An Attempt to Secure Fresh Legislation by Enforcing the Old.

The expressmen and common carriers in organizing and maintaining any union, and there are constant bickerings and complaints. The fact that one of the best known expressmen, Beecroft, has filed complaints in the superior court against the other expressmen has caused no tittle stir and some indiguant talk has been indulged in. The facts, as stated by Beecroft, are to the effect that the hotel runners, but so worded unfortunately as to cover others. Last Sunday Beecroft instead of sending two teams to the depot, sent two creasing proportionately the means of having paid license as a common carrier, think it fair to thus have two men with one wagon, and so entered complaint against Beecroft's extra man. The dising nervously for lack of his accustomed It was thought that such a double tax would meet with a strong protest from the expressmen, and it was suggested that W. A. Spencer, who was until lately if the carriers united in a formal petition sennected with the Council Bluffs Herald to the council the objectionable ordipression of the expressmen was to give them a formal invitation to appear in court. He filed information sgainst nearly all of them, and the storm naturally burst. The cases have been put over until next Monday, and it is predicted that in the meantime such a showing will be made to the council, and such a pressure brought to bear upon the althat the ordinance will
