match to be a glass ball one.

The Eastern hotel, Broadway near Northwestern depot, has been thoroughly refurnished and renovated and is now ready for business.

The strawberry festival in the masonic temple, given by the ladies of the catholic church, continues this evening. Supper served from 5:30 to 12 o'clock.

Eva Lamont, who was arrested on the charge of robbing a young man named White of $40, was discharged yesterday, the evidence not being sufficient.

Still Bates and Tom Brooks are now charged with kicking up a row at the "three nines" and beating a fellow badly, who is a hanger on at the house.

The sodding of the ground of the Pierce street school is completed. The Third street school needs sadly the same attention and the bringing up to grade of a malaria-breeding pool there.

In the district court yesterday arguments were heard on the motion to transfer the injunction case against Wagner & Sherlock to the federal courts. The matter was taken under advisement.

The funeral of the son of Mr. Fauble took place yesterday morning from the catholic church. His schoolmates attended in a body, and there were a large number of the friends of the family.

C. H. Sholes, who has lately bought an interest in the Council Bluffs Herald, has been elected secretary of the company in place of Mr. Spencer, who retires, and who is thinking of embarking in business in Nebraska.

The renovation of the Baptist church is sufficiently advanced to judge of its appearance. The baptists will have a neat and attractive place of worship.

The work will be finished this week, so that it can be used Sunday.

Tramps continue to work the outskirts of the city, especially in the northern part near the depots. A few officers to run them into the city jail, and a few days on the streets shoveling off the mud would soon clean them out of town again.

The Graves family, who have been at the dime museum, have been engaged by the pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal church to give a concert on the 15th instant, the proceeds of which are to go towards lifting the debt of the new church for the colored people.

J. L. DeBevoise, the ticket agent, has received the rates for those desiring to go from here to the reunion at Portland, Maine. The fare for the round trip will be $37.50, the tickets to be on sale from June 14th to 21st, and there being the choice of nine routes from Chicago.

A handsome young barber of the city now mourns the sudden and mysterious disappearance of his best girl, to whom he was soon to be wedded--as he thought--but who has left for parts unknown, taking with her all his gifts and the Parisian diamond ring, and leaving no word or message.

The Nonpareil, poor old grandmother, she is again accused of stealing--this time it appears she "hooked" a big item from the Cedar Rapids Gazette and run it in yesterday's scrap book to fill up, you know, forgetting of course, to give credit to the Gazette--even worse, tried to make it appear as Council Bluffs news.

Yesterday morning as Officer O'Brien was standing on Broadway he noticed a young man fingering some shoes that were hanging outside of Phillips' store, and was rewarded by seeing this same person slip the shoes under his coat, after cutting the string that attached them to a long line of shoes with a piece of tin. On being arrested the thief denied his guilt, although several witnesses claim him to be guilty.

The council having given permission, Rescue steamer will go to Davenport to the state tournament. The steamer is being fixed up for this occasion, and if it had been kept in good condition all the time, this necessary trouble would have been done away with, as it is understood, notwithstanding there are plenty of men employed in the department who could have kept it in order, the steamer is in a bad condition generally.

The movement to secure the erection of a soldier's monument is assuming definite shape and plans. An association has been organized with E. L. Shugart as president, J. J. Brown as vice-president, J. M. Phillips, treasurer, and J. O. DeHaven, secretary. An executive committee has been chosen consisting of Joseph Lyman, J. L. Foreman, and John Lindt, who are to draw up circulars and subscription lists to circulate through the country.

A large council for the recognition of the Baptist church and its pastor is called for June 16. Some twenty churches are expected to be represented. The Rev. Mr. Watron, of Sioux City, will preach in the afternoon, and the Rev. E. B. Hulbert, D. D., of the union theological seminary, in the evening. Various other parts, both afternoon and evening, will be taken by other ministers. It will be an occasion of great interest to this young church and the citizens who will attend.

The city council is to meet this afternoon as a committee of the whole to consider the matter of a new license ordinance. It is proposed, in view of the loss of revenue from saloons, to increase the revenue from other kinds of business so as to help make up the deficit. The general plan is to make every sort of a business pay license so far as possible, the present licenses to be increased, and a number of occupations not included among those requiring licenses to be put into the list.

The Western Union telegraph company is now nicely located in its new office, and Manager Brown rightly feels proud over his new quarters. The rooms, at the corner of Broadway and Pearl street, over the United States express office, are very conveniently located, and they are fitted up in a very attractive as well as business-like manner. The public office is in front, and is as handsome an office as there is in the city, while there is room in the rear for supplies and batteries. The change is for the better, and will be appreciated by the public.

Tom Baldwin is closing up the affairs of the western trunk line association, the general agent's committee office here being closed, and Baldwin taking temporary headquarters in the old BEE office. The western association is known as the western freight association, with J. N. Faithorn as commissioner, instead of Mr. Vining. It is not known just where the Council Bluffs headquarters will be. In the closing of the old office here Mr. S. S. Stevens, the general agent of the Rock Island, has moved his desk into the United States express office.

The managers of the decoration day exercises desire through the BEE to express their appreciation of the kindly assistance of our citizens in successfully carrying out the arrangements for the day, and especially to the ladies for their work and generosity in providing floral offerings. While it is impossible to do justice in particularizing, the gratitude of the managers is none the less, and the individual efforts of those who helped in so many ways will not be forgotten, and each and every one of these should take the "thank you" as if tendered personally.

A middle-aged man, of good health and fine education, is taking a rather queer way to get help, by writing letters to many of the prominent business men of the city, stating at length his great need of money, and pleading for help of some sort. He claims to be a good bookkeeper, and to be thoroughly conversant with the English, French, and German languages, and that he is daily expecting a remittance from the old country, but is at present in great need of money. The number and peculiar wording of these appeals has caused some curiosity on the part of the recipients, and they hardly know what to make of the fellow.

PERSONAL.

Miss Nellie Abbott has been seriously ill for several days.

W. S. Swanson, postmaster of Crescent, was in the city yesterday.

S. T. Clark, superintendent of the St. Paul, was in the city yesterday.

John Todd, secretary and treasurer of Tabor college, was in the city yesterday.

H. J. Chambers and family have Mrs. E. A. Consigny and Mrs. E. W. Davis, of Avoca, as their guests.

Henry Spetman, of Kell's hotel, his father, mother and sister, all left yesterday morning en route for Germany.

Dick Ryan has returned from Northwestern Nebraska, where he has the contract for building a railroad extension.

Mrs. H. W. Tilton left last evening over the Northwestern on a trip to Wisconsin, where she will spend several weeks with her relatives and friends.

The Rev. G. C. Rice has gone to Vermont on a peculiarly interesting trip, his intention being to attend the reunion of his old class, which was graduated from Burlington university forty years ago. There were twenty-four members in the class, and there are now fourteen surviving, and all of these expect to be present. They come from various parts of the United States, being scattered from Maine to California. Many of them have not met since they were graduated. The reunion cannot but be an interesting one, with some necessarily sad features, as forty years bring many changes, some of which are not the happiest.

Maloney Falls in with Romans. IRON MOUNTAIN, Ark., June 3.--A row occurred in Walter Maloney's saloon at Vulcan, Sunday night, during which Maloney shot two Italians, one fatally. A mob of Italians drove Maloney and family out of the building, blew it up, and set fire to it. Maloney narrowly escaped lynching.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate. IN CONSTIPATION. Dr. J. N. Robinson, Medina, O., says, "In cases of indigestion, constipation and nervous prostration its results are happy."

FIOKLE FEMALE.

she Shows Her Gratitude for a Night's Lodging by Stealing the Family's Clothes and Jewelry.

On Tuesday evening a gentleman on Tenth avenue, near Drovers' hotel, was accosted by a finely dressed lady who wished to find a place to sleep that night, as she was intending to take the train the next day for Denver, Col. The gentleman kindly took her to his own home, it being a boarding house, and introducing the traveling lady to his wife and family, they chatted in the parlor until quite late; the family being considerably exhausted entertaining the lady, all retired, and on the family's awakening yesterday morning they found they had been robbed of considerable clothing, jewelry, etc., by the traveling lady, who had, from all appearances, gotten up and dusted before any of the family were much more than in their first sleep. As it was afterwards learned, by John Quinn, the night watchman at the transfer hotel, that she was seen about 3 o'clock yesterday morning walking up the dump to the bridge across the Missouri river on her way to Omaha. The watchman on the Iowa side of the bridge refused to allow her to walk over to Omaha and suggested she go down on the bottom, below, and get a boatman to row her over; just about this time the BEE car which brings the BEE over the bridge and up to the Broadway depot was signaled and upon inquiry it was learned that she wanted to be taken over to Omaha, which request was politely refused by the gentleman in charge, thereupon she went down on the bottom and was taken over in a row boat by a family who were camped under the bridge, they having just crossed the river the night before. The woman now lies in jail in Omaha, having been arrested yesterday afternoon. The goods are all recovered, and it is not yet learned whether she will be brought back here or not.

TAPPING A TILL.

A Nice Young Man Subjected to Unpleasant Suspicions.

J. G. McIntyre, of No. 305 Broadway, had his till robbed on Tuesday evening under peculiar circumstances. He was at supper and a clerk in charge of the store was sitting at the doorway until the return of the proprietor, when he went to supper. Mr. McIntyre on entering the store found that the cash drawer had been opened and $35 taken. His inquiries led him to have suspicions of a young man named George Mason, who had been in his employ, but whom he had discharged that very day. He learned that Mason had been hanging about near the store while he was at supper, and informing the police of his suspicions, the officers hunted Mason up and arrested him, finding on his person about $17, and although the money could not be identified, McIntyre's suspicions were strengthened, as he knew that Mason had left without settling his board bill at Mr. Porterfield's. Mason has served as one of the ushers in the opera house, and was quite well known in the city, and it will be a great surprise to his friends that such suspicions should be pointed towards him.

Ceaspoons and vaults cleaned. Address, R. & K., BEE office.

DOWN ON THE DOCTOR.

The President of the Young Men's Christian Association Annoyed by Being Charged with Larceny.

A case has been started in Justice Frayne's court which has a sensational feature to it, as the defendant, who is charged with larceny, is none other than Dr. P. J. Montgomery, one of the prominent physicians of the city, and president of the young men's christian association, as well as very prominent as a prohibitionist. The charge is made, that while attending a girl named Davis, who was at work at the Revere house, and who was taken sick there, the doctor, not being able to get any money on his bill, took the gold chain, belonging to her, and which came to be lying on the stand near her bed, the doctor saying that he would keep it until she was able to redeem it. The girl now claims that she did not give the doctor willing possession of the chain, hence the charge. The case is to be heard to-day, when the full facts will come out. The issue seems to be whether the girl gave up the chain as security for his surgery, or whether the doctor in his eagerness to secure the money did so without the chain without due process of law. The position held by the doctor, and his reputation here makes the matter a decidedly unpleasant one for him and his friends, and it is intimated that the real cause of the action lies in the feeling which a medical student in another doctor's office has in regard to the matter.
