It has been discovered that Exam Saint, of Indianapolis, recently appointed to a federal position, has an indictment hanging over his head in the United States district court.

The census of St. Paul and Minneapolis has at last been completed. It has been a lively race between the rival cities. Minneapolis comes out winner.

We have to go away from home sometimes to get the news. The Lincoln Journal, which is continually poking its nose into Douglas county affairs, has discovered that a shortage has been found in the office of our county treasurer.

The expulsion of the cattle men from the Indian territory and the removal of the fences from the public domain everywhere will naturally create a demand for the Union Pacific "desert" lands, which are only fit for grazing.

GENERAL MANAGER TALMAGE OF THE Wabash is responsible for the strike that has been ordered on that unfortunate road. His refusal to even meet the committee of the Knights of Labor to consult regarding the general dissatisfaction existing among the employes of the road was in perfect keeping with his haughty, overbearing and tyrannical disposition.

A RECENTLY published statement to the effect that the tract of 800,000 acres of land which the general land office with held from the Southern Pacific railroad company just as the company was preparing to take possession of it, is absolutely worthless, is disproved by the fact that the London Telegraph not long ago bought $50,000 acres in the vicinity of this tract for the sake of the pulp contained in the cactus that grows there.

TURN THE RASCALS OUT.

Ever since the democratic administration took hold of the reins of government the spoils-hunting bournons have been shouting, "Turn the rascals out."

The rascal business has become a little monotonous. Will some democratic statistician please inform us just how many rascals, in the literal sense of the word, have been discovered in the great army of republican office-holders?

Hardly a day now passes without the discovery of a horse-thief, an embezzler, a murderer, an ex-convict, a drunkard, or a totally unfit or objectionable person among the federal appointments made by the democratic administration.

The expulsion of the cattle men from the Indian territory and the removal of the fences from the public domain everywhere will naturally create a demand for the Union Pacific "desert" lands, which are only fit for grazing.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S letter of rebuke regarding the recommendation of a unfit man for appointment to a federal judgeship, has evoked a great deal of favorable comment.

The largest transfer of land ever made in the territory took place last week. The tract comprises the Hulton ranch of 125,000 acres on the Big Laramie, and a strip of 75,000 acres adjoining it.

Mr. Dawne is the man, his days on the Alaska bench are probably numbered.

The manner in which our courts are conducted is certainly not satisfactory to litigants and to the tax-payers who have to foot the bills.

Work on the university building of Dakota is rapidly approaching completion, and is expected to be ready for occupancy by October.

The fact that a new candidate for United States marshal has appeared in the field without consulting Dr. Miller comes to greatly disturb that democratic boss.

Trade is gradually picking up in the principal wholesale centers, as country buyers are now beginning to make their purchases for the fall season.

The thermometer reached 20 degrees in the shade in some places in Tular county, recently. At Colton in San Bernardino county 125 degrees in the shade is reported.

The wool crop of Montana county will reach from 800,000 to 1,000,000 pounds. Work has already been commenced on San Miguel county's new court house at Telluride.

The Union Pacific has twenty-five men at work in the Alpine tunnel and it is hoped that a few days will make it passable for trains.

The prospects for a good fall and winter mining campaign in the state are better than ever before. Every property showing mineral is being sought after by lessees and the encouragement for good returns in the spring is most flattering.

The wool ex change is to be started at Ellensburg. Maj. Allen has ordered the miners at the Sewee Grass hills to leave immediately.

Whitney already looks up as a presidential candidate. Mahone directs his campaign from Old Point Comfort.

The Albany doctor who goes with Mr. Cleveland into the Adirondacks is said to be a mungump.

The Philadelphia Times observes that "Murat Halstead is the greatest living political sleeper of his generation."

Senator Mahone wrote to a Virginia editor who requested some biographic information: "I am too busy making history to write it."

Secretary Whitney is a kind of surprise party. The first general opinion wrenched him. He is not a dude. He is, in fact, a manly.

Gen. Arthur's White House sayings. New York Commercial Advertiser. Gen. Arthur saved some money from his salary as president, notwithstanding the impression to the contrary.

The License Law in Minneapolis. The city of Minneapolis has a curious provision in its law relating to the liquor traffic. Beadle charging a license fee of $500, the law marks out certain patrol limits, including the business core of the city, within which all the saloons there are must be established, and where they can be kept under close police inspection.
