A lodge of Good Templars is to be organized at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms this evening. It is a singular fact that the temperance effort in this city has been so busy with attempting to use legal force that no cold water organization has ever been formed here to work along the sussion line. It seems high time that the neglected oar should be brought into use.

John Hoover, familiarly known in po lice circles as "Calfskin," was yesterday cuffing some boys on the street corner. It seems that at that place he fell into when Officer O'Brien ordered him to the company of Henry Grover, as the stop. He dared the officer to arrest him, and O'Brian accepted the challenge, though he had to throw him two or three times before he could make him walk that Grover and another young fellow along to jail. He will now have a chance this morning to answer a charge of disorderly conduct, while on his side he Grover's companion broke and run folthreatens to make it hot for the officer.
