The First Expedition through Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado.

The Change of Rulers Announced to the Pawnees--Pike's Death of the Great Explorer.

WRITTEN FOR THE BEE.

NO. 11. Jefferson regarded the acquisition of Louisiana Territory as of the most vital consequence to the future welfare and growth of the United States.

EXPLORING EXPEDITIONS.

with a lieutenant and sixteen men with Dr. Robinson as surgeon, naturalist and botanist in two small boats, and reached the Osage about the middle of August.

GEN. PIKE WAS INSTANTLY KILLED. His remains were taken to near Lawrenceburg, Ind., and laid away in a lowly grave by the Catholic church.

To be a successful street beggar a man must look forlorn and debilitated, and unable to work. It would not do for a street beggar to take Brown's Iron Bitters.

Miss Mary Kieser returned last evening from her visit to Omaha and points in Iowa. Jacob Hauck and family, of Omaha, will leave for Plattsmouth their home after the 15th inst.

THE RIGHT OF WAY.

The fast express was due at 8:30 p. m., but made no stop there. It made no stop this side of Vandeville, a station about fifteen miles beyond Vernon.

Charley Mott was ticket agent and telegraph operator at Vernon; and he also tended the switches and signals at evening, as there were only two trains that passed his station after dark.

Mollie was a sort of "Child of the Regiment," so to speak, among the railroad folks in this section of country.

Charley Mott was a good-looking little fellow of another type altogether. He was of slender build, wearing delicate features, and more of a fop in dress and manners.

There were two intrepid men on 210, but they realized in an instant their terrible situation and worse than all the danger it meant to the passengers in the express.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

The city council met in special session Saturday afternoon. The following resolution adopted by the council explains the position now taken by the council in regard to the proposed licensing of all sorts of business.

For the purpose of learning the desire of our citizens in the matter of raising a revenue for the city by way of licensing the various trades and occupations, as suggested at the meeting of the council held on the 8th inst. be it

Resolved, That the business men of the city be requested to meet at Masonic hall on the 18th day of June, 1885, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of getting an expression from the meeting, as to the proposed license, and for the further purpose of ascertaining the opinion of the business men and citizens generally as to the best mode of obtaining a revenue from other sources in place of the one heretofore obtained from saloon licenses; and that the chairman of the finance committee proceed to call meeting a report of the financial condition of the city.

It will be remembered that the council at its previous meeting decided that the police and gas should be done away with after the 15th, but at the meeting Saturday it was decided to extend the time until the 13th of June. It was decided, however, to suspend all street work from and after date.
