There was a further decided weakness in stocks to-day. Union Pacific sold down from 50 to 46⅞ per cent before midday, with a large trading. The decline in the rest of the list were for smaller amounts, but the whole market was weak and irregular. After midday the market became more quiet, though there was a renewed weakness in the last hour, the market closing dull and irregular, but nearly all cases a little above the lowest figures of the day. The most important changes, comparing prices this evening with a week ago, are declines of 7¼ per cent in Union Pacific, 4 per cent in Missouri Pacific and 2¾ per cent in Pacific Mail.
