The time in the district court yesterday was taken up with the trial of the case of Rishton vs. Hami ton, which will probably take must of to-day also.

Mrs. Dawson died quite suddenly at her residence on Eghan street Monday night, and will be buried from the catholic church at 9 o'clock this morning.

The ladies of the episcopal church, in arranging for their lawa party at Judge James' grounds on the 18.h, have planned to light the grounds with electricity.

There is a good deal of wondering as to why the judges do not give their decision on the motions made to tranfer the prohibition injunction cases to the a sensation, which ever way it is given, but is a long time coming.

The funeral of Wilson C Jackson took place yesterday morning, and was attended by a large number of the friends and old citizens, who accompanied the remains to Glenwood, where they will be mains to Glenwood, where they will be laid at rest in the family grounds.

The cost of assessing this city foots up larger than in any previous year. T. A. Conover's bill was $1.575, but was al- while carrying young Nagle toward the lowed at $1,400, while the other assessor, shore. Mr and Mrs. Blackman were H. Shoemaker, claimed $1,100, but was allowed $1,000. The total amount paid the assessors was therefore $2,400.

The bills of the justices of the peace are always of interest to the tax-payers, and grow more and more so as the amounts increase. At the last meeting of the county board, Justice Fraincy, as usual, took the lead, he receiving $195, while Justice Shuz received $113, and Justice Hendricks $24.

Mesers. C. H. Morris and George Sicker each wear breastpins made of one cent pleces found, one on the floor of Eiseman, Rodda & Co's store, after the lawn sale on Monday, by a friend, who had them engrgved by Paul Shepard "Relie of E R. & Co 's Lawn Picnic."

Yesterday a young fellow was arrested for stealing a hat from Gleason's store. He was trying to sell the hat when arrested, and claimed that he had bought it in Valentine, but had to finally admit that he had stolen it here. He was sent to jail for thirty days. He gave his name as John Ryan.

The trial of criminal cases in the district court will commence on Friday. Witnesses are being summoned in the cases of Connor and Wilson, charged with burglarizing Cooper & McGee's hardware store; William J. fferis, charged with stabbing young Wheeler, and James Howard, avrested for picking Mrs. Hasty's pocket.

Sickett & Preston, who were lately charged with selling a low grade of flour in sacks bearing toe brand of a better grade, and who were acquitted of the charge without the jury leaving their box, or without the defense putting in any evidence, now propose to be further set right by a suit for heavy damages against those who started the prosecution against them.

The funeral of James Wickham was held yes erday foren on and was very largely attended, there being over a hundred carriages in the cortege. The sud denness and sadness of the death, and the esteem in which the young man was held throughout the communi y, caused the event to be one in which all took peculiar interest, and seldem is there such a gueneral expression of sympathy on the part of an entire community as has been shown in this care.

Deputy Marshal Mulian returned from Omaha ye-terday, broging with him the woman, Mary French, who was wanted here for atealing a lot of clothing from a house where ste was sllowed to stry over night. The officer say, that she admitted to him having ato en the things and to him having storen the things and J. W. Santa L. life, and had just as soon take a rest in iall as not. The grand jury was examining her case yesterday.

The two Sanders boys are still held in jall on the chage of stealing broks. Owing to their youth, it has been decided to let the boys go, if their father will settle the matter, and take batter bare of his boys. The fa har does not seem to be taking very good care of himself, and not satisfied with getting off lightly when arrested before, he got in again Monday night, but was again shown mercy yestorday and allowed to go. It is getting about time that he was brought up with a sharp turn. A man and woman, who will leave five little children at the jall in the middle of the night, one of them a bandling.

FINANCIAL FIGURING.

The Action of the Council Raises a Sterm, as was Expected.

The action of the city council, in de olding to make all sorts of business pay a license, and to cut off the gas, police and other expenses of the city, has raised a storm, as was to be expected. In fact the council seem to have had this very financially, due largely to the fact that the saloon lic uses bave been cut off, they amounting to about twenty thousand collars a year. It seems that one of the suckling, certainly need some severe purpos a in the recent action is not only to make some af those who are prohibiandling.

A number of promi nent citizens opposed the raise, and suc There is much railway news to gather ceeded in defeating the move. Now the council says to these citizens that they will have to pay licenses on their bust ness, enough to make up the amount. It is thought that when the money is demauded from their individual pockets, many of these will be willing to have the needed amount raised in some other way.

It is not soberly claimed that these the saloons may run and pay a license It was anticipated that the action

Such a meeting is already being talked up. The council has wrestled with the problem, and now they are getting it in such shape that others will necessarily become interested in its solution. It is doubtful whether the action will do enough good to offset the harm. The s edit of the city is naturally hurt by the exagger ted reports which will go all over the country, about the financial troubles of the city, and that Council Bluffs has home that was intended by it, and hence sould not be increased, then the expenses must be cut off.

THE EXCURSIONISTS.

The Iowa Editors Spend a Little Tim in Noting the Advantages of Council Bluffe.

The visiting Iowa editors gathered and organized for their western excursion yesterday, a large number arriving the night before, and others arriving on the morning trains. Their stay here was necessarily so brief that the contemplated formal reception and bauquet had to be abandoned, and even this brief stay had to be broken into by many of the preliminary arrangements of looking after baggage, assigning sleeping ber he, etc., so that many of the visitors had little time to accept the proffered hospitalities of the cuizens. The citizens having carriages generously placed them at the disposal of the excursionists, and for a portion of the morning there were editors driving in various directions over the city, taking in the points of most interest and beaut and noting the many advantages which this city affords. They all seemed to be delighted, and to appreciate the effort to make their broken stay a plessant one. The local newspaper men served as guides in showing the visitors the city, and other cit zens notably Mr. E. L Shugart, president of the board of trade. aided most happily in attending to the wants and wishes of the guests.
