

A NEW UNION.

Zolotar and Nebraska Blight Run the Wheat Market.

Bumors Again Assume the Mastery in Trade.

A Distressing Shortage of Cattle at Once Appears—Holding For Improved Prices.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

Special Telegram to The Bee.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 17.—The wheat market was very nervous and unsettled to-day, having been influenced in a great measure during the first half hour of the session by the prospect of a bad understanding between England and Russia, but buyers did not appear anxious and there was no competition for cash offerings.

There was only a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

There was a moderate speculative business transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was weaker.

George Lunt, of Waukegan and N. Divilbiss, secretary of the commission. It was determined to entirely remodel the front entrance and steps and to use granite steps in place of limestone. In fact, Illinois limestone will be discarded in the completion of the building, except that already cut at Joliet and on the capital grounds. Granite will be used for the portico columns and in many other exposed places. The lower corridors of the rotunda and part of the offices will be finished in marble. The inner dome will be principally of iron, with an ornamental rich glass center.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL. CIVIL SERVICE AMENDMENT—NOTES.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The president has made the following special civil service rule: "Appointments to the 150 places in the pension office to be filled by the act of March 3, 1884, except so far as they may be filled by promotion or transfers, must be separately apportioned by the appointing power in as near conformity to the second section of the act of January 16, 1883, as the need of filling them promptly and residence and qualification of the applicant will permit."

Demond was born in Massachusetts, but has resided in Iowa since boyhood. He has had the office of sheriff of Clinton county for many years. Logan is a brother of John H. Regan of Texas.

United States Attorney—Alexander Danz, of Kentucky, at Naples, United States Marshal—W. M. Demond, for the northern district of Iowa; Ruben P. Pleasant, for the eastern district of Louisiana; Richard H. Regan, for the eastern district of Texas; Charles M. Newlin, for the district of Delaware.

United States Attorney—John M. Burnett, for the southern district of Alabama; Charles H. Haver, for the northern district of Mississippi; George E. Bird, for the district of Maine.

The secretary of the treasury has appointed D. L. Perkins chief of a division in the Sixth auditor's office.

A GIRL DEFENDANT. MARY KLEMAN CHARGED WITH POISONING HER SISTER'S FAMILY.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 17.—Mary Kleman, the girl under indictment on the charge of poisoning her sister and her family, was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury. Miss Kleman was dressed in deep mourning, and watched the proceedings closely. She seemed slightly nervous at times, but quickly controlled herself.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

She was accused of poisoning her sister and her family. She was brought to trial in Judge Anthony's court to-day. But little time was spent in securing a jury.

eral heroic acts during the yellow fever scourge in Memphis from there he became a prosperous merchant and prominent in society. In court to-day Corbin's counsel stated that as a citizen of Missouri he made restitution and a good name for himself but did not care to press the charge. Goddard presented Judge Cowing with a petition in his favor, signed by 250 citizens of Missouri, including Governor Hubbard and Mayor Pillsbury. After some deliberation Judge Cowing discharged Goddard on his own recognizance.

CATTLEMAN COMPLAIN. THEY WANT A VETERINARIAN TO PASS UPON THEIR STOCK.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 17.—The following was telegraphed to-night to Secretary Lamar: "We are informed that Inspector Armstrong recommended the employment of the military forces of the United States to cut a passage for infectious cattle. There has been no judicial ascertainment of the rights of the parties to this controversy. Citizens of the United States resident in Texas, Colorado, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, New York, Massachusetts, Virginia, and Missouri, who are owners of the cattle, whose health would be affected by such an invasion, through the undersigned their committee ask the government to ask it uses the army to enforce the rights claimed on one side and denied on the other to dispatch a competent veterinary to the spot to examine the situation and report to us, as the condition and character of the herds which the troops are expected to lead and the probable effect on other cattle which the passage of such herds through the country will produce."

"They respectfully ask that such veterinarian be sent at once."

SIX CHILDREN CREMATED. A FARMER'S HOUSE BURNS WITH A FRIGHTFUL LOSS OF LIFE.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 17.—Last night the residence of Josiah Evans, a two story log hut, three miles from Grahampton, in Clearfield county, was destroyed by fire and six of his children, ranging in age from 6 to 15 years, were cremated, Evans was awakened by burglars and under the impression that burglars were about, took his gun and went outside. He had discovered the dwelling in flames. Before he could reach the children, who were sleeping on the second floor, the roof fell in, and in a few minutes the building was all ablaze. His wife and three younger children sleeping on the lower floor were taken out safely, but the parents were forced to see their other children perished. The morning the bodies were cremated, and the remains of four children, charred and unrecognizable, were gathered up and buried in one coffin. The other two were apparently reduced to ashes, as no trace of them was found. The parents are crazed with grief, and the whole community is excited over the horror. The father insists that the cause of the fire is incendiary, and in this opinion others share.

ARMED STRIKERS' DRILL. THE CLEVELAND POLICE HUNTING FOR THE STRIKERS' RINGLEADERS.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 17.—Last night was quiet in the iron ward. The streets were deserted early, and there was no excitement. Very few policemen were on duty in the ward, and none at the mills. The announcement placed in the mills this morning, stating that the mills will be closed indefinitely, until the men are willing to return to work. The police and the steel companies will there will be no more trouble until the mills start up or the men are paid off. The strikers, however, make threats and assert that they will yet be masters of the situation. They are now divided into factions, one of which is in favor of giving up and going to work, the other in favor of standing firm to the end.

THE STRIKERS STILL CONTINUE TO DRILL. THEY HAVE SECURED THEIR SETTLEMENT FOR FIRE ARMS, AND HAVE SECURED A FERRIDABLE COLLECTION, COMPOSED LARGELY OF WEAPONS OF FOREIGN MANUFACTURE.

Within two or three days they have purchased 400 rounds of ammunition at a sun store in the city. The police are working on the case and expect to make a number of arrests. To-morrow the Cleveland rolling mill company will pay the strikers off, and the authorities are of the opinion there will be trouble.

FOUND DEAD IN THE ROAD. BEATRICE, Neb., July 17.—Isaac Auld, living near Holmesville, was found dead in the road to-day. He was a farmer about 50 years old. The cause of his death is unknown. A coroner's inquest has been called.

A MULLBERRY SNAKE HUNT. LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 17.—Tom Hanlon, aged 37, in jail with delirium tremens, broke a window pane to-day and with a triangular piece of glass stabbed himself in the left lung. He is still living, but will die.

THE GROGGERIES MUST GO. ST. LOUIS, July 17.—It is estimated that 250 wine and beer saloons have been closed and their proprietors gone out of business since July 1st under the high license act, and that some 400, or about a quarter of all the saloons, will be shut up during the month. It is only small places remote from business centers that have so far succumbed.

CHEERFUL AT HIS OWN HANGING. RALEIGH, N. C., July 17.—Eaton Mills, colored, a noted desperado, was hanged this afternoon in public in Halifax, for the assassination of Henry Ponton, two years ago. Five thousand persons, many of them colored, witnessed the execution. Mills was cheerful to the last. He made no confession.

REVIVAL IN BUSINESS. MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 17.—The shipplate mill of the Rolling works of the North Chicago mill building will resume work Monday morning. It is not known when any other departments at Bayview will resume, but it is thought it is near.

MIDDLETON GETS A NEAR REWARD. TORONTO, Canada, July 17.—In the house of commons this afternoon a vote of thanks to the officers and men engaged in suppressing the northwest rebellion and a vote of $20,000 to General Middleton were unanimously adopted.

FRANCIS KERNAN DECLINES. UTICA, N. Y., July 17.—Ex-Senator Francis Kernan declined the appointment of government director of the Union Pacific railroad, recently tendered him by the president.

ACCEPTED A COLLEGE PRESIDENCY. FAYETTE, Iowa, July 17.—J. W. Russell accepts the presidency of the Upper Iowa university, to which he was elected to-day.

GOING TO BUILD A MOUNTAIN RAILROAD. MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 17.—Eight hundred men left Eau Claire to-day to engage in construction work on the Rocky Mountain division of the Canadian Pacific railway.

IRISH IRE.

It Arises Against the Management of the Broken Bank. England Will Undertake to Lead the List in Admiralty.

Russian Opinion as to the Afghan Complication—Patt's Divorce Pronounced.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS. ENGLAND WILL LEAD IN ADMIRALTY.

LONDON, July 17.—A deputation of important citizens, headed by the lord mayor, called upon Lord George Hamilton, first lord of admiralty, to-day and urged the necessity of strengthening the British navy. Lord George, in reply, said the government intended to secure the best professional opinions as to the actual condition of the navy. If the advisers decided that the navy was at present efficient the government would give that assurance to the public to allay alarm. If, on the other hand, it should be found by the advisers that the navy lacked in efficiency and that active steps were necessary to strengthen it, the government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

PARNELL WANTS BE TRIALS. In the house of commons this afternoon Parnell moved for a resolution that the administration of law in Ireland under Earl Spencer, whereby innocent prisoners had been condemned and executed and others sentenced to life-long penitentiary, should be investigated. The government would not hesitate to ask parliament for the funds necessary to place England foremost among maritime powers.

LUMBERMEN'S STRIKE.

ONE MILL COMPROMISES AND RESUMES OPERATIONS. EAST SAGINAW, Mich., July 17.—Every thing quiet this morning and the situation is unchanged. No additional mills started up to-day.

THE STOCK MARKET. LONDON, July 17, 1:30 p. m.—Consols opened at 99 3/16; 10-year, 98 1/2. Paris advances state the bourse is firmer this morning. 2 p. m.—Consols 99 1/2.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

ARMY NOTES.

Maj. Carrol, recently promoted from the captaincy of the Ninth cavalry to a position as major of the First, is in the city visiting the people about the army headquarters. Maj. Carrol has many friends in the department and division who will be pleased to learn of his promotion. Maj. Carrol has been in the army since 1859, and distinguished himself in the light artillery service during the war. Since that time he has made a splendid record in the west as an Indian fighter.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little delay." It is probable that the transfer will be made in time to have full quota of the Omaha soldiers present.

THE INDIAN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. In reply to a letter from Gen. Howard to Gen. Schofield, division commander, asking him to allow the Omaha troops to be transferred to this department in time for the rifle competition, Gen. Schofield has asked for a "little