Aarons become bookk eper in a shooting gallery, and Charlie Morris go into an exolusive mourning goods store as salesman, being such a dignified, sedate young man.

Myron Burns and Charles Gardner, both employes of Bray's livery stable, had a lively set-to yesterday morning at an early hour, the dispute arising over the manuer of bedding the horses. Gardner struck Burns with a pitch o k inflicting quite a serious wound over the right eye, the cut being three inches | ng, and being through to the bone. De C ok was called on to sew op the wound, and soon had the man in condition to be up and ab ut. Gaidner was arrested, and fined for a disturbance of the passa.

The jurges in the contest between Judges Aylesworth and Loofburow met at Des Motnes Saturday and held a ocn sultation, but arrived at no decision. It was suggested by one of the judges that estate as recorded in the office of the some witnesses from Green county be registrar, and reported to the BEE by recalled for examination on some points A. J. Stephenson, for Monday, June 8 on which they were not quite as well 1885; informed as they desired, but this idea did not meet with favor, and July Sta was fix d up n as the date f r a final deciston on the case itself. The public will therefore have to w it till then to kn w which of the contratanta is entitled to the diatri t bener.
