LOCAL BREVITIES.

-Officer John Turnbull was out on the streets again yesterday after a severe attacklof cholera morbus,

-The Omaha Wheel club has determined to hold its fall tournament on the second Friday and Saturday of October.

-Mr. J. L. Currier, of North Seventeenth street, reports his house was robbed Tuesday night, some $40 or $50 worth of silverware and jewelry being taken. Entrance was effected by the thieves through a back door.

Dan C. Hereley was resppointed poundmaster last night and has entered upon his look out for their cattle and see that they evening. He suffered greatly all day. stay at home.

-Joseph Gashanofsky, a Pole employed in the nailworks was taken sick suddenly Tues day afternoon and died last evening. He had been affected by the heat during the day, and had been drinking a good deal of ice water, and to this fact is to be ascribed his death. He leaves a wife and several children in poor circumstances.

-James McArdle, formerly of Omaha, shot himself last Sunday morning, July 19th, near Shoshone, Idano. No cause is assigned for the a t. It is said that he was feeling somewhat depressed, owing to the death of his brother, Patrick McArdle here some time ago. The deceased has many friends in Omaha who will regret to learn of his untime ly death.

-The Athletics are arranging a game with the Union Pacific shop nine to be played next Sunday. Last Sunday they played the Blair team, defeating them 15 to 3. They were very cordially treated while in Blair and desire to thank Mr. E. L. Brenton, the manager of the nine, for his manifold courtesies.

-Coroner Drexel has received a letter from the Sisters of St. Mary's hospital, at Columbus, saying that the girl Genetta Schafer, who committed suicide here, was at their institution sometime ago, but they learned nothing of her history or antecedents. Corogiven Mr. Johnson, the restaurateur, notice was ignited by the lamp.

-Tuesday evening the lawn of Mr. J. L. who has recently arrived in the city fro Princeton, N. J. A large number of the Glee club boys, many of them old friends and acquaintances of Mr. Harsha, were present, and singing furnished the most attractive feature of the evening's entertainment. A num-ber of eld and new songs were rendered in a delightful manner. After the musical part of the programme was concluded refreshments were served, and were attended to with great zest by those present. The occasion was in all respects a thoroughly enjoyable one,

DANGER AHEAD.

Property owners to be Held Liable for Injuries Resulting From Defective Sidewalks.

A number of notices signed by Mayor but Boyd were placed in the hands of Sheriff Miller yesterday morning, to be served on owners of property opposite which acci dents have occurred from defective side walks. A number of suits have recently been commenced against the city, amount ing to $40,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by reason of personal injuries received in consequence of defect ive side walks. The ownership of prop erty opposite which these accidents have daily papers that you have returned to occurred has been carefully looked into your former home in this city for a visit by the city attorney, and it is now of a few days, previous to entering on a proposed by the city authorities to hold the property owner liable for any will share with you in any measure of judgments which may be recovered distinction you may attain, we respect against the city. On this account these notices have been signed by the mayor and placed in the hands of the sheriff for

The notice in each case informs the property owner of the pendency of the suit, the name of the plaintiff claiming damages, the amount claimed and further notifies the property owner to appear and defend such suit and that for any judg ment which may be recovered, the city will hold him liable.

A reporter of the BEE, for the purpos of ascertaining the legal point involved in this action, called yesterday on the city attorney, and in response to an inquiry as to the effect of serving the notices re-ferred to, was informed that as a matter of law, a property owner after receiving anount of judgment which might be obtained against the city (and which he was

Many who would not think of allowing a building to remain uninsured for a single night, permit their sidewalks to remain for weeks and months in a dangerous and dilapidated condition, rot knowing at what time a liability of $10,000 may incur to them as the result of such negligence and indifference."

The Right Man Caught,

The public may remember the case of It is estimated that there were five the telegraph operator, William Patton, thousand people at the distillary fire yes. who was arrested here last winter by the terday morning, and many of them hung police, on the supposition that he was J. out about the place until long after day. C. Pussy, the defaulting clerk of the light. They gathered from all parts of Leavenworth penetentlary. He was the city, therefore the event was the afterwards released, as it was proven conclusively that he was not the right man. He threatened to sue the city for to save themselves trouble and money should got burned, died about 6 o'clock last a heavy amount, but for some reason > falled to do so. The following special from Leavenworth tells of the arrest of the real offender, Pusey, in Pittsburg, on Sunday:

Pusey, in Pittsburg, on Sunday:

A detective of Pittsburg arrived here to-day with J. C. Pusey, defaulting clerk of the Kansas penitentiary. Pusey forged vouchers, embezzled about $5,000, and fled from here the 27th of last November. A large reward was offered. He said to-day that he went from here to Topeka, thence to Kausas City and St. Louis, where he took a boat for New Orleans, and went to work on the exposition grounds. He had spent all his money on women and wine, and had $1.75 when he reached New Orleans. There, under disguise, he frequently met Kansas people, and once on the street passed Fred Glick, son of Gov. Glick, and Detective Paakhurst, of Topeka, who had gone there to look for him. From New Orleans he went to Memphis, where he warked awhile, and last April went to Cincinnati, where he has been ever since, doing odd jobs for a living: He is a fine machinist, and was a member of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers. He had arranged to go to England, when he had good resition as a machinist, had a good resition as a machinist. neers. He had arranged to go to England where he had a good position as a machinist offered him, and was trying to earn money enough in Cincinnati to pay his way there. Pusey attributes his downfull to love of whisky and an alliance with a notorious woman of ill-repute here, upon whom he lav-ished a great deal of money. Pusey is a shrewd bookkeeper, and Warden Jones and an expert convict bookkeeper worked on his books four days before they discovered evi-W ANTED-A mar to drive delivers wagen; one that is acquainted with the streets of Omaha.
