Scalded by Steam. There was an exciting time yesterday eing injered, one quite seriously.

It seems that the engineer, Daniel valve" which connects with the sewer basin, when the cover of the basin on which he was standing gave away, or up." Almost the entire weight of his body was on the cover, and when it tilted, he slipped in. The steam flew up in great volume, badly scaldunfortunate The "blow off" valve was fully open by this time and the steam soon filled the house. Before Tideman could be extricated he was pretty seriously injured, but is thought he will be around again in a week or two.

In the excitement which prevailed when the steam was escaping from the boiler, one of the workmen, Paul Bernstein by name, tried to break through one of the basement windows, to the sidewalk. He succeeded in cutting his arm preity badly.

Police Court,

The following cases were disposed of by Judge Stenbarg in police court session yesterday. J. C. Elliott, Jim Anderson, Tom Smith, Frank Page, gambling, $5 and coats.

SIXTY YEARS MARRIED.

A Notable Anniversary - Some Re markable Facts Concerning the Brunner Family,

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brunner, of West Point, Neb., will ta-day celebrate sixtieth anniversary, having thele married in Lehigh county, Pennsylvania, in 1825. They moved to Nebraska about twenty years ago, having been preceded by most of their sons. Mr. Brunner is past eighty-three years of age and is now rapidly failing, and Mrs. -The Knights of Labor are to hold a meet- Brunner is past seventy-seven years, and well preserved. Ten years ago when they celebrated their golden wedding they had sixty-two children, grand children and great grand children who were at that time living in the state of Nebras ka. They have now eighty of their off spring living. Their children living are Hon. Urlah Brunner, of West Point; J. J. Brunner, of Oakdale; Prof. J. B. Brunner, county superintendent of publie Instruction of Douglas county; C. E. Brunner, superintendent of mail carriers in the Omaha postoffice; Hon. T. C. Brunner, of Omaha; Mrs. Chas. U. Mohr, of Bell Creek; Mrs. J. E. Riley, of Schuyler, and Mrs. Capt. Jacob Swartz lander, of Omaha, all in Nebraska. One of the remarkable things is that Lillie Monroe, age nine years, is living under the same roof with her mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Mr. Brunner has always been a staunch demo-crat and cast his first vote for Andrew -A gentleman named H. J. Meyer, made Jackson in 1824. His sons are all repub licans, and showed great patriotism, four of them having been in the army at one time during the war of the rebellion.

Western Confidence Men. "The good citizens of Valentine," should be done by the police to prevent such said a gentleman just returned fron the western country, to a reporter yesterday, "are just at present bothered with a large number of confidence men. This nuisance is of recant origin, inasmuch as when Valentine was the headquarters of the cowboys, no "con" man dared to operate in the town, Now that Chadron has developed and has been made a sort of centre for all the cowboys of that section of the western country, the confisevere shock at the time, though the exact dence men are flocking into nature of her injuries has not as yet devel- Valentine. Last week I was there, and heard of two very neat tricks being turned. In one instance two of the confidence fraternity found a "sucker" the country and induced him to enter a dive with them. There they told him that they were traveling salesmen for s out their samples. The greeny immediately offered to purchase, and produced ties, opened the bids on the Smith stock, and laid it on the table. One of the men which have been received by Mr. Wool- immediately grabbed $400 of the money Judge Dundy made and ran out of the house. The rustic was very much excited and wanted to give chaze at once. He was prevented from doing so, however, by the other con man says, to allow the bidders a chance to look who professed to feel very indignant over will be filed by Receiver Woolworth to-morrow, and, if necessary, modify their vestigate the matter. He returned soon the action of his comrade and said that after with a third "con" man who repre-sented the sheriff. This man put a long-

Another granger who was taken into one of these dives by a party of crooks, had a large roll of money snatched from him. He showed fight, saying that no man should leave the room with his money, and commenced to belabor the crooks over the head with anything he could lay his hands on. Finally, one man dropped down and feigned death. His comrades immediately informed the sucker that he had committed murder, and was liable to be arrested at once by the sheriff. They worked upon his feelings so that he finally made up his mind to flee. He left town at once, under the impression that he was a murderer, and before he discovered that he had been swindled, the crooks had made good their escape.'

Convict Labor.

At a meeting of the joint committees of the bricklayers, stonecutters and plasterers, held on Friday evening, a special committee was appointed to draft resolutions on the matter of convict labor.
