Indicted for Embezzlement

the Mystery.

The county atttorney yesterday filed the following interesting report:

To the board of supervisors:- In compliance with a resolution passed by you of the district and circuit courts, and also of the condition and disposition of any oriminal proceedings against bim, I have the honor to report immediately in writ-capacity. Four actions were necessary taken. pecause his sureties were different in each of the two terms of the office, which he their order before the term closed by limitation of law. They stand on the docket for the August term of the said Mr. Street received as fines and penalties about $2,400, which the law requires shall be paid into the school fund, but fines and penalties to the school fund during his two terms of office of four years. I understand he claims that the county is indebted to him, but if there is one thing more clear than another it is that the county has nothing to do with these fines and penalties but to see that they properly go into the county treasury for the school fund. The board of supervisors have no power on earth to allow the clerk to keep any part of such fines and penalties as part of his compensa-tion, and for that reason I cannot see why such a claim on his part can be any defense, in reference to that matter. 2d—In the month of January an nformation was filed against him before ties to his own use. No trial was had were to be found were given him and he sided in with him to protect him, and the names of credible witnesses who had paid the said fines and penalties into his hands and the names of all persons in the treasurers office, in order to show that he had never paid any part of sald amount of fines and penalties into the treasury, as the law demands. I am creditably in-formed that all of said records of all said cases, showing in his own handwriting he receipt of said moneys; said fines and penalties were properly placed before the said grand jury, that all of said witnesses were fully examined by said body, and of $2,400 worth of fines and penalties belonging to the school fund of the county; b) that he never paid any of those fines over to the county treasurer; (c) that he had a full knowledge of his legal duties in that respect; (d) and that he appropriated all of said moneys to his own use in state; (e) and that said criminal proceedings are not barred by the statute of limi-

I am creditably informed that notwith standing all these proofs and facts before them, the said grand jury falled to find an indictment, and ignored the charge. With a full knowledge of all the facts and of the fullness with which they were presented to the grand jury, I am unable to account for their fallure to find an indictment. Nothing can be clearer in my judgment than the conclusion that Mr.
