MINOR MENTION.

Louis Bechtele has a novel trade dollar unlike any seen in this part of the world.

Permit to wed was yesterday granted Daniel McDonald and Estella Smith, both of this city.

The district court will adjourn this morning. A number of cases will have to go over until the next term.

Jo Smith and M. Sullivan, for trying to enliven the first ward with a little set-to, were yesterday fined.

William Brocht, for getting so drunk as to insult a lady on the street, was given $7.00 worth of repentance.

Retter is offering great bargains at his merchant tailoring establishment, No. 310 Broadway. See his goods and get his prices.

In the district court yesterday Jim Scott was found guilty of confounding a young man named Tate by the "farm hand" racket.

D. E. Gleason will move his coal office into the room lately vacated by the Council Bluffs water works company on Pearl street, to-day.

Charles Good was yesterday arrested as a vagrant and for being so fond of the colored race as to be too intimate with a tinted woman.

H. Sifley, who claims to be a special detective from Cincinnati, was yesterday fined for being too heavily loaded with anti-prohibition.

F. Bokemper, who had some cigars stolen from his place a week ago, was yesterday on the track of them, and got out a search warrant.

The game of ball yesterday between the Avocacs and the Council Bluffs Athletics, resulted in a victory for the visitors by a score of 14 to 10.

The sad news reaches this city of the death of Mrs. Jones, nee Lizette Paine, of Hastings, Neb., who had many friends and acquaintances here.

Willard Fry, who has been on trial on the charge of placing a railroad tie on the track so as to ditch a Rock Island train, was acquitted yesterday.

The old settlers have arranged for a picnic at Tabor next Saturday, and Robert Percival, of this city, is to preside and deliver an address.

Misses Pusey and Jones give a soiree at the home of the former to-morrow evening. Refreshments, music, and dancing are being planned for.

Ed Fagan and James Kingsley were fined yesterday as plain drunks. The marshal says they were not "playin'" drunk but were drunk in fact.

There was a still alarm sent in to No. 1 about two o'clock yesterday morning, caused by a slight blaze mysteriously started at Mollie Wallace's old house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bebbington last evening gave a lawn party in honor of their daughter, Miss Clara, who has just returned from school at Knoxville, Ill.

The Buchanan comedy company appeared last evening in "Our Bachelors." The size of the audiences indicates that popular plays at popular prices are popular indeed.

Deputy Marshal Mullen has returned from Oakland, Neb., where he had been after the team stolen from W. T. Cole. The man was not caught, but the team will be here to-day.

The time for taking out common carriers license has arrived, but no applications were made to the city clerk yesterday, the carriers waiting for the new ordinance to be framed.

Miss Albright, of the Third street school, entertained the teachers connected with that school and Miss Mamie Craig, the artist, at dinner yesterday, at the residence of Mrs. Dearborn.

The alarm of fire Tuesday night about midnight was caused by the blazing up of an old barn in the rear of the Reverse house. The building was owned by Henry Paschel, and the loss was only nominal.

The festival to be given by the ladies of the Congregational church at the residence of J. M. Phillips, and announced to take place Saturday evening next, has been postponed until some evening next week.

The transfer is being touched up by the paint brush and made to appear newer. The great improvement which would please Council Bluffs would be the moving of the whole establishment nearer the center of the city.

Charles McDonald, who was arrested for making threats, was discharged yesterday. The trouble seemed to have been a neighborhood one growing out of clothes drying on the line in one yard and dusty carpet being beaten on a line in the next yard.

Officers Smullen, Cusick, and O'Brien took a span of enforcing orders as regards vagrants and pulled seven inhabitants of "rotten row." The seven were at once turned loose again without even having their names booked. This is encouraging to officers making arrests.

From reports received from Washington, the struggle for the postmastership of this city is becoming very hard. Tom Bowman is in Washington with ex-Congressman Pusey, and Dr. Miller, of the Omaha, Herald, at his back, while Pall Armour attends to his duty here, and Wells Cook, who returned from a visit to Nebraska City to see J. Sterling Morton several days ago, sets in Perogy & Moore's cigar store and quietly laughs when he thinks of how nicely Morton has blocked Bowman's chances. Time will tell all.

Officer Kirk yesterday arrested a fellow on Main street who had a "quiet load" aboard. The fellow pretended to be giving lectures on physiology and showed Kirk he had all he wanted to handle by butting Kirk several times in the face.

The change in postage rates went into effect yesterday. The change is one of weight rather than rates, a letter weighing one ounce now being sent for two cents, whereas previously it has cost two cents for each half ounce. Newspapers, by the pound, go now at half the former rates.

There are no new developments concerning the chieftainship of the fire department, beyond the fact that Walters does not want the force cut down, but will ask the council to reduce his salary if it must economize some way as the council has refused to allow him any pay, claiming that Elcher is the chief and the one entitled to the salary. The offer is rather refreshing.

One of the Fero brothers who looks to the interests of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad yards in this city, was accosted by three men yesterday morning who wanted to work a free ride east. On finding that young Fero would not permit it, a fight ensued in which Fero broke a heavy can over one of the men's head, which was the cause of them immediately leaving the company's yard.

THE CITY'S FINANCES.

Report of the City Auditor up to Date.

The Following is the Report of the City Auditor, Showing the Expenditures of the City Up to Date:

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of Council Bluffs: Gentlemen—I herewith submit the following report of the city warrants issued for ordinary city expenses during the month of June, 1885, and the total amount of the same issued since the commencement of this fiscal year, viz:

To general fund warrants for June, $5,171.37. Total to July 1, 1885, $18,454.21, and also report bills audited and allowed during the same time on the following accounts:

Table with 3 columns: Description, In June, Total. Items include Police, Printing, Parks, Gas lights, City engineer's debt, Damages, Fire department, General fund proper, Grading, Streets and alleys, Irish bridge company.

Respectfully submitted, F. A. BURKE, City Auditor.

POINTING FOR THE PEN.

The Prisoners Sentenced by Judge Loufbourw Yesterday.

In the district court yesterday afternoon Judge Loufbourw sentenced a number of prisoners.

O. Conner, who with Wilson, was found guilty of burglarizing Cooper & McGee's store, was sentenced to-day to one year in the penitentiary, the sentence being apparently lightened by the evidence which Conner gave in the case against Wilson. The latter was sentenced to three years.

James Howard, who poked the pocket of Mrs. Hasty, was given two years.

J. G. Clark for stealing some carpenter tools from Bosen's shop was given eighteen months.

Perry Lyon, the young man who surprised his friends and named a previous good record by forging the name of his employers, Raymond & Campbell, was let off with one year in the penitentiary.

William Jefferson for stabbing Young Wheeler, was fined $50 and costs.

Robert Neville, the young man found guilty of arson, was sentenced to five years.

The old man, Henry Neville, whom the jury acquitted on the ground that he was insane was ordered taken to the asylum at Mt. Pleasant.

Charles McCormick, for assault, was fined $50 and costs.

Mary French, for larceny from a dwelling house, was sent to the penitentiary for one year. She wrote a very affecting letter to the judge, begging for mercy on account of her children and asking to be allowed to serve her time in jail instead of Fort Madison, but the judge could not grant the request.

Read Judd & Smith's offer of $1,000 reward in another column.

Real Estate Transfers. The following are the transfers of real estate as recorded in the office of the registrar, and reported to the Bee by A. J. Stephenson, for Wednesday, July 1, 1885:

Thomas E. Huff to Citizen's Bank of Oakland, w. s. w. 1/4, 9, 75, 39, $2,500.

Deere, Wells & Co. to W. H. Freeman, lot 19, block 1, Oakland, $200.

A. B. Walker to Rachel Fulger, lots 5 and 6, block 14, Neva, $125.

The New Court House Waiting for it.

What Has Become of the Cases Against Ex-Clerk Street?—Other Board Doings.

The county board of supervisors met in adjourned session yesterday, all the members being present.

The following resolution was adopted: Whereas, On this first day of July, 1885, the board of supervisors met at the county auditor's office for the purpose of advertising for bids and propositions for the erection of the new court house, herebefore authorized by a popular vote, and

Whereas, The city of Council Bluffs has neglected to take the necessary steps to provide a system of sewerage in the vicinity of the site of said new court house adequate to the conditions and plans prepared and accepted for the same, and

Whereas, For that reason it is impossible to proceed with said bids and propositions until said sewerage be established, and

Whereas, The said city, before the commencement of the new county jail and said new court house, advertised for bids for said sewerage, and withdrew and abandoned the same, therefore be it

Resolved, That the time for advertising for said bids for the erection of such court house be postponed to a future meeting of the board of supervisors, and until said city of Council Bluffs shall provide said system of sewerage as is necessary for the purposes of said court house.

The following was adopted: Resolved, That the county auditor be instructed to notify the city of Council Bluffs in writing that a bridge placed at the intersection of Seventh street and Indian creek in said city has not been accepted by the county of Pottawatomie, and will not be accepted as not being built according to any contract with said county.

The chairman of the board and the auditor were instructed to sign and deliver to the treasurer $30,000 of new jail bonds, and $10,000 of seven-year court house bonds.

The county attorney was called upon to make a written report at once upon the condition of the cases against S. D. Street, late clerk of the courts, both as to the civil actions pending and what steps were taken with reference to criminal proceedings against him, and the present condition and disposition of the cases.

The board did some other business of minor importance and then adjourned until to-day.

As appears from the action above stated the board does not intend to let the Street case drop. The attempt to get the grand jury to indict him has failed, and it is reported that only six members of the grand jury voted in favor of an indictment. There were some civil cases started to recover the amount of the alleged shortage, but these do not seem to reach any head, and the board is evidently getting impatient.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Houghton have returned home.

Hert Stracy is confined to his room with diphtheria.

The Rev. B. P. McMenomy is on a two weeks visit to Colfax springs.

Mr. F. S. Pusey has gone to Denver on a flying trip combining business and pleasure.
