MILITARY MATTERS. A Re-Location of Fort Omaha Being Discussed.

The Present Quarters Too Small--Personal and General Items. For some time past there has been a growing feeling that the present military quarters at Fort Omaha were too small for the purposes for which they were intended and should be used.

This feeling of dissatisfaction will probably result in the removal of the post from its present position to a point further out, where more room can be obtained. A gentleman well posted in local military affairs, informed a reporter to-day that a number of prominent citizens were interesting themselves in a movement to induce the government to purchase a square mile of land on the line of one of the railroads, the B. & M. or the Union Pacific, at a distance about eight or ten miles from the city.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL. An agreeable reception was given by Gen. and Mrs. Hawkins, Saturday evening to Gen'l. Henry and Brock and their wives, the new arrivals in local military circles.

INTER-STATE COMMERCE. The Senate Committee to Visit Omaha Next Week. Senator Manderson has received the following telegram from Senator Cullom, of Illinois:
