Work on our packing house began on Wednesday. The new house is located in the southwestern part of the city near the old packing house. Its espacity will be 1,500 to 2,000 hogs per day and will employ 150 to 200 men. It is a mammoth institution and will add materially to the commercial interests of this city and county. A cooper shop, employing 75 to 100 men, is to be built in the vicinity of the packing houses to supply these concerns with barrels, tierces, casks, etc. which gives us another boost.
