AT THE STATE CAPITAL. GENERAL NOTES.

Reported by the BEE's Bureau. LINCOLN, Neb., Juna 12 .- The stengerfest building is now receiving its finishing touches. On the west is a shed that w'll be filled with booths. The building contains fourteen arches, which will be draped and decorated, thus giving the building on the inside a pleasing appearance. The Beatrice excursion was a success in numbers and pleasure, and although tirad when they returned, all seemed to feel that it was well that they went.

"Bobby Shafto" will be played at the opera house on the 221 of June for the benefit of the home for the friendless. It will be a pleasant treat to the children and should be liberally patronized.

liberally patronized. The case of the state vs. J. J. Davis, for assaulting Dr. Lucas, a dentist here on San-day, the 31 of May, occupied the attention of the court the larger part of two days, and was given to the jury yesterday noon. The defandant put in a plea of insanity, while the origin of the trouble is reported to have been country.

a bad case of woman's infelicity. The only excitement which is near at hand is the coming six-round contest with soft gloves, between a couple of sports who want gate money. This happens to-morrow even-ing at the opera house, which the first part of the week was filled with intelligent and ro-popt the week was filled with intelligent and re-fined audiences llatening to classical recita-tions, singing and prayer. The professor of history of the state uni-versity, with his assistants, are re-arranging and classifying the matter, the historical society have collected and will have in share matter and material which will not only be very interesting, but of material use to all who may desire to investigate the history of the state, matter, and scientific matters of the lambridge. the state, nation and scientific matters of the universe,

Among the many improvements which are going on in the capital city is a two-story brick on Tenth street, between N and O. The building will be two-stories, 69x70 feet, cost-ing $10,000, and belonging to Col, Wilson, an old resident here; a three-story brick build-ing, with Chicago pressed brick front, corner of Tenth and N, costing $15,000; a five-story brick corner of O and Eighth streets, costing $35,000. Raymond Brothers, whole-sale grocerymen, expect to occupy the last named building hopes to complete it by No-vember 1st, this year. This will cost $35,-000. The regents have gone home, having done nothing in particular except to audit bills and accounts, and have a general talk and consultation over the condition of this university. They seem to be much pleased with its healthy condition and the rapid strides it is taking in the educational race and think that under its present management the university. A Dizzy Medley, A giddy young dude with a blond mustache Whom nothing on earth could ever abash. Ab! the man is a glorious sight Incidents of the Day at the Capital the was out of brains and out of cash "Oh, where is my bay to-night." He went to the house to see his "mash" A protty young girl whose name was Nash, Ab, fair is the Boston bean! But he paid most dear for being so rash. For the barbed fence gave him quite a gash. Ob, wasn't that awful mean. he stands speechless before hor, hanging his head like a shame-stricken and repentant Ob, waan't that awful mean. He got some "cuts" from the coachman's lash And the old man's boot soon settled his hash. Please "see that his grave is kept green." -[Gorman Mountaineer. child.

> An Important Political Question, A woman's broil the president Has now on hand to settle. "Who shall the leading lady be?" Must test the Cleveland mettle, Poor man! he'll find of all his woes This is the very worst, To say, when dinner is announced, Whose petticoats go first.

One way, indeed, remains to him, For, should he choose to wed, The leading lady of them, of course, Is the one by whom he's led!

The Illinois Legislature,

SPRINGFIELD, ILLS., June 12,-In the house the general election bill was taken up and the quorumbroken as o n the previous day. A call of the house showed one hundred present. A resolution was offered for the purpose of issu-ing summons on witnesses before the investigating committee who refused to testify. Sevgating committee who refused to teachy. Sev-eral republicans objected to consid-eration of the resolution for that purpose, saying they would object to any business whatever until the election bill was advanced. However, the investigating committee was allowed a week's further time to continue the investigation. The dead-lock then continued until the time of adjournment, and no business was trans-

In the senate this morning no business of importance was transacted and adjournment was taken till 5:30 Monday.

No business was done in the house this af ternoon except to finally agree to adjourn till 6 p. m. Mondsy. The republicans state that no business will be transacted in the house until the election bill is passed.
