NEBRASKA CITY. She Feels Good Because Business is Picking Up, and Real Estate Advancing. A Generally Prosperous "Good Time" Joins Up For the Southern Metropolis.

Correspondence of the BEE. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 22.—The question of the new large stock yards and pork packing house now being definitely settled, and our government post-office being previously "fixed" some four weeks back, our citizens are now chuckling over the city's good luck, and nearly everybody is prophesying, with ten to one in favor of the prophet, that Nebraska City will have doubled her present population two years hence.

Some little apprehension was feared by the Nebraska City Distillery Co., that their cattle sheds would be washed away by the indications are now more favorable. Our citizens were considerably worked up last week by the fact that a party of railroad surveyors had struck the town.

Who they were nobody seems to have been able to find out, but it is the opinion of most of our citizens that they were in the employ of the Missouri Pacific railroad, and were surveying a line from this city to the Missouri river, and Nebraska City doesn't care where it comes from so long as it gets here.

Nebraska City has now a full fledged militia company. Of brave boys in blue, who are ever ready to answer the call for protection whether from near or far.

Notes Generally. The Cumberland Presbyterian people are remodeling and beautifying their house of worship.

will be in the city in a few days to confer with our business men in reference to the establishing of a fruit cannibal establishment and store in our midst. It begins to look as though the old adage, "It never rains but it pours," would yet be exemplified in Nebraska City.

The Mystery of the Milk. "Milkman's Milk" is quoted by a popular journal as being "weak and quieting." In a "condensed milk" factory in the milk district of New York state, it was found to be worse than that.
