

THE DAILY BEE.

Monday Morning, July 27.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

On Thursday of this week the Sunday school children of Tekamah will indulge in a picnic at Hinman park, this city.

The dedication of the United Presbyterian chapel on Park avenue has been postponed until Sabbath, August 24, at 4:30 p. m.

The sheriff from Platte Creek took from Omaha Saturday the man Charles McDonald, who is wanted in that place for forgery.

The new bells for the chimes of Trinity Cathedral are at the depot and will soon be in place. The bell-ringer is on the ground to put them in place and the ringer, Mr. Metzger, will be here to sound the chimes for the first time on August 31, in accordance with the desires of Mrs. Ogden, the donor.

Senator Manderson leaves on the first of the week for a trip to Utah and Montana. He makes this journey, it is said, on his own motion as a member of the senate committee on territories, to take a look at ex-Senator Padgett and his commission in the land of the saints, and to gain points on Yellowstone park.

A Mr. Van Alstyne, living on South Sixth street, fell through the sidewalk, near the corner of Hamilton and King streets, Wednesday night. He struck on the left side of his spine producing partial paralysis.

Was again severely tested on a very severe oil barrel fire last Saturday evening opposite the Paxton hotel. The Eclipse certainly can claim to be the best of all as the test was a very severe one, but the fire was put out with one-fourth of a charge in forty-five seconds.

Big Sale of High Priced Cattle at the Union Stock Yards Omaha, Nebraska, Omaha, Neb., July 25, 1885.

The top price of the season was obtained to-day by Messrs. Wagner, Sarag & Sanders for one hundred head of prime corn-fed western beefs, averaging 1,402 pounds, and selling at $5 60 per pound.

Seal of North Carolina Tobacco is the best. The Daily World.

With the object of correcting impressions which many have erroneously formed as to the policy and character of the Daily World, soon to be established in Omaha and also as a matter of news, the projectors wish to make public through the courtesy of the city press the following brief statement of the intention, scope and policy of the Omaha Daily World:

The stockholders, incorporators and directors include men of both political parties.

The "World" will be non-partisan and entirely independent.

It will be the organ of no party, interest or faction, but will be simply and purely a newspaper.

It will be published daily in the afternoon except Sunday.

COURT CULLIN G.

The Motion For a New Trial in the Ballard Case Argued To-Day Cases Noted by Estelle.

Before Judge Neville Saturday morning and afternoon the motion for a new trial in the case of Thomas Ballard recently convicted of murder, was argued by Gen. O'Brien, counsel for defense.

The plea for a new trial is based, among other grounds, upon these alleged facts:

That the court acted improperly in refusing to admit certain evidence, especially the hypothetical question as to the sanity or insanity of a man in Ballard's case; that the court acted improperly in speaking of the case in such a manner as to prejudice the jury; that Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Baldwin spoke of the case in such a manner as to prejudice the jury and throw them off the track; that the verdict of the jury was not in accord with the facts; that it was according to the rulings of Judge Neville on certain points of law, but that those rulings were plainly wrong; and that the names of witnesses were not on the back of the bill of indictment returned by the grand jury, as required by law.

It is possible that the motion may be acted upon by Judge Neville this evening. In event of his denying the motion, the case will be taken to the supreme court.

CASES NOTED. The following cases of last term were noted Saturday by District Attorney Estelle:

James Murphy, grand larceny. Peter Hawkins, shooting with intent to kill. Matt Keating and John Doe, robbery. Rudolph Geyer, embezzlement. John Donahoe and Martin Grace, burglary.

Charles Meyer, forgery. P. Blonbaum, receiving stolen goods. John Waldron, larceny. John Simpson, larceny. John McMahon, larceny. James Brown, larceny. John McMahon, attempt at robbery. John T. Croft, selling liquor without a license.

John Quirk, burglary and larceny. John A. Bartine, embezzlement. Ed Kennedy, obtaining goods under false pretenses.

James Reynolds and Patrick Partell, Mrs. A. Bankhart, C. A. Jensen, Paul Ulaek, Kate Sullivan, Henry Ruseen, Fred Schnell, Fred Muller, Matilda Murray, Sam Gardner, Rudolph Haas, Stephen Van Orman, Henry Bechtel, Ed Kuester, selling liquor without license.

George Guthrie, bribery and perjury. Fred Sachan, selling mortgaged property. D. L. McGuckin, bribery, Otis Gray, larceny as bawler.

A. Bernstein, bribery. Geo. Miller and Robt. Smith, house-breaking. Conrad Seft, assault and battery.

John Woodworth, being interested in city contracts without being a citizen. Frank Robins, making threats. J. F. Balm, two indictments, Edward Leeder and Charles Kauffmann, bribery. Thomas Laidlaw, making threats.

THIS WEEK'S CASES. The case of the State vs. Martin, for larceny, will be called for trial to-day.

The case of the State vs. McClelland, for burglary, will probably be called for trial Tuesday.

POLICE COURT. The Usual Grist Ground out by Judge Stenberg's Mill.

somewhere in the line of the railroads, and flooded that whole neighborhood. One house is reported as having been washed off its foundation, and a number of small shanties were so inundated that their occupants were compelled to seek refuge somewhere else.

On South Tenth street the gutters were filled with rushing water to-day which had accumulated on the street south of the depot. The gutters were not large enough to successfully carry off the flood of water, and near the depot there was quite an overflow.

Thirty feet of the stone wall between the residence of Gen. Lowe and George A. Hoagland, on Sixteenth, near Howard, were washed away by the flood.

On upper Farnam street more of the curbing was washed away, and Contractor Brennan estimates his loss, in time and labor, at something over $200. The soil is so muddy yet that the working, cutting and paving have for a time been suspended.

Throughout the city considerable damage from the storm is reported. Many cellars were invaded by the waters, and flooded in several places to the extent of three or four feet.

A GRAND RALLY AND ALL ENTHUSIASTIC OVER FIFTEEN HUNDRED OF OMAHA'S CITIZENS

Attended the mass meeting held Saturday evening, in the rooms formerly occupied by French's grocery, 1119 Farnam Street, Hon. Wm. H. Curtis of Boston, Mass., was elected chairman, Maj. Chas. Goldsmith of Peoria, Ill., recording secretary, and Hon. Benj. Woolman, of Chicago, assistant recorder. The discussions were numerous and orderly and met the approval of all. Mr. Curtis, in his opening address, said the object of the meeting was to inform the public of Omaha, that the stock company of the Misfit Clothing Parlors had consolidated the stock from Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco into one, and had appointed him their representative to open in Omaha, and give the public the benefit of buying Merchant Tailor Made Clothing at comparatively their own price. At this all were invited to make a thorough inspection of the garments on display and satisfy themselves that they could profit 66 2/3 per cent by laying in a supply for years to come. All met with a surprise, and those who were prepared did not fail to embrace the golden rule, to

Make Hay While the Sun Shines

On closing all present expressed the assurance that they would advocate the cause. Mr. Curtis extended sincere thanks for the attention and good order, announcing that the meetings would continue from day to day until the stock was all closed. All adjourned
