

LINCOLN.

Two Horse Jockeys Have a Slight Misunderstanding.

The Chancellor's Address--Came to Lincoln to Die.

Sabbath Signs Sent Up from the Capital City by Our Own Correspondent.

AT THE CAPITAL.

The racing race at the driving park Saturday afternoon resulted in a brilliant victory for T. S. Nell's...

A Red Cloud gentleman, in Lincoln yesterday, speaks thus of the lecture delivered there by Chancellor Manatt...

The seed father of Mrs. F. M. Hager man, of Bennett, who came out here a few weeks ago from Rockford, Ill., on a visit...

Sheriff Hamilton, of York county, passed through the city Saturday evening in charge of a young man, John H. Madaris...

Miss Ella McBride, of Omaha, will give an entertainment this evening, before the teachers' institute...

The boys arrested Friday for pilfering articles from Mrs. Dalaney's house, were up before Judge Parker, Saturday morning...

The pitcher of the Capital City baseball club failed to materialize Saturday. The rest of the nine were at the depot...

The meeting called at the Commercial parlors Saturday for the organization of a "National Literary Life Circle" was well attended...

Mr. Canada, city editor of the Democrat, returned to Lincoln from a short business trip, Saturday.

Proceedings have been instituted in the district court by C. O. Whedon to restrain the county clerk from issuing a warrant to W. E. G. Caldwell...

BEHIND THE BARS.

C. S. Higgins, the Saloon Man, Suffers a Short Confinement.

Again Arrested on Complaint of the Marshal and Released on Bail--What He Says Regarding the Matter.

Saturday night and Sunday developed some more incidents in the matter of the order closing saloons at midnight...

Anti-Monopoly State Convention. The anti-monopoly party of the state of Nebraska will hold a state convention at the Academy of Music in Lincoln, Nebraska...

Table with 2 columns: COUNTY, and a list of names and numbers representing delegates.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which proxies are given.

Accounts Allowed. The county commissioners, at their meeting on Saturday afternoon, allowed the following accounts:

Table with 2 columns: Name, and Amount. Lists various individuals and their respective amounts.

The Levitt All-Star Pleasure Party opened at Wood's Museum last night to a crowded house. The performance was the best that has been seen in Omaha for some time.

The windows of Higgins' bar room were again obscured at midnight, and it is probable that he will again be arrested this morning.

A Suit for Libel. In the district court Saturday Julius Harthum instituted suit against Henry Pundt, J. F. Lehman, John I. Freshour, Henry Houtens, F. A. Spelman, Phillip Andreas and George and Louis Helms...

The police made a raid last evening on the poker room in the rear of 205 north Sixteenth street, and arrested four gamblers who were indulging in that fascinating game.

ARMY MATTERS.

An Open-Air Party at the Blue Range--Leaves of Absence Granted.

The party given Saturday evening by the officers of the rifle range to the citizens and others who had contributed so heartily to make the rifle competition a success, was a very pleasant affair.

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant George Palmer, Ninth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted Second Lieutenant E. F. Taggart, Sixth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant James B. Jackson, Seventh infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted First Lieutenant C. W. Mason, Fourth infantry, and he is relieved from duty in connection with the department rifle competition...

PERSONAL.

Halmom Low goes to Chicago to-night.

E. A. Eberhardt, Clinton, Iowa, is at the Millard. L. E. Doche, of Creston, is at the Millard. Mrs. C. A. Potter has returned from Denver. C. S. Ordway, of Milwaukee, is at the Paxton. G. F. Napson, San Francisco, is at the Millard. C. L. Ransom, of Lincoln, is at the Millard. J. E. Teasdale, of St. Louis, is at the Paxton. J. W. Parker, Atchison, is stopping at the Paxton. J. G. Ranier, of Grand Island, is at the Paxton. A. G. Cornish and S. Schwab, of Lincoln, are in the city. J. W. Ballinger, of Hastings, is quartered at the Millard. C. C. Painter, of Great Barrington, Mass., is at the Paxton. Mrs. J. W. Miller, of San Francisco, is visiting in the city. Mr. C. L. Herich, of St. Louis, is visiting friends in this city. S. G. Dorr, Tenness, is in the city, stopping at the Millard. J. H. Millard and daughter left for the east Saturday evening. Ex-Governor R. B. Bullock, of Georgia, spent Sunday in the city. C. W. Phillips and A. Waddington, of Nebraska City, are at the Paxton. Mr. E. Haney and little son left Saturday night for a pleasure trip to St. Paul. Dr. Warren C. Spalding left Saturday night for Spirit Lake, to spend a few days. G. W. Cavell, a prominent attorney of Nebraska City, is in the city, stopping at the Paxton. Mrs. A. M. E. Keith, Omaha's popular milliner, started for New York Saturday evening to buy a new line of goods. Colonel Henry and Lieutenant Meriam are to accompany the department rifle team to Fort Snelling, Minn., next week. The wife and two daughters of Mr. Frank Yates have arrived from Laramie and will make their future residence in this city. Clement Chase left yesterday for Des Moines, Ia., where he will attend a local game, given by Peringer, of the Des Moines Times. N. A. Kahn and Warren Switzer are sojourning at Spirit Lake, and from all accounts having an immense time. Word was received by some of their friends here that at one setting they pulled out 150 pounds of fish. P. A. Barrett, Weeping Water; J. A. Ryan, Creston; William Huldemann, St. Louis; C. M. Hunt, Lincoln; O. C. Lacy, Wilmington; Geo. Leisander, Des Moines; E. G. Cooley, Avoca; A. T. McEldey, S. Hazen, Quincy, are at the Canfield. At the Metropolitan: M. N. Sanford, Oconto; A. R. Mulling, Hastings; Fred W. Caruth, Plattsmouth; R. E. Newcomb, Grand Island; H. E. Wood, Madison; James Chase, Plattsmouth; Albert Steen, Oakland; T. S. Hazleton, Bennett, Neb.; J. Jacob, Milwaukee; A. DeJardins, W. D. Edwards, Chicago; E. M. Wilson, Templeton, Ia.; N. Jones, Philadelphia; Thomas J. Radley, Henry J. Partington, Kansas City; Samuel Flor, M. Tucker, Cincinnati; A. W. Mitchell, Underwood, Ia.; S. P. Snyder, L. S. Crawford, Illinois; Edward Kleib, New York; Frank J. Hopson, Missouri Valley; J. J. Collins, Rock Island; C. W. Crane, Grand Rapids, Mich.; N. M. Laws, Peoria, Ill.; W. Well, St. Joseph, Mo.; J. D. Garrison, Lozano, Ia. A Cur's Value. Judge Wells was occupied Friday with the trial of Fred Rabe who was sued by Jean Schons for the value of a $200 dog which he shot. The trial was progressing favorably and Schons would probably have gotten damages for his slain "pup," when he dropped a remark to the effect that he had given the dog to his little son. Attorneys for defense immediately requested a "non-suit," which was granted by Judge Wells. Schons says that he will commence suit for the value of the dog in the name of his son. She Wanted to Die. Mrs. Belle Schultz was arrested last night by the police in a fighting-drunk condition. She was taken to police headquarters, where she became so violent that it was necessary to handcuff her. She informed the officers that it was her intention to kill herself before morning, and she made several attempts to choke herself with cords from her clothing. A watch was kept of her until she fell into a drunken stupor. Her case will be heard by Judge Stenberg this morning. Fast Horses for Omaha. A telegram was received on Saturday, by Joseph Garneau, announcing that the noted horses "Joe Davis" and "Phyllis" would be at the Omaha fair to contest for the $3,000 prize offered in the free-for-all race. These horses have a national reputation, "Joe Davis" having a record of 2:17 and "Phyllis" one of 2:15. An additional $500 is offered if the winner makes a mile in less than 2:10. This will undoubtedly make one of the most exciting contests ever seen in the state. Gamblers Arrested. The police made a raid last evening on the poker room in the rear of 205 north Sixteenth street, and arrested four gamblers who were indulging in that fascinating game. Their names were James Anderson, Thomas Smith, J. C. Elliott and Frank Page. The room is run by Elliott, the others being inmates. They were placed behind the bars, and will appear for trial in police court this morning. She Got Her Child. In the habeas corpus case of Straipitt vs. Drifcorn, mention of which has been made in these columns, Judge McCulloch rendered his decision Saturday in favor of the plaintiff. The case was brought over by the court by Mrs. Straipitt to recover possession of her eighteen-month-old child, which had been placed in the custody of the defendant.

AN IMPORTANT ORDER.

Live Stock for the Omaha and State Fairs Not to be Detained in Quarantine.

The fears expressed in regard to trouble about the importation of live stock for exhibition at the Omaha fair, on account of the new quarantine regulations, prove to be groundless, as was intimated in Governor Dawes' communication to Secretary Wheeler, of the Omaha fair and exposition. Dr. Geith, the state veterinarian, returned to Lincoln Friday, and the matter was immediately referred to him. The following letter from him, which was received by Dr. Chambers on Saturday, effectually settles the point:

Dear Sir:--The live stock sanitary commission of this state has authorized you to act as inspector of live stock at the Union stock yards, Omaha, until further notice.

You are hereby requested to pass all animals coming from states quarantined, consigned to the Nebraska state fair at Lincoln, and the Omaha fair with delay, after examination, providing they are accompanied by a satisfactory bill of health as provided for by law.

J. GEITH, Jr., D. V. S., State Veterinarian.

A man, name unknown, had his head badly cut yesterday afternoon in a saloon fight near Hareall's park.

G. A. Wilkins and A. Fleming are the names registered at police headquarters of two individuals who were arrested by Officers Burdick and Murphy, last evening, for fighting.

NO POISON IN THE PASTRY IF DR. PRICE'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS ARE USED.

The three-legged race which came off, followed by the sack race, and the sport wound up with the young girls' race, which created a great deal of fun for the bystanders.

At about 3:30 the order to pack up was given, and the picnickers left for the train which stood in waiting opposite the park.

The Union Pacific boys deserve great credit for the good order which prevailed through the day. The long train pulled in at the depot at about 9:30 p. m., and everybody went home well pleased with the day's outing.

The happiest man in the whole crowd was the venerable George Medlock. Mrs. Lewis Stamm had a very narrow escape from what might have been a fatal accident. She was passing by the heavy-weight striking machine, while the mill was raised, and was struck on the side of the head. She was unconscious for a moment but was soon revived. A hammock was put up by the members of the band and the suffering woman was made as comfortable as could be done.

The members of the band said after this they will never allow any more striking machines at their picnics.

The Halon's baby's man was on hand as was also the man with the ring and knife stand.

Swings had been hung at the different parts of the grounds, and benches in great numbers were erected.

During the afternoon a loud crash was heard, when suddenly a dozen or more ladies had their feet pointed to the horizon. None of them were hurt.

AT HAREALL'S PARK. The first annual picnic of the Knights of Labor at Hareall's park yesterday was one of the greatest successes that has ever been known in Omaha. All day long the people poured out of the city, and the spacious park was thronged with a happy and joyous multitude. All the Knights and their friends were on hand, and every effort possible was made to secure to all a pleasant time. Dancing, music and sports made the time pass swiftly, and the various committees and their hands full in looking after their various departments. The day was delightful, the people in the best of humor, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

THE FAIREST SOLUTION. Senator Manderson Thinks the Cattle Problem Should be Solved by Leasing.

Senator Charles F. Manderson, who is now on a western trip, was seen in Cheyenne on Friday by a Sun reporter, who has the following to say in Saturday's paper:

United States Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, passed through Cheyenne last evening enroute westward. He is accompanied by his wife, a very estimable lady, and their trip is solely for recreation and sightseeing. The senator was found on the platform with a toothpick in his mouth and a very comfortable look on his genial countenance. He hasn't grown a day older since, when ten years ago he began to be heard of in Nebraska, and people outside were asking: "Who is Manderson, anyway?" But advancing years and senatorial dignity have made him quite portly. He said: "I am out on a visit to the territories. The other members of the senate committee on territories have the idea that, coming from a frontier state, I ought to know everything about them, and I am endeavoring to put myself, I shall go westward on the Union Pacific and return by the Northern Pacific."

"About fences? Yes, I suppose you are interested considerably on that topic out here. Well, the train's about to start, and I can only say this: It is probable that next winter the question of grazing lands will be fully and freely discussed in congress. Justice to all will be sought, and I suppose that the outcome will be an arrangement whereby the grazing lands will be leased by the government to cattle men. I believe this to be the fairest solution of the question."

An Attempted Robbery. John Peiz, living near County Clerk Lassitt's house, was waylaid about half past 11 o'clock Saturday night by three youths who had observed him collect money for tickets in connection with the Knights of Labor picnic. They failed to accomplish their object, and with the assistance of a friend they were driven off. Mr. Peiz escaped with a slight discoloration of his right optic and a few slight scratches.

About twenty Japanese students passed through Omaha yesterday morning on their way west, where they will attend educational institutions. They were very bright looking and were able to converse in a little English.

PLEASANT PASTIMES.

The U. P. Band's Excursion to North Bend--Knights of Labor at Hareall's Park.

The Union Pacific band picnic at North Bend Saturday was a grand success. The train of fourteen well-filled coaches left the Union Pacific depot at 8:30 a. m. with a double-header. The members of the band had considerable trouble when the train started, as it was discovered that suspicious persons were on board and that between thirty and forty boys were trying to beat their way and were concealed under the seats. The train was therefore stopped and the gang removed from the train. At Valley a little fellow was discovered riding on the trucks under the car. He was pulled out with his hat all shreds and clothes badly torn. When the picnic park was reached the excursionists were met by the North Bend band, who furnished some excellent music and escorted the picnickers to the park. Here dinner was first on the programme, after which the fun began. The running race of 100 yards came in first, with eight starters. Frank McCroary came out first and won the prize. The dancing was started on a very large and substantial platform which had been built expressly for the occasion. The music for the dancing was furnished by the Musical Union orchestra. In the one-legged race Sam Stevenson was the winner, and in the boys' running race Master Harry Haskell carried off the prize, a nickel watch.

The three-legged race which came off, followed by the sack race, and the sport wound up with the young girls' race, which created a great deal of fun for the bystanders.

At about 3:30 the order to pack up was given, and the picnickers left for the train which stood in waiting opposite the park.

The Union Pacific boys deserve great credit for the good order which prevailed through the day. The long train pulled in at the depot at about 9:30 p. m., and everybody went home well pleased with the day's outing.

The happiest man in the whole crowd was the venerable George Medlock. Mrs. Lewis Stamm had a very narrow escape from what might have been a fatal accident. She was passing by the heavy-weight striking machine, while the mill was raised, and was struck on the side of the head. She was unconscious for a moment but was soon revived. A hammock was put up by the members of the band and the suffering woman was made as comfortable as could be done.

The members of the band said after this they will never allow any more striking machines at their picnics.

The Halon's baby's man was on hand as was also the man with the ring and knife stand.

Swings had been hung at the different parts of the grounds, and benches in great numbers were erected.

During the afternoon a loud crash was heard, when suddenly a dozen or more ladies had their feet pointed to the horizon. None of them were hurt.

AT HAREALL'S PARK. The first annual picnic of the Knights of Labor at Hareall's park yesterday was one of the greatest successes that has ever been known in Omaha. All day long the people poured out of the city, and the spacious park was thronged with a happy and joyous multitude. All the Knights and their friends were on hand, and every effort possible was made to secure to all a pleasant time. Dancing, music and sports made the time pass swiftly, and the various committees and their hands full in looking after their various departments. The day was delightful, the people in the best of humor, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

THE FAIREST SOLUTION. Senator Manderson Thinks the Cattle Problem Should be Solved by Leasing.

Senator Charles F. Manderson, who is now on a western trip, was seen in Cheyenne on Friday by a Sun reporter, who has the following to say in Saturday's paper:

United States Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, passed through Cheyenne last evening enroute westward. He is accompanied by his wife, a very estimable lady, and their trip is solely for recreation and sightseeing. The senator was found on the platform with a toothpick in his mouth and a very comfortable look on his genial countenance. He hasn't grown a day older since, when ten years ago he began to be heard of in Nebraska, and people outside were asking: "Who is Manderson, anyway?" But advancing years and senatorial dignity have made him quite portly. He said: "I am out on a visit to the territories. The other members of the senate committee on territories have the idea that, coming from a frontier state, I ought to know everything about them, and I am endeavoring to put myself, I shall go westward on the Union Pacific and return by the Northern Pacific."

"About fences? Yes, I suppose you are interested considerably on that topic out here. Well, the train's about to start, and I can only say this: It is probable that next winter the question of grazing lands will be fully and freely discussed in congress. Justice to all will be sought, and I suppose that the outcome will be an arrangement whereby the grazing lands will be leased by the government to cattle men. I believe this to be the fairest solution of the question."

An Attempted Robbery. John Peiz, living near County Clerk Lassitt's house, was waylaid about half past 11 o'clock Saturday night by three youths who had observed him collect money for tickets in connection with the Knights of Labor picnic. They failed to accomplish their object, and with the assistance of a friend they were driven off. Mr. Peiz escaped with a slight discoloration of his right optic and a few slight scratches.

About twenty Japanese students passed through Omaha yesterday morning on their way west, where they will attend educational institutions. They were very bright looking and were able to converse in a little English.

PLEASANT PASTIMES.

The U. P. Band's Excursion to North Bend--Knights of Labor at Hareall's Park.

The Union Pacific band picnic at North Bend Saturday was a grand success. The train of fourteen well-filled coaches left the Union Pacific depot at 8:30 a. m. with a double-header. The members of the band had considerable trouble when the train started, as it was discovered that suspicious persons were on board and that between thirty and forty boys were trying to beat their way and were concealed under the seats. The train was therefore stopped and the gang removed from the train. At Valley a little fellow was discovered riding on the trucks under the car. He was pulled out with his hat all shreds and clothes badly torn. When the picnic park was reached the excursionists were met by the North Bend band, who furnished some excellent music and escorted the picnickers to the park. Here dinner was first on the programme, after which the fun began. The running race of 100 yards came in first, with eight starters. Frank McCroary came out first and won the prize. The dancing was started on a very large and substantial platform which had been built expressly for the occasion. The music for the dancing was furnished by the Musical Union orchestra. In the one-legged race Sam Stevenson was the winner, and in the boys' running race Master Harry Haskell carried off the prize, a nickel watch.

The three-legged race which came off, followed by the sack race, and the sport wound up with the young girls' race, which created a great deal of fun for the bystanders.

At about 3:30 the order to pack up was given, and the picnickers left for the train which stood in waiting opposite the park.

The Union Pacific boys deserve great credit for the good order which prevailed through the day. The long train pulled in at the depot at about 9:30 p. m., and everybody went home well pleased with the day's outing.

The happiest man in the whole crowd was the venerable George Medlock. Mrs. Lewis Stamm had a very narrow escape from what might have been a fatal accident. She was passing by the heavy-weight striking machine, while the mill was raised, and was struck on the side of the head. She was unconscious for a moment but was soon revived. A hammock was put up by the members of the band and the suffering woman was made as comfortable as could be done.

The members of the band said after this they will never allow any more striking machines at their picnics.

The Halon's baby's man was on hand as was also the man with the ring and knife stand.

Swings had been hung at the different parts of the grounds, and benches in great numbers were erected.

During the afternoon a loud crash was heard, when suddenly a dozen or more ladies had their feet pointed to the horizon. None of them were hurt.

AT HAREALL'S PARK. The first annual picnic of the Knights of Labor at Hareall's park yesterday was one of the greatest successes that has ever been known in Omaha. All day long the people poured out of the city, and the spacious park was thronged with a happy and joyous multitude. All the Knights and their friends were on hand, and every effort possible was made to secure to all a pleasant time. Dancing, music and sports made the time pass swiftly, and the various committees and their hands full in looking after their various departments. The day was delightful, the people in the best of humor, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

THE FAIREST SOLUTION. Senator Manderson Thinks the Cattle Problem Should be Solved by Leasing.

Senator Charles F. Manderson, who is now on a western trip, was seen in Cheyenne on Friday by a Sun reporter, who has the following to say in Saturday's paper:

United States Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, passed through Cheyenne last evening enroute westward. He is accompanied by his wife, a very estimable lady, and their trip is solely for recreation and sightseeing. The senator was found on the platform with a toothpick in his mouth and a very comfortable look on his genial countenance. He hasn't grown a day older since, when ten years ago he began to be heard of in Nebraska, and people outside were asking: "Who is Manderson, anyway?" But advancing years and senatorial dignity have made him quite portly. He said: "I am out on a visit to the territories. The other members of the senate committee on territories have the idea that, coming from a frontier state, I ought to know everything about them, and I am endeavoring to put myself, I shall go westward on the Union Pacific and return by the Northern Pacific."

"About fences? Yes, I suppose you are interested considerably on that topic out here. Well, the train's about to start, and I can only say this: It is probable that next winter the question of grazing lands will be fully and freely discussed in congress. Justice to all will be sought, and I suppose that the outcome will be an arrangement whereby the grazing lands will be leased by the government to cattle men. I believe this to be the fairest solution of the question."

An Attempted Robbery. John Peiz, living near County Clerk Lassitt's house, was waylaid about half past 11 o'clock Saturday night by three youths who had observed him collect money for tickets in connection with the Knights of Labor picnic. They failed to accomplish their object, and with the assistance of a friend they were driven off. Mr. Peiz escaped with a slight discoloration of his right optic and a few slight scratches.

About twenty Japanese students passed through Omaha yesterday morning on their way west, where they will attend educational institutions. They were very bright looking and were able to converse in a little English.

Advertisement for Apollinaris mineral water, featuring text about its health benefits and highest award, and an illustration of a building for the Omaha Institute Medical and Surgical.