For a part of this Rowland holds four promissory notes made by Mr. Roach. A promissory note made by assignor, bearing date June 10th, 1885, and payable in three months for $20,000, which was discounted by the Mechanics & Traders bank of Brooklyn, is also preferred.

P. W. Goldand & Co.—For money loaned and advanced to the extent of $30,000, which was loaned about a year ago, $10,000 on July 2nd, and $10,000 on the 11th inst.

The assignment then directs the payment of all other debts and liabilities due to or by the assignor, known or unknown, on the date of the assignment, including all lawful claims against Mr. Roach by W. R. Pitney, Thomas F. Rowland, James Edward, George W. Quintard and William Rowland for and on behalf of the Dolphin, liability incurred by them by reason of their having been sureties, and having executed bonds at the instance of the assignor, and for their liability on or about the month of July, 1883, with the United States, represented by the secretary of the navy, for the Dolphin, which was destroyed at the mouth of the Atlantic and the dispatch boat Dolphin and the lawful claims of the estate of Levi Kerr against the assignor by Kerr, now deceased, of certain of the bonds and contracts.

LONDON, July 19.—The Russian case, which sent down stocks with a run on the telegrams announcing a forward movement of Gen. Komaroff's troops toward Zulikar and the retreat of the English officers upon Herat.

The diplomatic differences between the two governments are grave, but not new. Gladstone had come to a deadlock with M. de Giers before leaving office. The situation is perfectly simple. The answer wants Zulikar, because through this defile lies the road to Herat. Russia agreed to abandon her claim, an imprudent one at best, in return for the cession of Penjbeh. Having got Penjbeh, Russia tries to repudiate the bargain in order to get Zulikar, too. Russia says she never meant to surrender the hills to the eastward of the valley. But these hills, according to Sir Peter Lumsden and Condit Stevens are essential to the military position of the valley which is the main artery of the Punjab. England has pledged herself to the answer, she insists upon the fulfillment of the pledge. The Russian demand has two objects: 1.—To ascertain whether the Punjab is as "seizable" as Lord Granville.

2.—To get rid of arbitration on the Penjbeh question. Sir Giers has already intimated that he is ready to consent to arbitration if Lord Salisbury will drop arbitration. Salisbury at present is disposed to convince Russia that in his opinion England has made concessions enough. The opinion is coming steadily round to the English side. The result, observers predicted as certain when England adopted a firm attitude. A similar change is noticeable respecting Egypt. Negotiations are actively proceeding with the prospect of a favorable result for the British. The Egyptian question is Sir Drummond Wolff hopes to arrive at Cairo with money in his pocket. Lord Granville had abandoned hope of carrying out the financial convention with the Egyptian government. The coalition between the Tories and the Parliaments, seemingly impelled by Garnett's motion for an inquiry into the conviction of Giers, is now being broken up. The Northern Cheyennes Threatening to go to War.

Wicked Work Looked For on the Rosebud and Tongue Rivers.

Reports of the Disaffection Among the Southern Cheyennes Reaches the North.

MORE RED SKINS.

Special Telegram to The Bee.

MILWAUKEE, July 19.—Excitement ran high here this morning, caused by a report that five cowboys and seven Cheyennes had been killed in a fight on the Rosebud. Your correspondent immediately went to Fort Keogh and found that Pine Ridge and other Cheyennes on the Tongue river are quarreling with the Cheyennes on the Rosebud, insisting upon the latter leaving their reservation to go south on the war path. The Cheyennes on the Rosebud are peaceable and prefer to remain quiet. The others threatened the life of Indian Agent Stevens at Rosebud, and he had to flee to Fort Keogh, where he was met by the fact of the settlement commander at Fort Snelling, Minnesota. The latter ordered Major Logan, of the 10th Infantry, at Fort Keogh, to take the Cheyennes to proceed to the agency and investigate. Logan has great influence over the northern Cheyennes, on the Tongue and the Rosebud, and will probably save himself and his men from the trouble which is being brewed.

Fort Keogh, Mont., July 19.—News of serious trouble among the northern Cheyenne Indians has been received here. The following official telegram was received last night: "The commanding officer at Fort Keogh reports that acting Stevens, of the Rosebud and Tongue river Indians, of the northern Cheyenne reservation, is at present acting as a peace officer. He reports that there is a danger of serious trouble between the Rosebud Indians, under Two Moons and Little Wolf, and the Tongue River Indians, headed by Black Wolf and White Bull. The latter are attempting to force the Rosebud Indians to live on the reservation. The commanding officer at Fort Keogh is endeavoring to prevent this, and is sending a detachment of soldiers to the Rosebud reservation to investigate the trouble."

The report says that the Indians are much excited over the matter. The Rosebud Indians positively refuse to go. There are now in camp with the Tongue River Indians about 150 Pine Ridge Indians. Crazy said he would die rather than go back to the Pine Ridge agency.

An exciting report has also reached here that the Northern Cheyennes have broken out, and that they are led to the war path by news from the southern Cheyennes and Indian Territory.

Still another report says that in engagement between the Carpenter and Robinson cowboys five cowboys and seven Indians were killed. These reports all seem well founded, and there is a great excitement among the ranchers and settlers on the Tongue and Rosebud rivers. A detachment of soldiers under the command of Major Logan is being sent to the scene of the disturbance to investigate the trouble.

MINNESOTA CALLS FOR A RIVER IMPROVEMENT CONVENTION.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 19.—The following call for a river convention at St. Paul on September 3rd has been formulated by Gov. Hubbard:

"The present and future welfare and prosperity of the people of Minnesota, as well as those of adjacent states and territories, are vitally dependent upon the improvement of the facilities and costs of transportation for their products to the markets of the world. The present state of the navigation of the Mississippi and its tributaries, and the facilities and costs of transportation for their products to the markets of the world, are vitally dependent upon the improvement of the facilities and costs of transportation for their products to the markets of the world.

It is therefore deemed wise and proper that a convention be held at St. Paul, Minn., on September 3rd, 1885, to consider the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi and its tributaries, and the facilities and costs of transportation for their products to the markets of the world.

THE SHYLOCK TRICK.

THE WAR SCARE STARTED BY A SYNDICATE OF SPECULATORS.

LONDON, July 19.—Berlin papers have done much to excite the public mind in London. They have pricked the bubble of the war scare about the Anglo Russian war. They show by indisputable evidence that the war like rumors and telegrams, though coming from many different places, all emanate from one source, and are inspired by a set of contractors, whose sole object is speculation. The exposure shows that the heads of the syndicate are at Berlin, but its agents are at work on every house in Europe. Forged accounts of hostile Russian movements were telegraphed to London papers and the pompous tone of the latter was depended upon to furnish the rest of the world with news of the war. The syndicate was subjected to a severe rebuff, which in the aggregate amounted to millions of dollars. Most of the money was paid to the syndicate by the heads of the syndicate, who had already received the money from the syndicate.
