which are a shade higher, Stocks-Have been weak to-day, at the same time business has been very dull though the market exhibited a strong undertone. Notwithstanding the decline for the past two days the street is bullish on the situation. There was a little rally in the afternoon, followed by a decided weakness between 2 and 3 o'clock. Declines are generally for fractions less than &c, none of the active list showing any gain.

OMAHA MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE, Saturday Evening, June 27.

The live stock market has been fairly active this week, receipts at the Union stock yards being quite liberal. Prices on hogs have advanced 5 to 105 and good cattle are in good demand at 10 to 155 higher, but butchers' stock is slow sale at any price, although quoted at same prices as last week. There is no demand for sheep.

The receipts of butter last week show a

Paints Oils and Varnishes. alight decrease which, however, has not had any influence on prices, and the same dull feeling prevails.

Eggs are in moderate supply and rather steady at 10c.

The market showed a little more activity and firmness last week, but not enough to justify an advance. Grocers report business fair and quote sugar steady with easier tendencies, while coffees are lower on nearly all grades. Prices on all other goods, with a few exceptions, remain the same and business fair.
