GENERAL NEWS.

THE COMMENCEMENT OPENING.

Reported by The Bee's Bureau.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 5.—The philharmonic society entertainment was held at the opera house. The exercises were opened by the Rev. E. H. Curtis with prayer. The first part was "Naracoth on earth," by Roiser, sung by Messrs. Holyoke, Eddy, Wheeler and Barnaby, each voice being clear and distinct and the number rendered in excellent style. An oration followed by George B. Frankfort on "A true theory," art and music being the true theory of life. An essay was read by Miss Mary L. Jones, on Milton, showing by facts and figures that Milton, though unfortunate in early life, in married life, and even blinded was really the only learned poet of ancient or modern times. The essay was quite a classic in its execution. It was followed by a vocal solo, "The flower girl," by George, sung by Miss Carrie Stevens. This lady proved that she had a finely cultivated and strong voice. The next exercises were a debate, "Did Luther's influence advance civilization?" affirmative, Conway, J. F. Clark, Mr. McMillan endeavoring in a persuasive manner to prove that it was Luther and his immediate influence which overthrew papal oppression, gave the world the thought, and finally set forth the truth about the entire world protestantism, while Mr. Clark attempted to prove that if Mr. Luther really did all this, he was responsible for nearly all the ills, divorces and immorality which now so generally pervades even the protestant lands, and it was hard to determine from the force and strength of the argument which was right.

A piano solo, "L'Africain," by Miss Minnie D. Cochran, filled the soul with music and received much applause. The recitation, "Fall of the Penitentiary Mill," by Miss Minnie B. Latta, was one of the features of the evening. Her whole soul thought and feeling seemed to be with inspiration at each critical period. Her voice is clear, with a silver ring, her feeling pathetic, her style tragic, and her acting strong. In an oration on "Gibbelet," Fred E. Shepherd appealed strongly to the sympathies to overlook some of poor Richella's many faults and reverse his memory on account of his abilities as a statesman, and his character do not, Mr. Shepherd is an earnest speaker, and will be heard from outside of the philharmonic club. Two vocal and closing pieces by Miss Lillian Peck, "O Jordan River," was splendidly rendered. Her rich melodious voice was striking, and she convinced every one of her qualifications as a soloist.

The entertainment was a credit to the society and to the university.

The Lincoln trolley is running a large force to pull all the work they can handle. The management have recently received an order for $30,000 worth of hides to be delivered at Fort Leavenworth. This is the right kind of enterprise.

Lincoln has its full complement of cheap dress makers but few or no artistic cutters and fitters. A second edition of whether male or female, would do a thriving business at once.

A rumor is prevalent on the streets that the resignation of J. Pierce, registrar of the land office here, has been called for but it lacks confirmation.

Mr. Strong, of Omaha, is congratulating himself over the lost made with the city water works. The citizens are, likewise, much elated over the result.

A heavy rain storm, with some hail, visited Raymond and vicinity Thursday evening. Matters are very quiet at the county court just at present. Even the matrimonial notes do not seem to be coming in with the same frequency of our city and county, only one marriage license having been issued so far this month.

The county commissioners do not seem to be entirely satisfied with the city assessors' returns, claiming in many instances that the assessors have discriminated in the interests of the wealthier class. This would seem to be true, and still the assessors may not be altogether to blame. The board of equalization meet for the purpose of settling the matter on Wednesday, June 10th, on which day the exercises of laying the corner stone of the chemical laboratory will take place at noon.

The regular weekly meeting of the young men's christian association, to take place at their rooms on Tenth street, between O and P, to-morrow afternoon at 4:30. Services will be conducted by Len Howley.

Gov. Butler passed through the city yesterday from Chicago, homeward bound.

C. L. Mackey, of Lincoln, is in St. Louis, Mo.; Frank Sharp, Fremont; C. Colby, Beatrice; John Linholm, Essex, Ia.; F. P. Day, Rochester, N. Y., are among the prominent arrivals of the day.

The State Journal has just discovered that allances are being formed all over the country and as usual attempts to deride the objects sought to be attained, by the local government. It prates about the building boom and fine crop prospects and thinks farmers should be satisfied. The alliance will probably live just as long as the present.

Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday evening Frank McCoy, a young man about 18 years of age, and who had been caught in a net in the water, and it is thought by must have been taken with a cramp. His clothes are in the possession of Undertaker Roberts. Several persons have been dragging the net, but up to midnight the body was not found.

Two large real estate deals came to-day. The old Leighton & Brown corner on O and Eleventh streets sold for $100,000 cash to J. B. and C. R. Richards, who will commence the erection of a four story brick building with all the modern appliances, and the corner of Eleventh and M streets sold for $20,000 cash to a gentleman named Montgomery.

At the opera house Saturday, June 5th, there is to be a six round glove contest, Marquis of Queensbury rules, between Miss Haley, light weight champion of Iowa, and John Lriscol, a noted pugilist of Chicago. Haley is in training at the Fitzgerald boxing club, and Lriscol is training at the camp of the manly art at this as a treat as both men, judging from present prospects, will be in excellent condition.

PERSONAL.

A. W. Griffin is in Plattsmouth to-day. Mr. E. Rosewater returned yesterday morning from the east.

Mr. I. Libermann, the hatter, returned to the city yesterday.

J. M. Davidson and wife, of York, are guests at the Paxton.

T. H. Young, Custer, M. R. Davy, Lincoln, are at the Archer.

J. H. Stackhouse and wife, of Rock Island, are in the city, guests at the Paxton.

Vergil Allyn, manager of the Brighton Ranch in Custer county, is at the Paxton.

W. H. Ferguson, of Aurora, and J. C. Lewis, of Fremont, are registered at the Paxton.

C. A. Leary was called suddenly to Minnesota Thursday by the sad news of the death of his mother.

Mr. Sala Horwitz, of Smith's dry goods store, is spending a few days in St. Louis, visiting with old friends.

Mr. N. K. Shelby, buyer for Smith's dry goods store, has returned from the east and is now making himself at home in Omaha.

Master Willis Simmons, one of the young actors on the American stage, now a member of the French Spj company, is in the city.

Mrs. C. Smith, of Plattburgh, N. Y., is in the city, visiting her son, Mr. L. L. Smith, the Farnam Street dry goods man. She is staying at the Paxton.

V. G. Lantry, Blair; J. F. Hanson, Nebraska City; T. F. Kennard, Lincoln, and Judge S. R. Davidson, of Tecumseh, are among yesterday's Paxton arrivals.

Miss Lizale Alms, of Salt Lake, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Durbin Hitchcock since their return from their western trip, left yesterday for Chicago to spend the summer.

L. M. Rheem, manager of the Western U. Telegraph company, went yesterday to Spirit Lake for two weeks, hoping to recuperate his health. Mrs. Rheem and the children will visit in the meantime with relatives in Cedar Rapids.

Mr. W. W. Kelly, manager of the Grace Hawthorne company, is at the Millard hotel. Mr. Kelly has gained the reputation of being the greatest ruster in the show business and he has not in the least been overrated. It is a pleasure to put in an hour with him in a friendly way.

Dr. W. H. Falkner, special agent of the interior department at Washington, was in Omaha a few hours yesterday, but left for Chicago last evening. Mr. Falkner is returning home from having transferred 268 Nez Perce Indians from the Indian territory to their reservation in Idaho.

Miss Grace Hawthorne, the talented emcee address is at the Millard hotel. Miss Hawthorne is a new star in the dramatic firmament, but her talent shines out as bright as that of any of her sisters upon the stage, and her future is as bright as that of any actress upon the American stage to-day. Her interpretation of "Miss Merton" is simply grand, and her acting at all times is superb.
