EXCHANGE BILLS—Quiet and unchanged at $1.84, demand $1.83.

GOVERNMENTS—Dull and steady.

STOCKS—Active and dull by turns. Prices at the opening decidedly strong, advanced in opening quotations over the final prices of yesterday, ranging from ½ to ¾ per cent. During the forenoon and generally within the first hours of business there were further advances, which made the total gains, as compared with yesterday, an average of ½ to 1 per cent. There was a longer period of decided dullness after midday, and a moderate decline from the highest figures, which developed into a very decided weakness in the last hour, especially in Lackawanna.
