It was the expression of the council that it was not the intention to make the common carriers pay two licenses, and an arrangement was made by which the cases now in court should stand open until the ordinance could be made right.

Judge Aylesworth also called attention to the fact that the paving contract being let to non-residents, there was danger of the work being given to laboring men not living here, and he suggested that the council should do all that was possible to have work furnished those who live here.

Mr. Folsom, the contractor, stated that he would only bring here four or five skilled men, and that the rest of the laborers would be hired here if possible. der. The lumber dealers seem to be the willing to have this put into his contract, requiring him to employ home laborers, so far as possible, provided he could get them at as low wages as he could get others. A resolution to this effect was also passed by the council.
