OUT OF SCHOOL. An Evil Persecution to Popular Education. Indecorum Fostered by Neighborhood Comment--Teachers not Culpable.

To the Editor of the Bee. I have been led to address you this by certain utterances at the court house at the recent meeting of the County Teachers' association.

The second of these contracting parties is the parent. And here, if anywhere, is found excess of responsibility.

My earlier years were passed in a distant state than the wild west. I lived in the country several miles from the city.

Well, thus time passed on till I had reached my fourteenth year, when a man from the city was put in charge of the school.

way he did down east. (That boy had a winter's skating and rabbit hunting). The teacher made war on the old "Blueback" spelling book and ousted it.

With this girl it may be added, by way of extension, that "they do say" that the store clerk was sweet on her.

Now that teacher, the opposition nevertheless, was right, and couldn't have done different, and was a great improvement on his predecessors.
