THE DAILY BEE

—William Hart, accused of stealing from the colored man, Monroe, is held to bail in the sum of $1,000 to answer the charge of burglary.

—Detective Davis has recovered a lot of harness stolen a month ago from the place of Mr. G. M. Roberts, of the Herald, 2447 Capitol avenue.

—The fire department was called to the corner of Thirteenth and Jones Saturday afternoon, where a feather-bed had caught fire in McCorney's butcher shop, was thrown out-doors, and ignited a board fence. No damage—only to the bed.

—Max J. Bashr has in his possession a rare relic of great antiquity, in the shape of an illustrated bible in the Bohemian language, printed in the year 1549, being hence 336 years old. It is bound in swine's leather and is remarkably well preserved.

—Geo. Meyers, accused of robbing the Iowa detective is still in jail, awaiting trial. Bays, the complainant, is not disposed to prosecute him, but wants to follow up the betrayer of his daughter, who he thinks is in Hot Springs. Meyer's denies Bay's story in every essential particular, while Bays stoutly asserts that Meyers is the man who knocked him down and robbed him.

TO LOAN—MONEY.

MONEY! MONEY!! MONEY!!! Money to Loan—On chattel security by W. R. Croft, room 4, Withnell building, N. E. corner 15th and Harney. After years of experience and a careful study of the business of loaning money on personal property, I have at last perfected a system whereby the publicity usual in such cases is done away with, and I am now in a position to meet the demands of all who become temporarily embarrassed and desire to raise money without delay and in a quiet manner. Housekeepers, professional gentlemen, mechanics and others in this city can obtain advances from $10 to $1,000 on such security as household furniture, pianos, machinery, horses, wagons, warehouse receipts, secured notes of hand, etc., without removing same from owners residence or place of business. One of the advantages I offer is that any part of any loan can be paid at any time which will reduce the interest pro rata and all loans renewed at the original rates of interest. I have no brokers in connection with my office, but personally superintend all my loans, I have private offices connected with my general office so that customers do not come in contact with each other, consequently making all transactions strictly private.
