AT THE CAPITAL.

GENERAL NOTES.

Reported by The Bee's Bureau.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 19.—The Sangre festival is completed, and is now being seated and decorated. Four thousand chairs will be placed in the building, besides many other seats. The recent rain fully tested the roof and it proved waterproof. There is no doubt this will be the grandest musical festival ever held in the northwest. The grand mixed chorus will consist of several hundred trained musical voices, and will be well worth the effort and expense it takes to hear it. The badges for the different societies have arrived and will be presented to the organizations upon their arrival Tuesday. Several fine arches will be erected and it is hoped the business men will take sufficient interest to liberally decorate their buildings that the visitors will feel that they are not only welcomed by the authorities here but by the business interests of this enterprising city, remembering that upon this occasion the place will, to a great extent, represent its grand commonwealth.

It is currently reported that no money was appropriated out of any funds with which to pay the veterinary surgeon, the new officer which the law created. The governor has decided to create no surgeon.

Truly loyal and brave democrats here are still hopeful that the government wheel of fortune may drop an office in their lap, though they are not especially encouraged, as there do not seem to have been many offensive partisans in this state since President Arthur.

J. K. Joun has drawn the plans for an elegant residence for Major Owen, the erection of which will begin in a few days.

"Pretty Bobby Shafto," which is to be played here on Monday evening, was written by Mrs. H. D. Pitman and arranged by Mrs. Jacob A. Mahler, who has charge of the play here. It is especially for children, in two acts, comprised of original dances, ballets and tableaux. It is quite new, its first representation being in Pickwick theatre at St. Louis on the 22d of May, 1885, and was favorably received. It was produced here once before to a crowded house. The costumes are all new and were made in St. Louis. In addition to the cast here given, about fifty children from the kindergarten school will take part. The following is the principal cast and portion of the programme: Bobby Shafto, Miss Fay Marshall; Nida, sailor's lass, Miss Rachael Brock; Gipsy Queen, Josephine Lyndberg; Menev, Eleanor Raymond; Mother Goose, Helen Jones; Minnie Gaylord will sing "Climbing Up the Golden Stairs," "Peek-a-boo," and the sea-saw waltz; Berrie Burr—song and dance; Bertie Burr—La Favorite; Grace Burr—La Pas Seul; Rachael Brock—Chinese dance; Oliver and Harry Lunkin—highland fling; about twenty-five other children under the immediate instruction of the professor will take part, in addition to the kindergarten school.

The secretary of state has presented the Bee's correspondent with a copy of the session law of 1885. It is a well printed volume and a credit to the state printer. The cost to the state is 55 cents per volume, and the total issue is 3,000 volumes.

Now that the attorney-general has interviewed the chief clerk and the delinquents to the state on the insane tax—the Douglas county commissioners—the smaller delinquents had better take notice, and govern themselves accordingly, and as the attorney-general reports means to collect that tax, it would be well if they have any doubt about the law to refer to Nebraska Reports, 16th volume, pages 123 and 136. Burlington & Missouri railroad vs. Saunders county, and Burlington & Missouri railroad vs. Cass county.

The notice about the secretaries of the railroad commission going to Spirit Lake rather heated the boys off, and a portion of them have threatened to Lincoln prepared to do business.

The attorney-general is the orator of the day at the grand lodge of free and accepted masons at Omaha next week.

The Hon. S. J. Alexander starts for Omaha this morning to change the date of the appearance of Bobby Shanto to Monday, June 23.

The secretary of state starts for Chicago this morning on a business trip. Among the days prominent arrivals were William P. Helling, Aurora; Lieutenant-Governor Sheild, A. C. Albright, Seward; C. M. Bader, Crete; J. M. Plumb, York; F. Hazlett, Milford; W. B. Skinner, Marysville; S. C. Olson, Charles Cough, Charles Metz, Ed. N. Cook, C. H. Bernard, Omaha; Joseph Peabody, Fairmont; F. T. Ransom, Nebraska City; D. Farrell, Hong Kong, China; Robert R. Day, Des Moines; J. J. Nelson, David City.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

Sale of the Hastings & Grand Island for $251,000—Other Notes of Interest.

The Hastings & Grand Island branch of the St. Joseph & Western railroad was sold yesterday in this city, by the master in chancery, Mr. J. N. Strickler, of Topeka, and brought the sum of $251,000. The line is but twenty-five miles long, and had been appraised at $15,000 per mile. About 10 o'clock yesterday morning a small collection of calm and dignified looking gentlemen stood around the north entrance to the postoffice, and when Mr. Strickler announced that he offered the property in question for sale, there was just one bid made and that bid came from a purchasing committee, sent out from New York by the stockholders to take it in. This committee consisted of Messrs. Francis K. Pendleton, James H. Benedict, and Isaac H. Brown, the latter gentleman being from Boston. These same gentlemen also bid in the St. Joseph & Western road at Topeka about ten days ago, thus closing out what has long been an aggravated subject of litigation and trouble.

The property now will be transferred to an entirely new organization named the Grand Island & Marysville company, with directors for the ensuing year as follows:

James H. Benedict, Francis K. Pendleton, S. L. Parish, and C. B. Benedict, of New York; George W. Hall, J. W. Griffith, and Thomas M. Orr, of Omaha. They are to meet at New York on the 22d instant and there elect the officers.

The sale was made to satisfy a mortgage or deed of trust for $375,000 held against the road by Jay Gould and Amos H. Carlin. Of the purchase amount only $3,336.40 was paid into the court and this was ordered to be divided in the following funds:

Appraiser's fees, $300.00
Advertising, 30.00
Clerk of court, 50.15
Solicitor of complainant's fees, 3,000.00
Special master's fees, 250.00
Total, $3,930.15

The amounts of deficiency due are as follows:

Principal due by decree, $63,493.75
Interest on same to date, 2,827.23
Expenses, 3,890.40
Total, $69,211.38

After all expenses have been paid the sum remaining is to be applied towards liquidating the bonded indebtedness of the road. It is understood that under its new management the road is to be operated in connection with the Union Pacific.

The North Platte Telegraph gives J. H. McConnell, who comes to Omaha as master mechanic for the Nebraska division of the Union Pacific road, a very nice send off, and among other things says:

Thirteen years ago last Friday Mr. McConnell arrived in North Platte, and four days later he received his appointment as master mechanic of the Union Pacific shops here. Though small as compared with their present extent, the shops then were the biggest part of North Platte. To-day the shops are the second in extent on the line of the road and the first in economy of doing work.

The Telegraph regrets to see him go, and never in the history of the shops was there a time when more of the men in his employ would join in this regret than now.

The general manager's private car, of the Burlington & Missouri in Nebraska, was sent to Chicago last evening after Mr. Headley.

P. J. Johnson, passenger agent at the Burlington & Missouri depot, went to Davenport yesterday after the Danish paper, which he will move to this city.

25 YEARS IN USE.

THE UNITED STATES INTER-STATE COMMERCE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE WILL ARRIVE SUNDAY EVENING.

Senator Manderson received a telegram last evening from Senator Callahan, who is in charge of the United States senate inter-state commerce investigating committee, saying that they will arrive here Sunday night, and at 10 o'clock Monday morning commencing taking testimony at the Paxton hotel. Senator Callahan sent his message from Des Moines, Iowa, where the committee is at now, and said that they leave there for this city Sunday morning.

THE COLERIDGE CRIMINALS.

A Large Batch of Them Arrested and Placed Under Bonds.

Active Work of Detective J. J. Neigh and his Men, of the Western Association, to see that Outrage is Revenged.

The Coleridge postoffice outrage, that attracted so much attention three or four weeks ago, is still one of the greatest sensations in Nebraska. The rioters, who at that time were directly connected with an attack made upon Mr. Pollock, the postmaster, are now in a fair way to pay a penalty that justice will demand of them. To give the particulars, the Cedar County Nonpartisan, of recent date, says:

We have been aware of the fact that for weeks Chief J. J. Neigh, of the Western Detective Agency, of Omaha, with from two to six able assistants, have been carefully working over every inch of the ground. They have worked as only shrewd detectives know how to work, and they have accumulated "a bushel" of evidence very bad for all who participated in the riot. There are some implicated whom we wish were not, and we believe they were drawn into it through misunderstanding and misrepresentation.

Last Sunday night a cyclone struck the town of Coleridge and demolished considerable property, and the people had scarcely got through trembling when on Monday afternoon just before train time a tornado in the shape of the Western Detective Agency, together with Sheriff Asher and Constable Wallace of this place, swept down on the town and gobbled in J. B. Martin, Henry Martin, Sr., Fred Gurney, Howard Bailey, William Thorpe, John Albright, James Bushfield and H. E. Goodrich on the charge of riot, and John Bredenbaugh, George Hutton, Tom McCoy, Fred Frierich, Jeff Kirk, Joe Martin, Henry Martin, Sr., and Henry Martin, Jr., on the charge of assault with intent to kill. They were brought to Hartington on the evening train and given a hearing before Judge Nissen. Those arrested for riot were bound over till the 9th of July in bonds of $100 each; those arrested on the charge of assault with intent to kill were bound over till the 9th of July in bonds at $250 each.

It is to be remembered that our last grand jury found indictments against several of these parties, and three indictments against Bredenbaugh, and that Bredenbaugh is under an indictment in the United States court at Omaha. One evening in May this John Bredenbaugh, followed by a gang of toughs, made a bold and audacious attack on the postoffice building, when Mr. Pollock, accompanied by his wife and a gentleman friend who was visiting them from the east, broke all the windows out of it and fired several shots. Their lawless act created the wildest excitement, and everybody expected a hot day of trial. By an overwhelming popular vote the lawless act was a part of the present state constitution adopted December 1, 1876, and the only riot ever voted on and endorsed by the people of any state.
